

COLONIAL GIRL WINS BIG RACE

Beat Hermis by Three Lengths in World's Fair Handicap Valued at Forty Thousand Dollars.

Track Was Heavy and Hermis Lost After Last Grand Effort; Moharib Third.

GAVE JOCKEY A FORTUNE

Owner of Colonial Girl Presents Ten Thousand to Booker, Who Rode Her to Victory.

St. Louis, June 25.—Colonial Girl, 5 years old, owned by Otto Stifel of St. Louis, running in the name of C. E. Rowe & Co., won the World's Fair handicap today in 2:09 1/4. The eastern champion, Hermis, was second, three lengths behind, and Moharib third. Colonial Girl won the race very easily.

The World's Fair handicap is at a mile and a quarter, and is worth $41,500 to the winner. The track was about six seconds slow.

Hermis got away in the lead, followed closely by Gold Heels, Moharib and Colonial Girl. At the three-quarters pole Hermis seemed to have the race at his mercy, but little Booker, on Colonial Girl, noticing that the eastern horse faltered and was tiring rapidly, sent his mount after him. Redfern struck Hermis twice with his whip as the St. Louis horse ran up alongside of him, and Hermis shot out into the lead again, but it was his dying effort. Colonial Girl overhauled him before the turn for home was made, and was going rapidly away. The horses passed the wire with Colonial Girl three lengths in the lead. After the race Otto Stifel presented Jockey A. W. Booker with $10,000.

PORTLAND GIRL WEDS NEGRO.

Couple Fell in Love While Employed at Same Hotel.

Seattle, Wash., June 25.—The story reached Seattle today that Miss Mary Havens, a white girl, formerly cashier in the grill of the Hotel Portland, of Portland, was married last Tuesday at Spokane to Eddie S. Jones, colored, who a few months ago was a waiter in a Spokane establishment.

According to the information received here, the ceremony was performed by Justice Hinkle. Jones is at present a waiter in the Spokane hotel. Miss Havens went there two weeks ago for the purpose, it is said, of wedding her colored sweetheart.

The marriage license reads E. S. Jones, of New York, and Mary Havens, of San Francisco. This was done, it is said, so friends of Miss Havens would be thrown off the track. An eye-witness to the ceremony said to a newspaper correspondent today that Miss Havens claimed to have been queen of the Elks' carnival at Portland, but here it is believed that she was only a contestant for the honor.

Miss Havens said that she learned to love the colored boy when both of them were working in the Hotel Portland. Jones got a better job at Spokane, and Miss Havens followed him there. After the ceremony she said: "I know people will call me crazy for marrying a colored man, but I love him and he loves me. However, to avoid imagined disgrace, I hope my people in Portland will not learn of it."

WELCOME EXTENDED TO SENATOR FAIRBANKS ON ARRIVAL AT INDIANAPOLIS

Vice Presidential Candidate Greeted by Noted Men and Thousands of His Neighbors.

Hundreds of Steam Whistles Announced the Coming of His Train—Streets Were Illuminated—Fairbanks' Home Was Decorated—Senator Beveridge and Others Spoke at Length.

Indianapolis, June 25.—The welcome extended to Senator Fairbanks today by the people of Indiana on his return to his home from the republican national convention at Chicago, where he was nominated for vice president, was very flattering and extremely gratifying to the senator.

Crowds Greet the Train.

Fair-sized crowds were waiting at all towns where the train was scheduled to stop, and the vice presidential candidate was given the closest attention while he was speaking. Senator Fairbanks scarcely referred to politics in the speeches he made during the trip, as demonstrations in most instances were of a non-partisan nature.

Senator Fairbanks reached his home city at 7:30 o'clock tonight, the approach of the special train bearing his party being announced by hundreds of steam whistles and by the ringing of bells. When the train stopped 10,000 people cheered and gave him a wave of welcome. In the crowd were several hundred prominent people of the city representing all political parties and including the mayor of the city and the governor of the state.

Houses Illuminated.

Many houses were illuminated, flags were displayed and rockets brilliantly piercing the darkness above, carried in advance the news of the approach of Senator Fairbanks at his home. At the beautiful Fairbanks home fully 10,000 people were awaiting the party. Clear after cheer arose as Senator and Mrs. Fairbanks alighted and entered their dooryard, in which a large platform, profusely decorated, had been erected. Seats had been arranged for the speakers and the guests. Mayor Holtmann first expressed to the Senator the pride of his neighbors and their sincere welcome.

Senator Beveridge Spoke.

Senator Beveridge was cheered heartily as he arose. The senator in his speech promised Fairbanks the hearty support of the people of Indiana, and expressed the confidence that Fairbanks would strive for what he believes best for the republic.

In responding to the welcome, Senator Fairbanks declared he was overwhelmed at the demonstration. He was touched keenly at the expression of regard, he said, on the part of his fellow-townsmen. Fairbanks referred at length to the number of noted men sent forth by Indianapolis. He closed his speech by thanking his neighbors again and again.

At the conclusion of the speeches for an hour or more people thronged past shaking hands with the senator and his party.

