INDORSE THE STRIKE

The Garment Workers' Union Will Join the Cutters in Their Strike.

SEVEN THOUSAND MEN IDLE

Chicago Tailor Shops Will Be Tied Up and Fall Trade
Damaged if Plan
Succeeds.

Chicago, Aug. 10.—The executive board of the Garment Workers' Union has agreed to indorse the strike of the cutters and will call out all the union members whether men or women today. This action means that 6000 to 7000 tailors will be made idle.

When the cutters quit on a technical disagreement over hours of labor and wages it was not thought serious by the employers for it was the dull season and few large orders were on hand.

The calling out of all the garment workers has put a different phase on the affair and it now seems likely that the cutters, having won their point, with the executive board, will be able to tie up all the shops in the city and seriously embarrass the fall trade.

TROLLEY STRIKES CARRY-ALL.

One Killed and Three Hurt in Accident at Brighton Beach.

New York, Aug. 10.—A carry-all containing four persons was struck by a Coney Island trolley car near Brighton Beach race track early today. One of the occupants was killed and three were seriously hurt. The carriage was wrecked. The dead:

THOMAS OSBORN, Clerk of the Coney Island police court.

The injured:

Alderman Frederick Lunday, probably will die.

Charles Logan, hurt internally.

William McCane, hurt internally.

The carriage was crossing the tracks when the car rounded a curve at high speed. The car was derailed and nearly every window broken. Many of the passengers were women returning from the amusement parks at Coney Island. They were badly frightened but escaped injury.

Alderman Lunday is a prominent citizen of Coney Island and had much to do with building up the resort.

BOMB-THROWER AT LARGE.

Assassin Who Attempted President's Life Not Caught.

New York, Aug. 10.—Numerous arrests have been made in Montevideo, Uruguay, in connection with the explosion on Saturday last, but the actual author of the affairs has not been discovered, says a Herald dispatch from Buenos Ayres, Argentina.

The revolutionist committee in Buenos Ayres has published a manifesto declaring that the nationalist party had nothing to do with the attempt against the life of the Uruguayan president. The nationalists, the manifesto asserts, will never engage in such crimes, being convinced they will triumph in an honorable fight.

NOMINATION IS ACCEPTED

In that feature of the magna charta which has become incorporated, in substance and effect, into the constitution of every state as well as into the fourteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States? Can we hope for the respect of the civilized world while proudly guaranteeing to every citizen of the United States that no law shall be made or enforced which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States or deny to any person the equal protection of the laws, and at the same time not only deny similar rights to the inhabitants of the Philippines, but to take away from them the right of trial by jury and place their lives at the disposition of their governor? We shall certainly rue it as a nation if we make any such attempt. Viewing the question even from the standpoint of national selfishness, there is no prospect that the 20,000,000 of dollars expended in the purchase of the islands and the 850,000,000 paid to have been since distributed to the people of the Philippines into our possession and we are not at liberty to disregard the responsibility that came to us, but the responsibility will be best subserved by preparing the Islanders as rapidly as possible for self-government and giving to them the assurances that it will come as soon as they are reasonably prepared for it. There need be no fear that the assertion so often made of late that we have now become a world power will then be without support. Ours is a world power, and as such it must be maintained, but I deny that it is all recently that the United States has attained that eminence. Our country became a world power over a century ago, when, having thrown off foreign domination, the people established a free government, the source of whose authorities sprung, and was continually to proceed, from the will of the people themselves. It grew as a world power as its sturdy citizens, to whose natural increase were added immigrants from the old world seeking to obtain here the liberty and prosperity denied them in their own countries, spread over the face of the land, reduced the prairies and forests to cultivation, built cities, constructed highways and railroads, till now a nation which at the formation of the government numbered only 3,000,000 in population has grown to 80,000,000, and from ocean to ocean and from the lakes to the gulf, the country is the free abode of prosperous people advanced in the highest degree in the learning of arts of civilization. It is the liberty, the advancement and the prosperity of its citizens, not any career of conquest, that made the country a world power. This condition we owe to the bounty of Providence, unfolded in the great natural reserves of the country, to the wisdom of our fathers manifested in the form of government established by them, to the energy of industry, moral character and law-abiding spirit of the people themselves.

Decries the Military Spirit.

We are not a military people bent on conquest, or engaged in extending our domains in foreign lands or desirous of securing natural advantages, however great, by force; but people loving peace, not only for ourselves, but for all the nations of the earth.

