The Astoria court, Foresters of America, have elected the following officers to serve the ensuing term: P. H. Hadden, chief ranger; A. Y. Anderson, sub chief ranger; P. Finlayson, senior woodward; C. Debeau, junior woodward; G. E. Dyer, recording secretary; E. R. Sutton, senior beadle; J. C. Thair, junior beadle; Robert McLean, lecturer.

Divine Providence has intervened in the case of Otto Links, and he is now enjoying his liberty instead of being held on a charge of grand larceny. Links was arrested here early in May for vagrancy. His sentence was not carried out, the man having agreed to leave the city. He returned a few days ago and was arrested, having violated his agreement to stay away from Astoria. He had a bicycle, and inquiry developed the fact that he had stolen it. It belonged to a man living at Aberdeen. Yesterday Chief Hallock received word that the authorities at Aberdeen had decided not to prosecute and Links was turned loose. He was ordered to leave the city and hastily availed himself of the opportunity to do so.

Reuben Neer, held for larceny, was arraigned yesterday before Judge Goodman. A. Olsen, one of the men from whom Neer stole watches, was placed on the stand by the state. He related that he recently worked for Saldren at Gray's river and that one of the watches found on Neer belonged to him. He had left the watch in his trunk at noon, and when he returned at night it was gone. The entire bunkhouse had been rifled by the man who stole the property. When arrested Neer had two watches and small coins to the extent of $18 in his possession. Olsen had never seen the man. Neer asked that the hearing be postponed until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when he hoped to be able to secure counsel. The court granted the continuance. The authorities have a clear case against the man.

Two women attempted to settle differences in the vicinity of the post-office at a late hour last night, with the result that one of the walks was covered with pieces of headgear and hair. After a skirmish of a few minutes they separated and went their several ways, having been seen but by two of the sterner sex. What the trouble started over is a matter of conjecture.

It will be the aim of Messrs. Dickinson & Allen to carry constantly in stock samples of the very latest creations in the way of fine clothing and to give satisfaction at all times.

A good joke is told on Major Wisser, who has been making a thorough inspection of the forts at the mouth of the river. One morning at 2 o'clock he caused a general alarm to be sounded, and was pleased to find all the men at their stations in an almost incredible space of time. It afterward became known that the major's intention to sound the general alarm had leaked out and all the men were prepared.

The reserved seat sale for the Empire Stock Company in "Capital vs. Labor," at Fisher's opera house next Monday, opens at Griffin's book store tomorrow morning. The company consists of twenty people, and is said to be the best travelling repertoire company coming this way and are very highly praised by the California press, where they have been playing to crowded houses. Prices are: Reserved seats, 35 cents; gallery, 25 cents.

Louis Grant, formerly a resident of Astoria, was drowned at South Bend, Wash., last Sunday. He was in the employ of the Toke Point Oyster Company, and it is supposed his boat capsized while he was rowing on the bay. The body was recovered. Grant was about 50 years of age and for several years worked here for Phillip Bower. He was in Astoria about a year ago on a visit. The unfortunate man had many friends here and the news of his sad death was a shock to them.

Councilman Lebeck is one of the members of the city body who are not at all anxious over the outcome of the effort to erect a new city hall. He expresses confidence that the council can arrange for the necessary sum without running the city in debt, but as yet has not given out the plan which is to be pursued to attain this desirable result. He stated last evening that the hall would cost from $35,000 to $40,000, and that the council could easily provide the necessary funds. All of the councilmen are opposed to adding to the present heavy debt, which is a great burden because of the interest account.
