ATTACK ON FISHERMEN

Evening Paper Says Sacramento River Men Are Not Desirable Class.

DEFENSE MADE BY PACKER

Denounces Attack and Says Men Who Come North Are Among Best Fishers on This River.

The arrival here yesterday on the steamship Elder of 35 Sacramento river fishermen, who have come north to fish on the Columbia river during the season, was made the subject in last night's Budget of an attack upon the men. The evening publication asserts that the fishermen are all residents of California; that they are readily employed by the cannerymen, notwithstanding the protest of the fishermen's union; that they do not bring nets north with them, but always take back fishing gear (the inference being, it is to be supposed, that the men steal the nets); that in many instances they bring with them the very provisions necessary during the season, including generous quantities of "dago red."

From the statement made last evening to an Astorian representative by one of the leading salmon packers of the river, the attack of the Budget is unjust. The packer in question phoned the Astorian last night and made the following statement:

"In most particulars, the Budget's attack upon these men is wholly false. In ever particular, it is uncalled for. These California fishermen, who may with equal reason be called Columbia river fishermen, are among the best fishers on this river, and the packers regard them as such.

"The statement is made that the men do not bring their nets with them. This is incorrect, for their gear always accompanies them. I am at a loss to understand why the insinuation should be made that the men steal nets here and take them south to California when they return in the fall.

"As to the statement that these Californians are employed by the packers notwithstanding the protest of the fishermen's union of this city, I will say there is no foundation in truth for it. The men are all members of the union and quite as much entitled to consideration on this score as the Astoria fishermen. I employ a large number of fishermen and have not yet heard of any complaint from the C. R. F. P. U. because we employ the men from the Sacramento river.

"It is not clear that the men are residents of California any more than of this state. They spend half the year in Astoria and the other half in California. Apart from this feature of the situation, however, it would be about impossible to prevent the men from fishing here, because they could readily secure Washington licenses if they were not granted permits by the Oregon authorities.

"We have employed many California fishermen and find them to be among the very best of our employes. They attend to their work at all times, strictly observe the regulations of the packers and the fishermen's union, and should not be made the subject of an attack such as appeared in the Budget this evening. I believe the men have been done a great injustice and therefore voice this protest."

The fishermen who arrived yesterday are the vanguard of the large number of men who annually come to Astoria to fish. On every steamer arriving for the next four or five weeks other fishermen will come here to remain until the season closes. The object of the present Oregon law in requiring that applicants for fishing licenses must be residents of this state was the exclusion of outside fishermen, but in the case of these men, it would appear from the foregoing statement, the law could not well be made to apply.

TYNER-BARRETT FREE.

Jury Returns Verdict of Not Guilty After Short Deliberation.

Washington, May 25.—Within 22 minutes of its retirement the jury in the case of James N. Tyner and Harrison J. Barrett, tried on charges of conspiracy in connection with their duties as law officers of the postoffice department, returned a verdict of not guilty.

General Tyner appeared greatly excited as he attempted to face the jury, and, when the verdict was returned, he broke down completely. Several jurors wept with him and all then shook hands with him.

The Tyner-Barrett case, was begun on May 2 and has been before the court 19 full days.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES

Pupils of Adair's School Render Interesting Program Yesterday Afternoon.

OLD VETERANS WERE PRESENT

Best Numbers Will Be Selected From Program for General Memorial Day Program.

Yesterday afternoon the Adair school held their Memorial day program, which proved to be an exceedingly interesting one. The spirit of Memorial day entered into the occasion perhaps more than it usually does, and the pupils who had places on the program were alive to the success of their school and did their best. There was on hand a committee from the G. A. R. consisting of Charles Wright, T. Daly and W. Shaw, to choose from among the best numbers of the program selections to be included in the general program on Memorial day. The selections chosen can not be given out at present, but it is safe to say that this school will be prominent among the schools of the city in the public exercises to be held. Several ladies of the W. R. C. were present at the exercises, and the school board was represented by Mr. Barker.

The exercises were opened with the singing of "America," in which all present heartily joined. A recitation on Memorial day by Miss Margaret Neilson and one entitled "For Grandpa's Sake," by E. Malagamba were filled with the spirit of the occasion and were greeted with well-earned applause. The duet entitled "Your Dad Gave His Life for His Country," by Hilda and Helmi Kalunki, was exceedingly well rendered.

Readings by Nelle Kimball and Mary Gustafsen were well received. Misses Gertrude and Reubina Larson rendered a Decoration day duet that spoke well for the musical ability of the singers.

The pupils of room 4 delivered a dialogue entitled "Columbia," which is especially worthy of mention, and the piano solo, "The Gondoliers," by Miss Ina Manula deserves special praise. The recitations of Caroline Dybuc and Julia Anderson, the solo of Mabel Larsen and the flag drill by the young ladies of room 4 were among the star numbers of the program.

