LA FONTAINE

Effort to Haul the French Bark Back Into the Channel Proved Fruitless.

ANOTHER TRIAL NEXT WEEK

High Tides Will Then Prevail and Work Will Be Rendered Easier-Quiet Day in Shipping Circles.

The French bark La Fontaine is still per harbor, and there is no prospect rels of salmon. of immediately floating her. At high water vesterday morning the bar tugs Tatoosh and Wallula took hold of her and attempted to drag her back into the channel, but the effort proved futile. The vessel was swung around slightly, but she could not be gotten off the sands. The tugs worked for an hour and then gave up the attempt.

At the present time the tides are not large and it has been decided to wait for another week before again undertaking the work of floating the bark. In the meantime more of the wheat cargo will be removed to the lighter, and when the high tides come around by The Astorian, the expected agreethe vessel will be considerably lighter than she is at present. One thousand tons of the cargo may have to be taken out to float the vessel.

While the bark has been lying in an easy position on the sands, she is leaking, and it is possible she may have been strained. The pumps keep her clear of water and the cargo has to the demands of the men for more not, it is thought, been damaged,

Managers and Marine Engineers Hold Fruitless Meeting at Frisco.

Committees representing the Steam Schooner Managers' Association and the Marine Engineers' Association met The Morning Asterian will be found vesterday at San Francisco for the purpose of discussing their differences, and failed to effect a settlement. Some concessions had been held out by both sides and it was expected the strike would be amicably adjusted. However, New stelk of fancy goods just arrived according to advices received last night, ment did not materialize, and the contending interests are farther apart Union made heating stoves, home man-

The managers' association has assumed a decided attitude in its dealings with the striking engineers, and has followed out its determination to Standard portable and adjustable tie up its vessels rather than submit money. The strike is greatly hurting the shipping interests of the coast, and only two steamers are now running between San Francisco and Astoriathe Alliance and Aurelia-not including the vessels of the O. R. & N. Co. The indications are that the strike will be a protracted one.

A Desirable Hand Book on the World's Fair, issued By The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

Perhaps the best treatise on the tions of the great fair in a most ad-World's fair at St. Louis is that published by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, in an illuminated folder of eightyfour pages, setting forth the attracmirable and complete manner. It contains some sixty-eight views of buildings, including maps of St. Louis, the original Louisiana purchase, and the World's fair grounds. It is a resume of what may be seen at the exposition, gaving interesting and valuable information in a way, that one who starts to read, can hardly lay the booklet down until he has read it entire. Aside from its contents, its artistic appearance in the standard colors of the "Royal Blue and Sepla" makes it a thing to be desired. It may be had free on application to any of the Baltiore & Ohio ticket agents, or by ad dressing B. N. Austin, general passenger agent, Chicago, or D. B.
