BRYANITES PREPARING TO DESERT

Dissatisfied Democrats Will Not Support the Nominee, Although the Platform Suits Them.

Will Probably Support the Nominee of the Populists, According to Report.

CONFERENCE IS TO BE HELD

The Populist Treasurer Does Not Give Names, but Says the Displeased Ones Are of Great Prominence in Party.

St. Louis, July 11.—Democrats said to be prominent in the affairs of the party are now figuring on bolting the ticket named by the St. Louis convention, according to statements made tonight. While it was known many democrats were displeased with Judge Parker's nomination, it was believed he would receive the full support of the Bryan wing, because of W. R. Hearst's desire to solidify the party strength and thus put himself in position to receive the nomination four years hence.

Three conferences were held Saturday night between members of the executive committee of the people's party and Bryan democrats who are dissatisfied not so much with the democratic platform as with the presidential nomination. It was decided by the conferees that another conference should be held for the purpose of outlining a plan of action for the coming campaign. It is stated that the Bryan democrats will act with the populists. The extent of the movement and the names of those engaged in it, said George Washburn, treasurer of the people's party, would be made public when the call for the conference was issued. He added that the prominence of the men involved would be a great surprise.

WEALTHY ITALIAN SHOT.

Assailant Is Rescued From Mob by Police After Hard Fight.

Chicago, July 11.—Shot down today by one of his own countrymen, who had crept up behind him, Andrew Cuneo, a member of the firm of Cuneo

Bros., fruit dealers, and said to be the richest Italian in Chicago, is dying at Passavant hospital. His assailant, Anthony Crescio, was arrested. There was some talk of lynching, and for a time the police were unable to take Crescio away from the Italians who had seized him, but after a hard fight Crescio was hustled into a patrol wagon and landed in jail. Crescio is believed to be mentally unbalanced.

CLARK SECRETLY WED OVER THREE YEARS AGO.

Montana Senator Married Miss Anna E. Lachapelle at Marseilles and Has Little Girl by Her.

New York, July 11.—Senator William A. Clark of Montana was married to Miss Anna E. Lachapelle of Butte, Mont., in Marseilles, France, May 25, 1901, according to an announcement given out tonight.

It is also announced that Senator and Mrs. Clark are the parents of a 2-year-old daughter. Mrs. Clark is a daughter of Dr. Lachapelle, a physician, who died in Chicago several years ago.

THE CHRONICLE SWITCHES.

Chicago Paper Will Hereafter Be Republican in Politics.

Chicago, July 11.—The Chicago Chronicle, generally regarded as a democratic newspaper, will announce tomorrow that it will hereafter appear as a republican newspaper.

Fairbanks Visits President.

Oyster Bay, July 11.—Senator Chas. W. Fairbanks, republican candidate for vice president, is a guest at Sagamore Hill tonight. The arrival of the senator was preceded by an important conference concerning the details of the campaign and the president's speech of acceptance of the nomination for the presidency.

HEAVY RUN OF SALMON.

Fraser River Season Opens Under Auspicious Circumstances.

Vancouver, B. C., July 11.—The salmon season opened yesterday and the catches made last night were surprisingly large.

Boats on the Fraser river averaged 70 sockeyes apiece, and there are indications that a heavier run will occur within a few days.

Troops Do Good Work.

Camp Murray, Wash., July 11.—Supported by artillery, the national guard organizations of Oregon and Washington were today given some practical instruction in advance and rear-guard work. General MacArthur expressed satisfaction with the work of the troops. Few errors were made in the problems of the day.

LONG LAINED AWAY BY ONE OF HIS CLOSEST FRIENDS

Democratic Nominee Believed Political Declarations to Be Out of Keeping With Dignity of His Position.

Declaration Is Made That He Voted For Bryan Both in 1896 and 1900 Not Because of, but in Spite of, the Former Candidate's Well Known Financial Views—Was Not Tricking the Convention.

Esopus, N. Y., July 11.—An explanatory statement of the long silence of Judge Parker was given by a friend of the judge this afternoon to the Associated Press.

As a judge, said the authority, Parker had kept silent on political questions. He believed it was not compatible with the dignity of a judge on the bench to discuss such questions.

When he was prominently mentioned as a candidate for the presidency, Parker thought the people of the country knew his full views, and that it was unnecessary to make any statement of his views. Parker had voted for Bryan in 1896 and 1900, and he had done so not because of, but in spite of, the silver plank.

He realized, however, that if he allowed the convention to adjourn without knowing his financial view, the people would regard as true Bryan's statement that the judge was tricking the convention and the party.

That Gold Plank Telegram.

Light was thrown on the history of the now famous Parker telegram and the reply to it made by the democratic convention at St. Louis by a close friend of Judge Parker, who declined to allow the use of his name.

"When Judge Parker retired at 9:45 Friday night," said this man, "he did not know anything at all about the financial side of the platform, which had been agreed upon, more than what was outlined in the very brief bulletins telephoned from Kingston. When informed by the Associated Press correspondent at 6:50 a. m. of the bare fact of his nomination, he knew no more, and the first real knowledge he had of the action of the convention on the financial plank in the platform was when he read the New York morning papers.

"Immediately after breakfast, that is to say, a little after 9 o'clock, he started for a horseback ride. Just before mounting his horse, a telegram was handed him giving a concise outline of the platform. From the moment of his reading of that telegram, it was noticed that he was very much preoccupied, and as he rode off his head was bowed as if in deep thought.

