

THE COUNCIL WILL DECIDE

Two Reports to Be Made on Proposals for Buying and Building New City Hall.

PLANS FOR NEW BUILDING

Rough Draft Prepared of the Structure Which Will Cost $28,000—Arrangement of the Various Offices.

The council will, at its meeting Monday night, decide the city hall proposal one way or the other. Yesterday the committees on public property and ways and means held a meeting at the city hall, where they talked over the matter with Architect Schacht. The Flavel proposal was thoroughly discussed, and but one of the five councilmen constituting the two committees declared himself in favor of it. The councilmen who attended the meeting were Messrs. Nordstrom, Hansen, Burns, Kaboth and Lebeck.

The session was devoted principally to consideration of the offer of Captain Flavel. The matter was presented to the committees by Councilman Nordstrom, who offered in support of his view three numerous signed petitions favoring purchase of the Flavel block. He explained that he was actuated merely by a desire to see the council make the best possible purchase, and thought the Flavel offer better than the proposal for a new hall.

The four other councilmen did not agree with him. They thought the Flavel offer an excellent one, but not for the city. In their opinion, the building was not suited to the needs of the city, and they argued that the council might as well establish the city headquarters in the old brick engine house as in the Flavel building. The discussion was most friendly throughout, and Councilman Nordstrom, while stoutly maintaining his position, said he believed all the other gentlemen were honestly of the opinion that the new hall should be built.

It was finally decided that the majority members, Messrs. Kaboth, Hansen, Burns and Lebeck, should present a majority report to the council Monday night in favor of the erection of the new building, while Councilman Nordstrom should present a minority report favoring purchase of the Flavel brick. The opposing interests will present their views to the council, and that body will reach a final decision.

Plan of the New Hall.

Architect Schacht presented at the conference yesterday a rough sketch of the proposed new hall. The building will be very attractive in appearance and quite conveniently arranged. The basement will be of stone, with the entrance on Duane street. To the right of this entrance will be the police office and the private office of the chief of police, and directly behind the chief's office a cell for women. To the left of the entrance will be cells, of which one is to be padded. The full arrangement takes up the north half of the basement, while the south half of the basement will be used for a boiler and furnace room and for other similar purposes.

To the first floor there will be two entrances—one on Sixteenth street, and the other on Duane street. The offices of the auditor, treasurer and clerk of the water board, together with the police court, will be located on this floor, through which spacious halls will run. Between the offices of the auditor and treasurer there will be two vaults, and a vault in connection with the office of the clerk of the water board. The office of the auditor will probably be located in the northwest corner of the building, the first office at the Sixteenth street entrance.

On the second floor will be the offices of the city attorney, the mayor, the street superintendent and the city surveyor. The public library will have space on this floor, as will the council chambers. The library and council chambers will each be 35x27 feet.

The plans roughly drawn by Mr. Schacht call for a building which will cost, complete, $28,000.

MUST PAY FOR CRIME.

Portland Murderer Has Been Charged With First Degree Murder.

Portland, June 16.—"Murder in the first degree" was the complaint filed in the circuit court about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Deputy District Attorney Adams against Frank Guglielmo, who killed pretty Freda Guarascia. Guglielmo, who had up to that time been confined at the city jail, under guard of a policeman, was immediately transferred to the county jail.

This morning Guglielmo was arraigned before Judge George, to answer to the horrible charges which he faces. Through his attorney, Judge Cameron, he asked to have until next Tuesday to enter his plea. This request was refused by the court, and the criminal was given until tomorrow morning to plead. At his arraignment tomorrow the date of his trial will be set.

The officials are dealing with this criminal as rapidly as they can. No time will be lost until the last step is taken to have the desperado brought to justice. He was not arraigned in the municipal court, as information was filed direct.

The information against the slayer was filed in the circuit court immediately after the inquest was held over the remains of the dead girl who had refused to accept the hand of the Italian saloonkeeper.

Only sufficient evidence was taken at the inquest yesterday to show to the jury that Freda Guarascia came to her death by a bullet wound, the revolver from which was fired the fatal shot being held in the hands of Frank Guglielmo.

HERMIS WON SUBURBAN.

The Picket Nosed Irish Lad Out of Second Place.

New York, June 16.—Hermis, owned by Edward R. Thomas, easily won the Suburban handicap at Sheepshead Bay today.

The son of Hermence was never headed, and won, under a perfect ride by Arthur Redfern, in 2:05—the best time on record for the Suburban, and two-fifths of a second slower than the track record of 2:04 3/5. Irish Lad, the public favorite, finished third, nosed out of second honors by The Picket.

Thirty thousand people assembled at the Long Island course to view the twenty-first running of the $20,000 classic. Perfect racing weather prevailed.

OBJECTS TO THE STREET

Dr. Fulton Files Protest Against Acceptance of Franklin Avenue Improvement.

WORK NOT PROPERLY DONE

Property Owners Will Refuse to Pay for the Repair Unless the Macadam Is Installed in Good Order.

Dr. J. A. Fulton is very much dissatisfied with the manner in which the improvement of Franklin avenue from Ninth to Twelfth street has been made, and has filed notice upon the street committee of the council that he will refuse to pay for the street if it is accepted in its present condition. The good doctor says he does not mind being cheated just a little, but he has no use for highwaymen. His letter is as follows, and yesterday was filed with Auditor Anderson:

"Astoria, June 16.—To the Committee on Streets and Public Ways—Gentlemen: You are hereby notified that I will not pay for the improvement of my property on Franklin avenue between Ninth and Twelfth streets in the city of Astoria, and will enjoin your committee from accepting the street in its present unfinished and notoriously bad condition. I shall insist upon the crossings being laid upon the macadam, as the contract calls for; I shall insist that the top dressing be properly applied and rolled, and I shall insist on the street, when accepted by your committee, being at least a fairly good example of a properly macadamized street.

