REQUEST SUBJECT TO TAX.

Ruling in Case of Estate Left to Wisconsin County.
Madison, Wis., July 29.—The attorney-general has given an opinion in the case of the bequest of Martin Murphy of Darlington, who left $100,000 to Lafayette county for a court house. The county authorities hold that, since the money came to the county, it was exempt from the income tax. The attorney general rules that the county must pay the tax on the money amounting to about $11,000, as the money was assessable before it became county property.

REPLACING STEAM POWER.

Great Saving in Fuel by Use of Gas, Says This Writer.

Writing under the title of "The Superseding of Steam Power," in the World's Work, Lewis Nixon says: "I have been led, lately, to think the whole development of the steam engine, to the exclusion of the gas engine, has been a mistake, and that we are now at the beginning of a new era in the use of power. Engineers could today gain better and more economical results by abandoning steam and using internal combustion engines, even in large establishments. The gain in economy of fuel will advance with the size of the establishment. With the internal combustion engine, a break horse-power can be produced on a pound of coal. This could not be done with steam under any conditions.

So great a revolution has come about in methods of producing power that a 10,000-ton cruiser of 21 knots an hour could today proceed around the world at 14 knots without taking on fuel and without sacrificing any of her war efficiency. New kinds of engines have come into vogue which suggest facts larger even than this.

Oil engines using crude petroleum will be developed as soon as the demand is felt for them, but, even here, the fuel can be made into gas and burned thus with far greater economy than is possible when the oil itself is burned under boilers or gasoline can be used. In an ordinary 3200 horse power torpedo boat 43 tons of coal would be used in 10 hours. With gasoline, the radius of activity of the same torpedo boat can be more than quadrupled, for 3200 horse power can be produced from 3200 gallons of fuel. Briefly, 16,000 pounds of gasoline will do the work of 96,000 pounds of gasoline plant in a torpedo boat, only two men are required in the engine room, and none at all in the fire room. The dangers of steam at high pressure are avoided, and the complexity of steam machinery done away with.

Owing to the certain saving to be secured in coal consumption and to the simplicity and reliability of the gas-engine plant, we shall witness a gradual forcing out of the steam plants in future power plants for lighting, pumping or factory use, and it will be a question of but a short time before many of the existing steam plants will be replaced.

Madame, the magazine "For Women Who Think," which made such a phenomenal hit with its Christy cover in July, appears for August with another handsome cover in colors by the same artist, representing "The Meeting." This magazine is certainly making wonderful strides and can even now be classed among the leaders, both in circulation and influence. Other good things are promised by the publishers for future issues. The October number will be an especially noteworthy one.
