CONVENTION IN SESSION

Longshoremen Convene and Listen to Speeches by Mayor, Harrison Allen and Others.

Convention Is Harmonious—Convention Will Probably Go to Dominion of Canada Next Season.

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the convention of the Pacific coast branch of the Longshoremen, Marine & Transportation Workers was called to order in Carnahan's hall, the full quota of delegates from California, Oregon, Washington and the Dominion of Canada being present. The delegates began to arrive as early as noon Sunday, and had no trouble in securing suitable quarters. When the convention was called to order this morning, a spirit of enthusiasm and good fellowship prevailed and the men who represent the organization settled down to transact their business and have the most successful convention of years.

Addressed by the Mayor. After the call to order the convention was addressed by Mayor Surprenant, who welcomed the delegates to Astoria and told them to make themselves at home during their stay in the city. The mayor spoke of the importance of their calling in the world of men, and what it meant to the Pacific coast in particular. He spoke of the development of Pacific shipping and improvements in the coastwise service and paid tribute to the long-branch in particular.

Hon. Harrison Allen Speaks. The mayor was followed by Hon. Harrison Allen, who addressed the delegates on behalf of the county and the state. The state was to have been represented by State Labor Commissioner Hoff, who found himself unable to be present, and asked Mr. Allen to speak in his stead. Mr. Allen delivered a rousing address and was cheerfully applauded at the close thereof. Mr. Allen spoke at length on things commercial and marine, gave the delegates a deal of wholesome advice and complimented the local branch on getting the convention to this city. Mr. Ed Bowers and the Rev. William Seymour Short also addressed the gathering.

Vice President Speaks. After the local speakers had espoused the cause of the association, Mr. Riordia, the eighth vice president of the order, delivered an address more to the business point of view. Mr. Riordia's address also took on the form of electioneering, as it will be the duty of this convention to select delegates to the international convention, which will convene in the city of Milwaukee early next month. He paused long enough in his discussion of things marine to eloquently praise the land "where rolls the Oregon," and for his tribute received an ovation at the hands of those assembled.

Will Get Down to Business. Today the delegates will get down to business and rush through the routine part of the convention. It is fully expected that the next convention will be held at some port of the Dominion of Canada, as it has been held in the United States for several consecutive years. The city will be chosen when the delegates get to that part of the program.

Kruzler-Anderson Wedding. The marriage of Mr. Emil B. Kuzler and Miss Mary Anderson was solemnized yesterday afternoon by Rev. L. A. Leas, pastor of the St. James Lutheran church of Portland, at the Swedish Lutheran church of East Astoria. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Selma Anderson, the bridesmaid, and by Misses Sophia Anderson and Laura Anderson, maids of honor. Hon. John Frye was the best man, and Messrs. Fred Johnson and Allen Anderson the ushers. The bride was given away by her father, Lexon Anderson. The church was beautifully decorated and a large number of the friends of the popular couple attended the ceremony. The presents received by the principals were numerous and handsome. At the conclusion of the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cyrus, and Mr. and Mrs. Kuzler left on the night train for a wedding tour that is to include a visit to the world's fair.

CONCEALED THE COIN. Young Woman Had Two Hundred Dollars in Her Stocking.

New York, June 6.—A refined looking woman, who says she is Miss Agnes Malone, a book canvasser of Boston, was locked up in the West Thirtieth street station last night on a charge of shop lifting made by Detective Kaah of a department store. She is accused of stealing gloves, mufflers, silk lace and other small articles valued at $66.60.

She told the matron at the station, Rose Daly, that she had $200 in her stocking, an a search verified this assertion. She seemed nervous and almost ready to collapse when arraigned before Sergeant Wilson, but the police think she had been seeking money for a pressing need. She told the matron she had an infavil father in Boston.

Mr. S. C. Turner, former business manager of the Morning Astorian, left last night for his old home in Champagne, Ill. He will make a visit to the St. Louis world's fair and take in the sights of the Pike during his visit.

