Union Men Attempt to Prevent Passage Through Streets of Wagons Bearing Meat From Stockyards.

Numerous Fights Occur and More Than One Hundred Shots Are Fired by Officers.

TRAIN HELD UP BY STRIKERS

Mob Drives Off Strike-Breakers, Throws Their Baggage Into the River and Sets Fire to the Cars.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—An attempt to move meat from the stockyards to Fulton market on Randolph street, a distance of four miles, caused a number of fights tonight between the police and the strike sympathizers, who attempted to prevent the passage through the streets of the wagons bearing the meat. Fully 100 shots were fired by the police and members of the mob, but nobody was struck by the bullets. Two officers were cut on the head by stones thrown by the rioters. A score of rioters were knocked down by the police, but were carried off by their friends.

The strike leaders spent the day in seeing that the boycott against the markets, which were placed under the ban by the unions, was being enforced. In some instances the strikers were successful in cutting off the supply of ice, but in many places the boycott did not work so well as had been expected, retailers being able to haul what ice they required in their own wagons.

MARKET WAS FEVERISH.

Crop Damage Reports Results in Excitement at Chicago Market.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Crop damage reports of serious import formed an uplifting factor in the wheat market today. September ranged at the start from yesterday's closing figure of $1.01 1/2 a cent higher, and immediately began to soar. With the market nervously excited over rust reports and damage from rains throughout the west and northwest, the shorts in particular and traders in general were spurred to greater efforts to acquire holdings.

Under growing pressure September wheat went to $1.02. Then the flood wheat came out on realizing sales and the price broke to $1 to $1.00 1/2. Just before closing renewed clamor for buying sent prices down to $1.01 1/2.

Three unknown men placed a large charge of giant powder in a closet, lighted the fuse and fled. The trio were seen leaving the house by Guy Sweet, an engraver, and a roomer, but as the dwelling is inhabited by several families, he thought nothing of it until the explosion came. Sweet and his wife and Tom Howie and Mr. and Mrs. Swan Johnson, all of whom were in bed, were more or less severely injured.

The house was completely demolished.

There is no clew to the perpetrators. The fuse, found in the closet, explains to the detectives the dynamiting. No motive for the deed is assigned. None of the people in the house is in any way connected with labor troubles of known to have enemies.

The police believe the dynamite was meant for Colorado refugees, scores of whom have come to Butte, and that the dynamiters mistook the house.
