Colorado Livestock Men of West to Hold Meeting and Consider the Matter.

OFFICERS QUITE SANGUINE

Hope to Bring Packers and Employes Together in Conference at an Early Date.

Denver, Aug. 2.—The News today says:

A movement to intervene in the great packers' strike in the east will result from a meeting of livestock men from all over the west, which begins in this city tomorrow morning. Stock-growers from practically every state west of the Missouri river will be in Denver, and, as these men have suffered as much as anyone from the strike, because of a lack of demand for their cattle, they will start a campaign as the independent party, to secure an immediate settlement of the strike. Backed up as they will be by the presence of governors of at least six states' officers of the National Livestock Association and several officials of the federal government, they hope to bring both sides into a conference, secure an agreement to restore conditions to their normal level in all the stockyards and meat centers of the nation.

The stockmen have been called to meet federal officials and to discuss grazing.

SUDDENLY STRUCK BLIND.

Calamity Overtakes Girl Who Was Visiting at Ashbury Park.

Ashbury Park, N. Y., Aug. 2.—Stricken suddenly blind while promenading on the board walk here, Miss Beesie Lyndal of Gladwyne, Pa., has been taken home unable even to distinguish sunlight from darkness. It is feared that her loss of eyesight is permanent. A physician who was consulted can give no reason for the sudden attack.

Miss Lyndal has enjoyed the best of health, both of body and mind. She was active and engaged in sports. With her mother she came to Ashbury Park and in the evening they went out on the ocean front for a stroll. Suddenly the girl stopped and screamed, "Mother, mother, I can't see; I'm blind."

A hack was called and the girl was hurried home. Mrs. Lyndal put the girl to bed in a darkened chamber and, thinking that the trouble was but a passing attack, neglected to call in a physician until morning.

When the girl awoke in the daylight she was unable to tell the difference. A doctor was called and ad-

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. ACCIDENT TO MISS CLEMENS.

Famous Writer's Daughter Almost Killed by Trolley Car.

Lennox, Mass., Aug. 2.—It has developed that "Miss Julia Langdon of New York," who was thrown from her horse and injured by a trolley car in South Lee, is Miss Jane Clemens, daughter of Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain). Her companion reported as being "Joseph Drake of New York," was Rodman Gilder, son of Richard Watson Gilder.

Miss Clemens had a narrow escape from death. Her horse became frightened at the headlight and bolted directly in front of the trolley, which was going at a slow rate of speed. The young woman was thrown out and suffered a fracture of the right ankle besides several bruises on her right side. The horse was so severely injured that he had to be shot. Miss Clemens has practically recovered from the shock and is suffering now only from her ankle.

Mr. Gilder said the reason his son gave out the fictitious names was to prevent Miss Clemens' sister, Miss Clara Clemens, who is in New York and other relatives from being unduly alarmed over newspaper reports. The name given by Miss Clemens was that of her mother, who died recently in Italy.

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run-down system, or despondency invariably precedes suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self-destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nerve will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. It's also a great Stomach, Liver and Kidney regulator. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Chas. Rogers, druggist.