BATHED IN BLOOD.

Dying Man Said Woman Shot Him While Jealous.

Butte, Mont., June 25.—Richard J. Finnegan, a married man, who recently came to Butte from Chicago, was shot in a house in a lonely quarter several miles from the city in the vicinity of Mount Moriah cemetery, yesterday, and he died from the effects of the wounds at 1 o'clock this morning. In a statement signed by Finnegan before he died, he says Mrs. Lizzie Morrison shot him during a fit of jealous rage.

Neighbors, alarmed by the man's cries and the sound of the shooting, rushed into the house and found Finnegan lying perfectly nude on the floor, the body bathed in blood. He had been shot through the lungs and head. For a number of hours Finnegan stubbornly refused to divulge the name of his assailant, but late last night, when he realized the approach of death, weakened and told the story of the shooting.

Finnegan said Mrs. Morrison fired twice at him in the dark as he lay in bed, but missed him. Thinking to deceive her into believing him dead, he remained perfectly still, but when she advanced to the bed and placed the muzzle of the revolver against his body, he grappled with her, and during the struggle she fired two bullets into him. The police thus far have been unable to locate the woman. Finnegan has a wife and five children living in Chicago.

WILL CONTINUE CRUISE.

Admiral Chadwick to Take His Squadron to South America.

Washington, June 25.—As Perdicaris and Varley have been returned to their home in Tangier, the navy department today cabled orders to Rear Admiral Chadwick to proceed on his cruise ac-ording to the original program.

At the same time a cable message was received from Rear Admiral Chadwick, suggesting that the squadron leave Tangier for Gibraltar Monday, and proposing an itinerary which contemplates that the Brooklyn go to Genoa, the other ships remaining three days at Gibraltar, six days at Tenerife, rejoining the flagship Brooklyn at the Cape Verde islands, when the squadron would sail on the 17th for Cape Town, remaining there two weeks and reaching Montevideo on the date proposed by the original itinerary.

It was said by the navy department that the trip proposed by Admiral Chadwick had been improved. Rear Admiral Jewett, commanding the European squadron, which has been at Tangier with Admiral Chadwick in command, is under the immediate command of Rear Admiral Barker, commanding the North Atlantic squadron, now en route to Piræus, and will go as he may direct, the original program being that the two squadrons remain together throughout the European cruise of the battleship squadron.

INTENDED TO KILL HER.

Man Who Threw Himself From High Building Left Note.

Detroit, June 25.—Charles Swayne evidently intended to kill Miss Effie Alvord when he asked her to meet him at his office here yesterday, and then kill himself. This is proven by a letter which he left for his wife and which was made public today. This letter is addressed to "Darling Wife and Children," and opens as follows:

"Forgive me for this last terrible act of my life. God knows I love you dearly, but our once happy home is ruined by my own weakness and the plotting of malicious enemies." The letter then tells how friends had failed him, and "turned the cold shoulder"; says that "she" was only a tool in the hands of his enemies, and concludes with a warning to his wife to be careful of any money that come to her, and asks her to try and teach his little girls to think kindly of their father.

Miss Alvord, who was shot by Swayne before he plunged from the eleventh story window, is in no danger.

HIS BLOOD POISONED.

Coroner Gets Infection from General Slocum Victims.

New York, June 25.—Coroner O'Gorman, who has handled most of the bodies recovered from the Slocum disaster, has contracted blood poisoning. He pricked a finger of the right hand while removing a breastpin from one of the bodies last Sunday, although he wore rubber gloves. Within a short time the finger began to swell and the poison spread rapidly. The usual treatment has thus far failed to check the spread and anti-toxine probably will be injected into the coroner's arm today.

Boston, June 25.—Miss Helen Keller, the gifted deaf and dumb and blind student at Radcliffe college, has broken down and is reported to be on the verge of nervous prostration. Leavenworth, Kas., June 25.—George P. Cole, a deserter from the Thirtieth infantry, who has been employed on a farm near this city, got into a quarrel with William Hammond, another farm hand, and without warning shot him through the heart. Cole, with the revolver in his hand, passed through the main business streets of the city, which were crowded with women and children shoppers, warning every one to keep away from him. A posse of police officers in charge of Chief of Police Taylor hurried to the scene, and about forty shots were exchanged. Charles F. Seeley, a newspaper man of Minneapolis, who happened to be in the crowd following the man, and Joseph Besser were shot down with bullets through the left groin. Cole took refuge in a private dwelling, and when Captain Taylor entered and called upon him to surrender he shot twice at the officer, who returned the fire, laying Cole low with a bullet through the right temple.

OUTING CLOTHES for Men and Boys

Hart Schaffner & Marx outing suits are something more than simply thin cool clothes; you may as well get style in your outing suits as to buy clothes that are merely "put together." You may as well have them fit your body and made so they will keep shape through the season, instead of hanging like a string in a couple of weeks.

You'll get such outing suits as you ought to have if you come here and ask for Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes. We'll show you the label; a small thing to look for, a big thing to find.
