You Can Be Cured.

No. 11 Cedar Terrace, Hor Springs, Ark., April 28, 1903.

When I was first married I found that my strength and health were gradually diminishing. I became nervous and irritable, and was in bed a week and sometimes ten days every month, and had intense bearing down pains. My husband had the best physician for me and I used his medicine for nearly four months, but I gradually grew worse, had less strength, and finally, I was unable to leave my bed at all.

A friend who was calling on me brought me a bottle of Wine of Cardui and was so loud in its praise that I told her that I would take it to please her.

I was surprised and pleased that before I had used the bottle I really felt better, so I kept on using it. Eight bottles brought back my lost health and strength, and I have not had a sick day in six months.

Etta Finnegan

Treasurer, St. Andrew's Society.

WINE OF CARDUI

Mrs. Finnegan had little hope of relief because she knew that every time she had those spells of menstrual suffering with attendant bearing down pains she was weaker. And every month the pain was growing more severe.

But Mrs. Finnegan was cured by Wine of Cardui. She is now so well that there are few women who would not be glad to have the health she has. And any woman who has those dreaded bearing down pains can have the same relief.

You can be free from menstrual irregularities if you take this pure stable wine. Why don't you take it when you see what it has done for others? Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today.

Your druggist has $1.00 bottles.

TOGA'S STORY OF THE BOTTLING UP ADVENTURE

Tokio, March 29.—(Delayed in transmission.)—Admiral Togo's recital of the second attempt to bottle up the Port Arthur squadron and the sixth attack on that port reached Tokio today. Admiral Togo's report is as follows:

"The united squadron again left for Port Arthur last Saturday. On Sunday morning at 3:30 we commenced preparations for blocking the harbor entrance. The four steamers which were to be sunk, escorted by a flotilla of torpedo boat destroyers, advanced to the entrance, facing the enemy's searchlights. About two miles from the entrance the bottling up squadron was discovered by the enemy. Exposed to the fire of the fortresses on either side and also to that from the enemy's ships on guard, and braving these dangers the four steamers ran into the waterway at the harbor. One of the steamers, the Chiyo Maru, anchored about half a chain from the west shore of Golden Hill, blew itself up and sank. The second one, the Fukui Maru, passing to the left of the Chiyo Maru, advanced a short distance and was about to come to anchor when she was struck by a torpedo from the enemy's destroyers. She sank in that position. The third one, the Yahiko Maru, went to the left of the Fukui Maru and blew herself up and sank. The fourth steamer, the Yoneyama Maru, reached the harbor entrance and colliding against the stern of one of the enemy's torpedo boat destroyers she managed to reach the middle passage by passing between the Chiyo Maru and Fukui Maru. Just at that moment, one of the enemy's torpedoes struck and sank her. Her momentum brought her toward the left shore and with her bow toward the left side she sank sideways. To have accomplished the work so far under such great disadvantages and dangers must be considered a success and command admiration. It is to be regretted, however, that owing to some space being left between the Yahiko Maru and the Yoneyama Maru a complete blocking of the entrance has not been effected.

swain Sugino, who were killed, displayed remarkable courage. Boat-swain Sugino was just going down to light the magazine on the Fukui Maru when the ship was struck by an enemy's torpedo which killed him.

Commander Hirose, after causing his men to take to the boats and not finding Sugino, searched through the ship three times for him. Finding his ship gradually going down, Commander Hirose was compelled to give up the search and enter a boat. As he was rowing away under the enemy's hot fire a shell struck him on the head. His head and part of his body was blown away. Only a piece of flesh in the boat was all that remained of the brave officer's body. Commander Hirose was always a model officer and he leaves a meritorious example, the memory of which will be everlasting.

"For the protection of the steamers and the rescue of their crews all our flotilla of torpedo destroyers did their utmost in the face of the enemy's severe cannonade. Above all were the efforts of the destroyers Aodaka and Tsubame, who penetrated to within about a mile of the harbor entrance, where they encountered and engaged the enemy's destroyers, inflicting considerable damage.

"One Russian destroyer seemed to have been hit in the boiler. She sent up a volume of steam and retreated. At the time the officers and men of the Aodaka and Tsubame were leaving the harbor after the work they had done they observed that one of the enemy's ships below Golden Hill seemed to be completely disabled. Despite the very hot fire of the enemy to which our flotilla was exposed until dawn, no damage whatever was sustained. The crews aboard the Chiyo Maru and the Yahiko Maru were taken on board the destroyer Tsubame. The crew of the Yoneyama Maru escaped in three boats and were rescued by the destroyers Misasagi and the Karigane. The crew of the Fukui Maru was taken on board the Kasumi.

The World's Fair Route.

Those anticipating an eastern trip, or a visit to the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis, cannot afford to overlook the advantages offered by the Missouri Pacific Railway, which, on account of its various routes and gateways, has been appropriately named "The World's Fair Route."

Passengers from the northwest take the Missouri Pacific trains from Denver or Pueblo, with the choice of either going direct through Kansas City, or via Wichita, Fort Scott and Pleasant Hill.

Two trains daily from Denver and Pueblo to St. Louis without change, carrying all classes of modern equipment, including electric lighted observation parlor cafe dining cars. Ten daily trains between Kansas City and St. Louis.

Write or call on W. C. McBride, general agent, 124 Third street, Portland, for detailed information and illustrated literature.

Interior Cities Quiet.

Niu Chwang, Tuesday, March 29.—A reliable report from the vicinity of the Yalu river states that everything is quiet in the interior cities. Native theaters are running and the Chinese are undisturbed except at Antung, where all the large shops have been closed. The natives have been forbidden to cross or recross the Yalu river. The natives believe that the troops on the Yalu river do not exceed 40,000. Travelers report having seen troops under strenuous march along the Feng Huang Cheng road, footsore and weary. The bridges which are largely temporary, are partly inundated, owing to the melting snows and rain.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Warren, Mich.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Oregon City, Oregon, March 11, 1904.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Samuel J. McIntyre, of Svenson, county of Clatsop, state of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement, No. 6341, for the purchase of lots 2, 7 and 8 of sec. 23, and lot 5 of section No. 23, in township No. 4 north, range No. 8 west, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the register and receiver of this office at Oregon City, Oregon, on Wednesday, the 15th day of June, 1904.

He names as witnesses: Roy Wherry, of Collins, Washington; J. R. Wherry, of Elsie, Oregon; Percy Allen, of Elsie, Oregon; Stephen Abrahamson, of Elsie, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are re-
