Credit Is A Necessity

Government banks, corporations, institutions, all seek credit with privileges of part settlements. Why not the housekeeper with her own institution? We don't believe for a moment that we grant you a favor in extending "charge" privileges. We appreciate your acceptance of our offer. It casts a mutual confidence and clear understanding over our relations. When you are doubtful about values ask candid questions. We are a reliable house, and we would rather lose a sale by disappointing you with a fact than selling you by misrepresentation. The last named fault would be commercial suicide.

Old Time Friends Honor Mrs. Finch

Astoria Lady, Visiting in Woodland, Cal., Tendered Delightful Reception.

The following from the Woodland (Cal.) Daily Democrat, tells of a delightful reception tendered Mrs. A. A. Finch of this city, who is visiting with relatives and friends in the California town:

"Mrs. Arthur Finch of Astoria, Ore., who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. McConnell, was a guest of honor at a delightful reception given by Mrs. C. R. Wilcox on Thursday afternoon.

"The company consisted of 16 married ladies, most of whom were intimate friends of Mrs. Finch before any of them were married.

"The parlor decorations were simple but none the less beautiful. They consisted almost wholly of choice and fragrant roses, arranged in exquisite bouquets.

"The ladies were invited to bring along their fancy work and during the afternoon some very delightful embroidery and drawn work excited the admiration of those present.

"A volunteer program was rendered and it included many vocal and instrumental selections admirably rendered.

"At 5 o'clock tea was served. The guests were seated at four small tables arranged around one large table, from which the refreshments were served.

"Gold of opih roses was the feature of the dining room decorations. There was a vase of them on each of the small tables and a very large bowl of them on the center table.

"Roses were strung from the chandelier to three points of the center table, and the effect was heightened by streamers of pink and yellow illusion.

"The menu was elegant and consisted of shrimp salad, dainty chips, olives, creamed chicken, hot biscuits, raspberry jelly, coffee, brick ice cream in pink and yellow colors, angel cake and bon bons.

"A neat white card with a rose and pink and satin ribbon attachment was at each plate. On each card was written a sentiment to "Beautiful Woman." These sentiments, dedicated to the guest of honor, were read by the guests. On Mrs. Finch's card was a quotation containing a beautiful sentiment to "Old Friendship," which she read with much feeling when the others had concluded.

"It was one of the most charming social functions of the season."

ELECTRICAL PALACE AT NIGHT.

Eight Acres of Illumination Showing Splendid Architecture.

The beautiful palace of electricity is one of the central structures of the exposition, standing opposite the palace of education on the west side of the Grand basin.

The lagoon system extends entirely around the building and the approach is by means of several ornamental bridges. The entire setting is most beautiful.

The palace of varied industries stands on the north and the palace of machinery on the west and the Cascade gardens rise on the south. The building covers eight acres and is one of the most costly on account of the many lofty columns and entablatures, the high towers at corners and entrances and the liberal use of sculpture.

The architecture is such as to make a picture of unusual beauty when the electric current is turned on and the thousands of bulbs glow with festive radiance. In the brilliant night picture the statuary on the lofty corner towers and elsewhere stands out prominently against the dark sky.

The sculpture on the corners is by Bela L. Pratt. The standing figure represents Light, holding aloft the Sun, while at her feet, in the shadow of their mantles, crouch figures representing darkness.

Regarding Flour Exportation.
New York, May 2.—Minister of Foreign Affairs Terry has delivered to the Brazilian minister a note referring to the exportation of flour from that country, says a Herald dispatch from Buenos Ayres. He has also instructed the Argentine minister in Rio de Janeiro to begin negotiations in reference to the matter.

Berkeley Wins Easily.

University of California, May 2.—The crew of the University of California defeated the University of Washington crew over a mile and a half course on the Oakland estuary today. The California crew was in the lead throughout the race and won by nine lengths. Time, 10 minutes 49 seconds.

A THOUGHTFUL MAN.

M. M. Austin, of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at Charles Rogers' drug store.
