A HAPPY MOTHER

WEATHERFORD, TEXAS,
May 14, 1902.

Before my baby was born I was in great misery. I was just able to be about but just as soon as I began to take Wine of Cardui, which had been recommended to me, I felt much better. In fact I felt that if it had not been for this medicine I would not have been strong enough to live through childbirth. But that was made comparatively easy by taking your medicine for four months before baby came. Wine of Cardui restored my health as I took it two months afterward. I cannot speak too highly of Wine of Cardui and I am glad to endorse it.

Mrs. C. E. Wood
TREASURER, YOUNG MATRONS' CLUB.

Wine of Cardui is a powerful tonic which acts on the generative organs of women, regulating menstruation and giving tone and strength to the organs which inflammation and weakness have affected. It cures nineteen out of every twenty cases of bearing-down pains or ovarian trouble. Wine of Cardui cures barrenness and aids the mother in conserving her strength for the ordeal of childbirth. After that event the Wine prevents dangerous flooding and helps mothers to quick recovery. Wine of Cardui is the one medicine a mother should use before and after childbirth.

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

COASTER IS OUT OF FUEL

Robert Dollar Puts Into Astoria While on Her Way North From San Francisco,

ENCOUNTERED HEAD WINDS

Northwester Delayed Her and Her Fuel Supply Ran Low—Schooner Talbot's Fine Remitted.

The well-known steam schooner Robert Dollar, bound from San Francisco for Seattle, unexpectedly put into Astoria harbor yesterday. The steamer left San Francisco four days ago and met with head winds on the trip up the coast. Her master believed he had ample coal to last him until he reached Seattle, but when off the Columbia he found himself so short of fuel that he ran into Astoria to secure more coal.

The Dollar reached port in the nick of time, for her fuel supply was almost exhausted when she got to a dock here. She took on 15 tons of fuel and then departed for Seattle. Unless something unforeseen occurs, the steamer will reach the sound port today.

This coaster is one of several vessels reaching port of late which have reported stormy weather along the coast. The Dollar ran into a stiff north-west blow, which has been prevailing south of the Columbia for several days past. She was not in any danger, but the adverse wind delayed her and shortened up her fuel supply.

TALBOT'S FINE REMITTED.

Department Excuses Schooner for Failure to Have Certificate.

The schooner W. H. Talbot, which arrived a few weeks ago, was fined $500 by Collector of Customs Robb for failing to have a current certificate of inspection, as required by our maritime laws. The master of the schooner appealed the case to Washington, as is usually done in such instances, and yesterday Collector Robb received notice that the fine had been remitted.

At the time the schooner's inspection certificate expired she was in foreign waters. She came directly to this port, and her certificate was found to be worthless for the purpose intended. The law allows the customs authorities no latitude, but specifies what fine shall be imposed. Mr. Robb obeyed the law, but the treasury officials accepted the explanation of the master of the vessel and remitted the fine.

Rock Deliveries Commenced.

The first rock barge from Fisher's Landing arrived down late Monday night. The Hercules brought down the barge, the Westucca, which was formerly used by Hale & Kern to carry rock to the Grays harbor jetty. These rock deliveries are being made by a Portland concern, Hale & Kern, and it is the intention that 1000 tons of rock daily shall be delivered at Fort Stevens. The tug Samson is being overhauled and will shortly arrive down to tow the barges from Astoria to the fort. The Hercules is not licensed to cross the bay. Meantime the Northwest Construction Company will continue to deliver large quantities of rock at Stevens, and the engineers there will have their hands full to take care of the deliveries. In view of the double rock supply, the shortage of jetty funds is greatly deplored, as it is felt much beneficial work could be accomplished this summer if the department could work unrestrictedly.

Longshoremen's Convention.

The local branch of the longshoremen's union has made preparations to entertain the delegates to the annual convention, which will be held at Astoria this year. The convention will convene on June 6, election day, and the session promises to be a most interesting one, as several important matters are to be brought up for action. There will be 60 delegates in attendance and the convention will last two or three days—perhaps longer. The enterprise of the local branch in getting the convention for Astoria has been generally commended.

Overdue Arrives.

The British bark Invermay arrived down the river yesterday and cleared for Mollendo, Peru, with 1,125,890 feet of lumber, valued at $12,993.

The steamship Elder was due last night from San Francisco, but did not reach port. She has been delayed by the northwester that has prevailed along the coast.

The gasoline launch Alvina, built by Wilson Bros. for John T. Nassa of Cathlamet, has been launched from the west end yards. The launch is fitted up for passenger business and is very neatly built.

SWIFT FISTIC BATTLE.

New York Sports Journey to Hall in Dark Cabs to Evade Police.

New York, May 24.—One of the fastest fights brought off here since the Horton law was repealed has just occurred in a dance hall on the upper Eastside. Larry Temple, colored, and Charley Haghey, local heavyweights, were the principals and the negro secured the decision at the end of 10 rounds. Haghey's clever defense alone saved him from being knocked out, although he had all the better of the fight for five rounds.

A big crowd paid $10 a ticket to see the fight, after having journeyed to the end of the darkened hall in cabs to avoid the police.

Hearing Postponed.

Washington, May 24.—Owing to the absence of the president from Washington, no cabinet meeting was held today, and Postmaster Bancroft's case was again postponed, probably until next Friday.

Because of telegrams received by the department from Portland, an investigation is being made to ascertain the causes of friction between Postmaster Bancroft and Assistant Burwardt.

Strikers Working Again.

New York, May 24.—Workmen who struck a few weeks ago in the various shipyards of New York and vicinity are returning under the old terms, according to a statement issued by the secretary of the New York Metal Trades' Association, against whose members the strike is aimed. So far about 200 men have resumed their labors.

Letters From Perdicaris.

New York, May 24.—A dispatch from Tangier to the Times says letters have been received from Ion Perdicaris, the wealthy American who was kidnaped a few days ago by bandits. The writer says he is being well cared for and is in good health.

Fish Story from Tacoma.

Tacoma, Wash., May 24.—A big whale today swam into Tacoma harbor and gave a water spouting performance. Eyewitnesses say the fish was 50 feet long. Several launches are giving chase.

Formosa Cable Interrupted.

New York, May 24.—The Commercial Cable Company sends out the following notice: "We are advised that the Foo Chow-Formosa cable is interrupted. Messages to Formosa via Japan."

Water Indications.

Portland, May 24.—For Oregon Wednesday probably fair; warmer, except near the coast.

Kuropatkin's Coffin.

Baltimore American.

Mr. Adam F. Bantro, editor of Polonia, the Polish weekly newspaper, is in close touch with what is going on in the far east, and scarcely a week passes but what he receives an interesting letter from the front.

In one of the letters the writer says that among the baggage of General Kuropatkin is a burial casket, on which is a silver plate with his full name—Aleksiej Nekolage Kuropatkin—engraved on it. The reason for his carrying the casket is given that he confidently expects to be killed before the war is over.

Some months ago, it is said, he had a dream that he was killed in a battle,
