The World's Fair Route.

Those anticipating an eastern trip, or a visit to the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis, cannot afford to overlook the advantages offered by the Missouri Pacific Railway, which, on account of its various routes and gateways, has been appropriately named "The World's Fair Route."

Passengers from the northwest take the Missouri Pacific trains from Denver or Pueblo, with the choice of either going direct through Kansas City, or via Wichita, Fort Scott and Pleasant Hill.

Two trains daily from Denver and Pueblo to St. Louis without change, carrying all classes of modern equipment, including electric lighted observation parlor cafe dining cars. Ten daily trains between Kansas City and St. Louis.

Write or call on W. C. McBride, general agent, 134 Third street, Portland, for detailed information and illustrated literature.

JOSEPH SCHELL THE AUTHOR.

Wrote Anonymous Letter Making Attack on Archbishop Christie.

Portland Journal: Archbishop Alexander Christie has decided to ignore the attack made upon him through an anonymous letter and refuses to discuss the affair at all. It is said, however, that he has discovered the author of the circular that was spread broadcast through Oregon and a copy of which was sent to Rome. It is said that Joseph Schell is the writer of the articles.

In the letter the writer brought the name of the Right Rev. C. J. O'Reilly, bishop of Baker City, into his charges. Bishop O'Reilly, however, is not pursuing the course of silence adopted by the archbishop, but vigorously denounces the author.

"I am incapable of expressing my indignation against the fendish spirit it prompted the author to make such charges," he said. "It is a slanderous and deplorable attempt to injure the cause of Catholicism. There is no part of the United States where priests as a body are more capable, pious and devoted to the cause than here in Oregon.

"My relations with Archbishop Christie are and have always been of the most agreeable nature. He is universally regarded as a man of sterling character and ability, and in the comparatively short time of his administration has accomplished a great deal in behalf of religion and education. No attention should be paid by honest men to the cowardly charges made by those who assume anonymous names for the purpose of hiding their identity."

Bishop O'Reilly will leave for Baker City tomorrow. Others of the Catholic clergy are equally vehement in their denunciation of the author of the anonymous letter, and laymen in this city have expressed their indignation.

TO BACHELORS.

There are some hundreds of thousands more men than women in the Central and Western states of America and in Canada.

As a result thousands of trustworthy men—farmers, miners and others—living in certain districts there can not possibly get wives in their own neighborhoods.

But in England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales there are a million more women than men, and in these countries thousands of good, intelligent and attractive girls—many of them daughters of farmers and all of them qualified to make excellent wives—see nothing before them while they stay here but the prospect of living and dying as old maids, and this, to them, is a decidedly unpleasant prospect. They would willingly emigrate to America, could they be assured that they were going to meet worthy men there as husbands, and that they could look forward to happy, if humble, homes on the other side of the Atlantic.

We may say that all of them could afford to emigrate at their own expense.

We are prepared to give good men introductions to these girls.

If you wish to get an introduction, please write us with such particulars of yourself (age, nationality, occupation and circumstances) as a sensible girl would expect to get, and we shall write to you in reply, with a view to bringing about a suitable introduction without undue delay.

Tell us what kind of a wife (age, nationality, appearance and disposition) you wish to get.

If you have preference for any particular Christian sect please name it.

You will also enclose our fee of $5. A further fee of $45 will be due to us within one month after marriage, thus making $50 altogether. We do not confine ourselves to one introduction. We give as many as will be necessary until marriage. But we make no charge for any introduction after the payment of our said fee of $5 for the first.

It is not at all necessary that you should be a wealthy man.

But it is necessary that you be a man who would make a kind and good husband to a good wife.

If you are not such a man, please do not write us.