"From the beginning the work done on this street has been notoriously bad and in violation of the specifications and contract, and as it at present stands is a disgrace to any community. At present it resembles much more nearly a cobblestone street than it does a macadamized one. I will not submit to your accepting the street while it is covered with cobblestones and rocks, and will insist on the street having, when accepted by you, a smooth, well rolled surface which is free from rocks.

"I am willing to pay for reasonably good work, and will not kick if I am swindled just a little, and if it is done in a neat, businesslike way; but when one attempts to call a thing like that on Franklin avenue a finished macadamized street, it is going too far, and I will not submit to it. For your information I will say that, while I am perhaps the only one who is sending you legal notice, there are many others who are not going to pay for the street unless it is finished in a decent manner.

"J. A. FULTON."

The improvement was made by Contractor Palmberg, and cost $3674.

SUE FOR DAMAGES.

State of Colorado and Governor Peabody in Deal of Trouble.

Denver, June 16.—Former Governor Charles S. Thomas is preparing papers in behalf of James F. Burns, president and manager of the Portland mine, in the damage suit which Burns will bring against Governor Peabody, Adjutant General Bell and the state of Colorado for $800,000 for the closing of the Portland mine by the military.

Attorneys Richardson and Hawkins, acting for Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, are drafting papers in the suit for $50,000 damages which Moyer is to file against Governor Peabody, Adjutant General Bell and the state of Colorado. Moyer's action is based on a charge of false and illegal imprisonment by the military authorities, acting under the proclamation of martial law for San Miguel county.

Feels Effect of Brutal Assault.

Baker City, June 16.—Chief of Police Kilburn of this city is seriously ill. He was attacked and beaten almost to death several months ago by a prisoner whom he had arrested, and ever since then he has been in poor health. He is suffering now from partial paralysis of the face and one side of his body. At the time of the attack made by the prisoner he was not expected to recover, but, being a man of wonderful vitality, he rallied.

WILL NOT MAKE CANVAS.

Senator Fairbanks Not After Vice Presidential Nomination.

Washington, D. C., June 16.—According to authentic unofficial sources at the White House, Senator Fairbanks has in no way altered the silent attitude he has maintained from the beginning as to his nomination for the vice presidency on the republican ticket. He is not a candidate and will not permit a hand to be turned for the honor. He will accept the nomination if it comes to him without a fight and with the evident desire of the republicans of the country. He will not allow the use of his name for the place if there is to be a fight. The Indiana republicans will do nothing for him at Chicago except to vote for him. They will understand that they are not to do any boomer and soliciting of votes. Their loyalty to and support of Senator Fairbanks must be as full of dignity as his own position.

That describes the vice presidential situation as it revolves around the senator from Indiana. The Hitt boom appears to have run its course, and Speaker Cannon stands firm against the use of his name. One of his best friends said at the White House that he was confident Speaker Cannon would not accept the nomination if it were tendered him. This was Representative "Pete" Hepburn of Iowa, one of the really big men of the house. "Mr. Cannon means just what he says when he declares that he will refuse the nomination if offered him," said Mr. Hepburn, who had been talking with the president about an army promotion. "I know how resolute he is, and he would refuse it quickly. He is a good deal better off where he is, even if he is the leader of the minority, than he would be if vice president."

Mr. Cannon was reminded that President Roosevelt objected to his nomination to the vice presidency.

"Yes, but there was not the same pre-determination on his part as there is in the case of Mr. Cannon."

Mr. Hepburn called on the president to ask him to promote to brigadier general Colonel Henry Dunwoody of the signal corps. Colonel Dunwoody has been in the army 42 years and is the second colonel on the list of officers of that rank.

Senator Fairbanks' close friends in Indiana, and it was one of these who called at the White House, say they hope he will be nominated at Chicago. If he is there will be precipitated a red-hot fight for his place in the senate, in which the leaders will be Governor Durbin, Representatives Hemenway, Crumpacker, Watson and Charles K. Landis. The fight, it is said, might not conduce to helping the republicans out in November.

The opinion is expressed that if some popular man from Indiana or Illinois should get into the field and make an active fight he would get the nomination without trouble, in view of the attitude of Senator Fairbanks.

William R. Merriam, former governor of Minnesota and former director of the census, now connected with a large business establishment in New York, paid his respects to the president and remained a short time to discuss politics. Mr. Merriam is one of the men prominently talked of to succeed Mr. Cortelyou upon the retirement of the latter from the department of commerce and labor. The president has remained silent upon this subject, and it is doubtful if he has even suggested to Mr. Cortelyou who will take his position. The name of James R. Garfield is still among those talked of for the vacancy that is to be, and a strong intimation has also been conveyed that the president will select a western man, somebody from the far west. There are three members of the cabinet from west of the Mississippi—Secretaries Shaw and Wilson of Iowa and Secretary Hitchcock of Missouri, but the far west and the Pacific coast are without representation. The president will cure this soon after the November election. The Cortelyou vacancy will no doubt be the only one until next winter, when several cabinet officers may retire.

EYE STRAIN

IS the most common cause of those nervous headaches that your doctor does not reach. Dizziness, darting pains in the eye-balls or temples, smarting or burning sensation, the eyes become red and lids inflamed, quivering of lids and jerking of muscles in and around the eyes.

Do you ever have dark spots floating before your eyes? Does the sun and wind hurt them? Do you have a sleepy feeling and desire to close the eyes when reading? Blurring of vision or lines and letters running together?

If you feel any of these distressing symptoms, have your eyes examined and see what comfort and relief you will find when properly fitted with glasses.