The Woman's Club will give a rose show next Saturday afternoon.

RETURNS ARE INCOMPLETE

Few County Precincts Report and Fight for Sheriff and Commissioner Is Doubtful.

BURNS AND LAWS SUCCESSFUL

Hellborn Defeats Bergman, but Larson and Allen and Linville and Morton Are Close.

The Astorian is unable to present to its readers this morning a statement of election results in the county yesterday that is in any way complete or satisfactory, except in the cases of those candidates of whose election there can be no possible doubt. The count proceeded slowly in the country precincts and in city precinct No. 5, which is notoriously slow on such occasions. Complete returns had been received at 3 o'clock this morning from all the city precincts, from Walluski, New Astoria, Warrenton, Melville, Chadwell and Olney. Seaside, with its 200 votes, calmly went to sleep after the count was made, and all the art known to politics did not get an answer from the seashore town.

It is evident the democrats have elected their two legislative candidates. For sheriff Morton and Linville are running neck and neck, Morton having a lead of 62 in the complete returns thus far received. However it is not improbable Linville has been re-elected by a very narrow margin. This seemed to be the opinion of the best posted men at 3 o'clock this morning, although, of course, no one can foretell the result until complete returns are in from all precincts.

Charles A. M. Hellborn has been re-elected treasurer by a large majority over Isaac Bergman. Because of Hellborn's absolute lead figures were not taken.

It looks like B. F. Allen would beat William Larson for county commissioner. On the face of the complete returns at hand Allen is 4 ahead, and Larson's strongest precincts have been heard from. There is nothing certain about this contest, however, and it is probable the result will be as close as that for sheriff.

P. J. Goodman has carried every city precinct against A. R. Cyrus, while C. C. Utzinger has been elected constable by a large majority.

The vote for legislative candidates in the precincts from which complete returns have been received is as follows:

- Burns—City, 789; country, 158; total, 947.
- Laws—City, 678; country, 142; total, 820.
- Palmberg—City, 588; country, 122; total, 710.
- Lester—City, 526; country, 124; total, 650.
- Vote for Sheriff. The vote for sheriff is as follows in complete precincts: Morton—City, 792; country, 140; total, 932. Linville—City, 700; country, 170; total, 870.

(For Commissioner. The vote for county commissioner in the complete precincts follows: Allen—City, 699; country, 71; total, 770.

Larson—City, 635; country, 103; total, 738.

The vote for the candidates for commissioner is missing in the returns from New Astoria.

It was reported from Seaside last night that the first 59 ballots counted showed 52 for Linville and 7 for Morton. Nothing definite or authentic was received.

Local option has been defeated by a majority not so large as many expected in the city precincts, while the direct primary law has received considerable support.

The vote for the state and congressional tickets shows the usual republican majorities. No figures were taken, as the result was never questioned.

The Astorian hopes to be able to publish complete returns tomorrow.

contention that the vote against Congressman Binger Hermann would be construed as a vote against the national administration and doubtless as a result this claim of Hermann's majority was added to, to a certain extent. At midnight it was stated at republican headquarters that Hermann's majority would exceed his predecessor, the late Hon. Thomas H. Tongue, who was elected to congress by a majority of 7372.

R. H. Veatch, who was Hermann's opponent, made a strong fight in the face of great odds. The principal feature of the democratic campaign was based on the exposure of land frauds which have scandalized this state during the past year, Hermann being bitterly attacked in his connection. J. N. Williamson's (republican) fight for the congressional office from the first district was comparatively an easy one. It is estimated he defeated his opponent, J. E. Simmons (democratic) with a majority of 10,000.

The local option question was submitted to a vote of the people at today's election, but at this hour (midnight) it is impossible to state what the result of the vote will be, but it is thought that the supporters of the doctrine in the country districts rallied to the cause to an extent sufficient to offset the vote in the cities and larger towns, and, indeed, the result in more populated districts is very problematical.