The display of great military armaments may please the eye, and for the moment excite the pride of the citizen, but it can not bring to the country the brains, brawn and muscle of a single immigrant, nor induce the investment here of a dollar of capital. Of course, such armament as may be necessary for the security of the country and the protection of the rights of its citizens at home or abroad must be maintained. Any other course would be not only false economy, but pusillanimous. I protest, however, against the feeling, now far too prevalent, that by reason of the commanding position we have assumed in the world we must take part in the disputes and broils of foreign countries, and that because we have grown great we should intervene in every important question that arises in other parts of the world. I also protest against the erection of any such military establishment as would be required to maintain the country in that attitude. We should confine our international activities solely to matters in which the rights of our country or of our citizens are directly involved. That is not a situation of isolation, but of independence. The government of the United States was organized solely for the people of the United States. While it was contemplated that this country should become a refuge for the oppressed of every land who might be fit to discharge the duties of our citizenship, and while we have always sympathized with the people of every nation in their struggles for self government, the government was not created for a career of political or civilizing evangelization in foreign countries or among alien races. The most efficient work we can do in uplifting the people of other countries is by the presentation of a happy, prosperous self-governing nation as an ideal to be emulated, a model to be followed. The general occupation of our citizens in the arts of peace or the absence of large military armaments tends to impair neither patriotism nor physical courage, and for the truth of this I refer the young men of today to the history of the civil war. For 50 years, with the exception of the war with Mexico, this country had been at peace, with a standing army most of the time of less than 10,000 men. He who thinks that the nation had grown effeminate during that period should read the casualty rolls of the armies on either side of Shiloh, Antietam, Fredericksburg and Gettysburg, at Stone River and at Chickamauga. I would be the last man to pluck a single laurel from the crown of any one of the military heroes to whom this country owes so much, but I insist that their most heroic deeds proceeded infinitely more from devotion to the country than from martial spirit.

As I have already proceeded at too great length, other questions suggested in the platform must await my letter of acceptance.

Mr. Chairman, in most graceful speech you have reminded me of the great responsibility as well as the great honor of the nomination bestowed upon me by the convention you represent this day. Be assured that both are appreciated—so keenly appreciated that I am humbled in their presence.

I accept, gentlemen of the committee, the nomination, and if the action of the convention shall be indorsed by an election by the people, I will, God helping me, give to the discharge of duties of that exalted office the best service of which I am capable and at the end of the term retire to private life. I shall not be a candidate for, nor shall I accept, a renomination. Several reasons might be advanced for this position, but the controlling one with me is that I am fully persuaded that no incumbent of that office should ever be placed in a situation of possible temptation to consider what the effect of any action taken by him in an administrative matter of great importance might have upon his political fortunes. Questions of momentous consequence to all of the people have been in the past and will be in the future presented to the president for determination, and in approaching their consideration, as well as in weighing the facts and the arguments bearing upon them, he should be unembarrassed by any possible thought of the influence his decision may have upon anything whatever that may affect him personally. I make this statement, not in criticism of any of our presidents from Washington down who have either held the office for two terms or sought to succeed themselves; for strong arguments could be advanced in support of the re-election of a president. It is simply my judgment that the interests of this country are now so vast and the questions presented are frequently of such overpowering magnitude to the people that it is indispensable to the maintenance of a befitting attitude before the people not only that the chief magistrate should be independent, but that that independence should be known of all men.

The Death Penalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best Salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when Burns, Sores, Ulcers and Piles threaten. Only 25c. at Chas. Rogers' drug store.

SSS FOR THE BLOOD

The best known and most popular blood purifier and tonic on the market to-day is S. S. S.

There is hardly a man, woman or child in America who has not heard of "S. S. S. for the blood." It is a standard remedy and specific for all blood troubles and an unequalled spring tonic and appetizer. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable, the herbs and roots of which it is composed being selected for their alterative and tonic properties, making it the ideal remedy for all blood and skin diseases, as it not only purifies and invigorates the blood, but at the same time tones up the tired nerves and strengthens the general system.

For Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Blood Poison, Malaria, Anemia, Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Tetters, Acne, and such other diseases as are due to a polluted or impoverished condition of the blood, nothing acts so promptly and effectually as S. S. S. It counteracts and eradicates the germs and poisons; cleanses the system of all unhealthy accumulations, and soon restores the patient to health.