"The Veterans," as rendered by Agnes Wahlgren, was most pleasing. The piano solo by Wilma Young received well-merited applause, and the rendition of Webster's Reply to Hayne, by Gerald McManama, showed that young gentleman to be an orator of no mean ability. Other events worthy of special mention were the song by the girls of room 5, the recitation of Albert Porter, the duet of Misses Sarah and Isabel Downey, the violin solo of Miss Larsen, the recitation of Miss May Hofmann, the dialogue by the nine boys from room 4 and the chorus by the young ladies of rooms 4, 5 and 6.

RUSSIANS DESECRATE SHRINES.

Royal Mausoleum Erected in 1364 Destroyed by Cossacks.

Seoul, Korea, May 25.—A telegram has been received here from Gensan, on the east coast of Korea, saying that the Russians, after the engagement with Korean troops at Ham Heung, on May 19, burned the shrines and the royal mausoleum which were erected there by the founder of the present Korean dynasty in the year 1364, and which was regarded by the Koreans as sacred. This apparent wanton destruction of tombs in a land imbued with the spirit of ancestral worship has caused excited denunciation of the Russians on the part of the Seoul officials. Ham Heung is on the coast of Korea, about 50 miles north of Gensan. The Cossacks which are believed to be at Kyong Song have, according to Korean reports, about 20 guns with them. If this is true this artillery probably is composed of trans-Balkan horse batteries, several of which were attached to the first corps at Vladivostok before the war.

A Japanese who has returned from Yongampho reports that there are only a few Japanese troops there. The people are quiet, but they do not welcome the Japanese occupation, because of the severity of the military authorities. The Russians left many thousand feet of useful timber at Yongampho.

There are not more than 800 soldiers in the garrison at Seoul. Barracks which heretofore were filled are now vacant, the troops have gone north to Anju. The local gendarmes are being transferred to Yongampho, Wiju and Antung.

EGGED THE PROFESSOR.

Weston People Rise Against State Normal President.

Weston, Ore., May 25.—Because it is alleged that President French of the Oregon state normal school at Weston took exception to one of the woman teachers at the institution keeping company with a brickyard employe, and because he made public a statement that "none but hobos worked in brickyards," he has been made the target for rotten eggs, and factional strife in the school has resulted. People of Weston have interested themselves in the controversy, and its effects bid fair to be far-reaching.

Brickmaking is the principal industry of this city, and a large force of men is constantly employed here. It is from these men and their families that the town derives its support.

Shortly after President French had made his objectionable statement, he was waylaid on his way home and rotten egged. Who threw the eggs is not known, but it is supposed brickyard hands did it.

HERALD STILL TIED UP.

Promise Made That Baker City Paper Will Be Usual Size Today.

Baker City, May 25.—The Evening Herald again made its appearance in abbreviated form last evening. The publishers promise that it will appear in the usual form today. Those interested in the paper spent most of yesterday trying to come to some understanding by which the paper could be issued.

The trouble, it is understood, is only abated temporarily. The White Swan Mines Company will make a determined effort to gain control of the publication right away after the annual meeting of the stockholders, June 7. Manager Stutter insists that his company owns the entire plant, and that it is the purpose to force the issue and regain possession at once.

READY FOR RACE.

Great Interest Centers in Brooklyn Handicap.

New York, May 25.—With perfect weather in prospect and at least a dozen high-class thoroughbreds sure to start, the great Brooklyn handicap tomorrow at Gravesend promises to be one of the greatest running races ever seen on the American turf. The distance is a mile and a quarter and the purse is valued at $20,000.

BISHOP OF PORTLAND.

Noted Divine and Religious Editor Honored in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 25.—Bishop D. H. Moore was today appointed resident bishop at Portland. He was made bishop four years ago, and has been very successful since that time in missionary labors in China. For four years he was editor of the Western Christian Advocate at Cincinnati and previous to that time chancellor of Denver university. He is a man of pleasing personality. Bishop Moore takes the place of Bishop Earl Cranston in becoming resident bishop at Portland, Bishop Cranston going to Washington. The assignment, however, is simply one of residence, not work, as a resident bishop may hold

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpelde on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpelde speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpelde effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpelde stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpelde Co., Detroit, Mich.

TEN MINERS KILLED BY GAS.

noon, General Inside Foreman Golden and about 50 miners boarded the loaded train which was about to be hauled from eBar valley to Williamstown. Everything went all right until about half the journey was made, when some of the men attracted the attention of the engineer, who at once stopped and found that nearly every man in the party had been overcome by gas from the engine. The engineer at once crowded on all the steam possible and the unconscious were hurried to Wil-