SHIP REPORTED SUNK.

Japs Said to Have Lost a Vessel Off Tallienwan.

Chefoo, Tuesday.—A correspondent of the Associated Press at Kinchou states that there was firing at Port Arthur last night, beginning a 11:20 and continuing for several hours. A junk arriving during the night from Dainy reports heavy firing all day yesterday in the vicinity of Port Arthur. When the junk left Dainy Monday morning all was quiet there; arrivals on the junk bring a story of the sinking of a Japanese ship off Tallienwan.

MADE FATAL MISTAKE.

San Francisco Man Makes Damaging Statement on Death Bed.

San Francisco, June 6.—Charles F. Large, a clerk in the People's drug-store, Fourth and Howard streets, made the fatal mistake, according to the police, of giving John McCann a dose of carbolic acid late Saturday night. Large is under arrest for manslaughter. McCann lived in the Webber house, on Third street. John Uren, of 613 Howard street, says he met McCann at Minna and Third streets about 11

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

o'clock. While they were walking past the drug store at Fourth and Howard streets McCann said: "Wait a few minutes and I'll go in here and get some medicine, as I have heartburn." McCann entered the store. After waiting about 15 minutes Uren also entered and found McCann in a rear room with Large. McCann appeared to be very sick, and McCann asked him what was the matter. McCann, pointing to Large, replied: "That man gave me a dose of carbolic acid." Large denied it. Uren took hold of McCann and led him toward the front of the store, but McCann got so weak that he could go no further. Large sent for Dr. W. J. Claves, one of the proprietors of the store. When he arrived McCann was carried back to the rear room and Dr. Claves used the stomach pump on him. Claves sent for Dr. P. F. Abbott, but McCann died soon after Dr. Abbott's arrival.

Detectives Odea and Mulcahey were notified and when they reached the store Large had gone to his home at 3211 Sixteenth street. Policeman Casey arrested Large and took him to the store. When asked what he had given McCann, Large said he would not answer, as he was unnerved. On his way to the city prison he was again asked, and replied: "Well, it was a bad mistake."

REMEMBER THE DEAD.

Woodmen of the World Hold Services at Portland.

Portland, June 6.—In memory of their dead, nearly 4000 members of the Woodmen of the World turned out yesterday to watch and participate in the Memorial day services of the order. The services were held in the Marquam Grand theater, which was packed until standing room was at a premium. All of the lodges in the city participated in the services and the lodges of the auxiliary order, the Women of Woodcraft, also took part, dividing the program with the Woodmen of the World.

The address of the day was delivered by Governor George E. Chamberlain and was a fine tribute to the departed members of Woodcraft. At 1:30 o'clock a parade three blocks long, headed by the First Regiment band, Woodmen of the World, formed at the Plaza and marched through the principal business streets of the city to the Marquam Garden theater, where the services were held. The parquet was reserved for members of the order, and on the stage were seated the members of the uniform rank. The ritual work of the ceremony was performed by these members.

After the program of Woodmen of the World was completed the Guards of the Women of Woodcraft took charge and the program of the auxiliary was given. Both were simple but impressive.

If it is worth while to do business at all it is worth while to do a lot of it—and this means, always, a proportionate amount of newspaper space.

EYE STRAIN
IS the most common cause of those nervous headaches that your doctor does not reach. Dizziness, darting pains in the eye-balls or temples, smarting or burning sensation, the eyes become red and lids inflamed, quivering of lids and jerking of muscles in and around the eyes.
Do you ever have dark spots floating before your eyes? Does the sun and wind hurt them? Do you have a sleepy feeling and desire to close the eyes when reading? Blurring of vision or lines and letters running together?
If you feel any of these distressing symptoms, have your eyes examined and see what comfort and relief you will find when properly fitted with glasses.