"About 10:30 o'clock he rode up to the railroad station, asked for telegrams and received quite a bunch of them. I happen to know that none of them. I happen to know that none of them. He chatted with the reporters for awhile, and it was afterward recalled that some of his questions to them betrayed the fact of his lack of first-hand knowledge of the convention's action. He waited about the station, almost irresolute in bearing for fully ten minutes, and then suddenly galloped back toward Rosemont. An hour later his famous telegram was filed with the operator, and the remarkable series of events was under way.

"That night, when the convention tossed and billowed with the sensation he had produced, he did not go early to bed, as he had done the night before, although the local celebration in his honor ceased and the people dispersed as early as 10:15 p. m. He sat up until after 3 a. m., closely watching the bulletins, and made no move toward retiring until after the action of the convention on his telegram was made plain to him.

"It is not true," said the gentleman quoted above, "that Judge Parker sent a message to Senator Hill demanding the insertion of a gold plank. His telegram to William F. Sheehan was his first communication directly or indirectly with the convention."

Judge Parker received today the following message from former President Cleveland:

"You must permit me to express my gratitude and admiration for the splendid manifestation of honor and courage you have given to your countrymen and to the democracy in your St. Louis dispatch."

The telegram from W. R. Hearst, sent Saturday, went astray, but a duplicate was received today, as follows, dated Chicago, July 10:

"I congratulate you on your nomination and on the expression of democratic principles in the platform on which you stand. I hope and believe that battling for the people and for such principles you will lead the democracy to victory."

Judge Parker immediately wrote Mr. Hearst the following letter:

"Hon. William Randolph Hearst.—Dear Sir: Just a word to thank you for your very kind message of congratulation, and I assure you of my very grateful appreciation. Very truly yours, ALTON B. PARKER."

St. Louis, July 11.—A heavy rain-storm, accompanied by hail and high winds, broke here today. The wind, which attained a velocity of 48 miles an hour, caused considerable damage throughout the city.

New Bill at Hedrick's.

There is an entire new show at Hedrick's this week. The turns are simply immense and the house was crowded last night. The specialists who are providing the attractions are:

Bence & Alter—In an original sketch different from other people's.

Harry Cantor—Whose nose is on the way.

The Hirschhorns—Alpine entertainers; vocal and instrumental.

Harry DeLain—Second week and big success of the accomplished Portean, in an original creation, "The Girl from Poree."

The Three Dentons—The human jugglers.

Florence Gordon—In illustrated song, "I'm Wearing My Heart Away for You."

Every time you coddle a worrying thought you use up nerve force. By the time you are 40—when you should be just beginning to live—you will look about 389 years old. That alone ought to keep the sunshine in your face, even if you will have it raining hailstones in your heart.

Have you ever had neurasthenia? Oh, you must have had it. It is a new name for an old disease. It originated in Paris and is nothing but a bad case of blues. When the rich are afflicted they go to a hospital for this particular disease and are cured in a few days. Men often get this disease, too.

KAICHOU IS EVACUATED BY RUSSIANS

Japanese Attack the Place and Drive Out the Russians After a Short Fight at Pintzan.

Invaders keep at the Heels of the Retreating Troops, but the Russian Loss Was Slight.

ADVANCE OF JAPS STOPPED

Are Now Within Eight Miles of Ta Tche Kiao—Steamer Cheltenham Declared a Lawful Prize.

Tai Tche Kiao, July 9.—(Via Liao Yang.)—The Russian correspondent of the Associated Press, who just arrived from Kai Chou, says:

"We evacuated Kai Chou Saturday after a fight lasting throughout Friday. We made a short stand at Pintzan, seven miles north of Kai Chou. The Japanese kept on our heels, and there were constant exchanges between the Russian and Japanese batteries. The Japanese advance was stopped eight miles south of here. The fighting along the road was lively, but our losses were small."

Yinkow, July 11.—The Japanese began to push their advance north July 9, after taking Kai Chou, and since then they have proceeded steadily. It is now reported they are in close touch with Tai Tche Kiao.

Declared Lawful Prize.

Vladivostok, July 11.—The British steamer Cheltenham, captured by the Vladivostok squadron, was today declared a lawful prize. Her commander did not attempt to defend himself, because proof against the vessel was overwhelming and the evidence tended to show that the ship had already been bought by the Japanese. She was sailing under the British flag because some of the formalities of transfer were lacking. The crew were mostly Germans and they did not conceal their joy at the fact that the Russians had captured the Cheltenham.

CZAR WELL RECEIVED.

People Give Him a Royal Reception When He Reviews Troops.

Moscow, July 11.—The emperor's second journey to South Russia to speed the departing troops has thus far been attended by demonstrations similar to those made during his first tour.

At Kolonna, after holding a review, the emperor addressed the troops, expressing his assurance that they would maintain the honor of the Russian army. An impressive scene followed. The emperor, who was mounted, raised aloft an ikon, and the officers and men sank to their knees, while his majesty made the sign of the cross with the ikon above their bowed heads and conferred a blessing of himself and the empress upon them.

A deputation of workmen from the mechanical works, through their spokesman, addressed the emperor thus:

"Little Father: We are happy to see you take such personal interest in the soldiers, and we workmen are ready to enter the ranks and shed our blood for the emperor and the fatherland. Graciously accept bread and salt on behalf of your loyal subjects, the workmen."

Funston Goes East.

Brigadier General Constant Williams, now at San Antonio, has been ordered to take command of the department of the Columbia.
