...SOCIETY...

Mrs. Judge Scott, of Portland, was visiting in the city during the week.

Mrs. David Shanahan and children have returned from a three weeks outing at Seaside.

Miss Madge Sovey, who has been visiting for the past two months in the south, left Gainsville, Ga., for Astoria on Thursday and is expected home Tuesday.

Dr. Earle and Collector of Customs Robb gave a stag boating party for their friends on Friday on the steamers Electro and Patrol. The party went to Skamokawa to enjoy the regatta.

Mrs. Edward Miller entertained the members of the Thursday Association Club last week at her home on Eleventh street. The rooms throughout the house were prettily decorated with pink roses and sweet peas and those present were entertained with a guessing contest, Miss Sadie Crang winning the prize.

Margaret and Adelbert Griffin gave a surprise party on Tuesday evening at their home on Grand avenue in honor of Dorothy and Proctor Thomson, who intend to leave for the east the last of this month. About 20 children participated in the event and several games were enjoyed. Those winning prizes were Ruby Hamerstrom, Hamilton Garner, Helen Taylor, Edwin Short, Annette Stinson and Guy Sanborn.

The ladies of St. Mary's Catholic church gave their usual semi-monthly card party on Thursday evening. An unusually large number of people were present and all spent a very pleasant evening. The hall was decorated in evergreens and red crepe paper. Progressive whist was the game played, and the fortunate contestants were Miss Mary Magee, Mr. Charles Jones, Mrs. Nowlen and Mr. Langoe, while the ladies who had charge of the evening's entertainment were Mrs. Max Skibbe, Mrs. Archie Cook, Miss Eva Goodman, Mrs. John McCann and Miss Magee.

Ex-Mayor and Mrs. Bergman have charmingly entertained a number of Astorians at Beaver Lodge, their Grays river summer home. Nothing has been left undone to make pleasant the stay of Beaver Lodge visitors, all of whom report most enjoyable outings. Among those who have visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bergman are: Mrs. William Rehfield, Mrs. William Edgar, John E. Gratke, Mrs. John E. Gratke, Master Charles Gratke, Miss Ruby Crohn, Mrs. A. C. The members of the Nob Hill Tennis Club gave an outing for their friends on Thursday evening. The young people went to the grove near Youngs river and after decorating the trees with Chinese lanterns, built a bonfire and served refreshments. Mrs. Walter Robb and Mrs. J. E. Higgins were the chaperones and those who took part in the pleasant outing were: Winifred Higgins, Hazel Robb, Carrie Short, Winifred Van Dusen, Maude Van Dusen, Lola Foard, Freida Foard, Ellen Nowlen, Wilson Stine, Harvey Allen, James Robb, Lawrence Rogers, Edward Higgins, Harry George, Harry Flavel, Katie Wood, Louis Parker, Gertrude Upshur, Letta Drain, Laura Fastabend, Polle Dawson, Myrtle Sha-Hour, Harry Coyle, Arthur Van Dusen, Sidney Sovey, Rieves Emerson, William Barker, William Wood, Mervyn Lounsbury, Lester Lounsbury, Louise Gray and Sally B. One of the most prominent events in Bozeman (Mont.) society circles took place last Monday evening at the residence of Mrs. Lucy Palmer, when her daughter, Miss Ethel Palmer, was married to Mr. Thomas B. Leake. Sweet peas were used for the decorations, the wedding ceremony being performed under an arch of pink and cream sweet peas. The side parlor where the punch was served was decorated in red sweet peas, and a large wedding bell made of fed peas hung over the punch bowl. The dining room was decorated in pink and white sweet peas and smilax, and looked very pretty under the illumination of pink candles. The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of cream voile over taffeta silk and wore a veil of nealine. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Edyth Houston was the bridesmaid and was dressed in a pink gown of crepe de chine and carried a shower bouquet of pink sweet peas. Dr. Clyde Jump acted as best man and Miss Grace Griffin played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Lewis of the Episcopal church and the bride was given away by her mother. A large wedding reception was held immediately after the wedding ceremony and many handsome and costly wedding gifts were received. Mr. and Mrs. Leake departed on the midnight train for a two weeks' trip to Hunter's Hot Springs and other places, after which they will reside in Bozeman.
