INJURIES WILL BE FATAL

Collided With Park Trap, Overturning Latter Vehicle, Under Which Were Imprisoned Three Persons.

Pittsburg, Sept. 9.—Three persons have been injured here in a collision between a large racing automobile and a park trap. All probably will die. The accident occurred at Lang and Penn avenues. The injured were: C. B. Lawton, Miss Dora Murdoch, Miss Carrie Murdoch, all of Pittsburg.

The trap was overturned with the three victims underneath. Firemen from an engine house on the corner stopped the horse. The automobile is said to have belonged to an architect who is now under indictment in connection with the death of a woman who was run down in Duquesne borough three months ago. He was not in the car when the collision with the park trap occurred.

DID NOT WANT RED HAIR.

New York Girl Jobbed by Jealous Rivals and is Angry.

New York, Sept. 9.—A man about 26 years old, who said he was Alexander Smalley of Topeka, Kan., walked into the West Forty-seventh street station last night with a young woman whom he called Marian and told the sergeant that her hair had been changed from black to red through the machinations of two jealous young women.

Smalley said he lived formerly in New York, but went to Topeka four years ago. He prospered there, having worked hard because Marian had agreed to wait until he had made a home for her. Ten days ago he wrote to Marian that everything was ready. He reached New York and hurried at once to the apartment house in West Forty-seventh street, where she lived. She met him at the door, but he did not recognize her. Tears were the only answer he received when he coldly asked for Marian. Finally she became calm and told him how her hair had been falling out. Knowing how he always had admired her hair she confided her troubles to two woman acquaintances. They, she said, had been in love with Smalley, and when she told them that he was coming back to marry her they determined to be revenged on her, she declared. They advised her to go to a certain hairdresser in Fifty-second street and take the treatment they recommended. She did so, but found that her hair had been changed to a flaming red.

Smalley finally told her that he loved her and not her hair, and that no designing women could part them, but he wanted the women punished. The sergeant told the couple to go to the West Side police court.

REFUSES TO EAT OR WORK.

First Mate of Olivebank Has a Grievance.

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 9.—An extraordinary case has just been tried before Magistrate Hill, at Chemainus, Vancouver Island.

J. C. Hays, first mate of the Glasgow ship Olivebank, now loading lumber at Chemainus for Cape Town, refused duty and was charged with the offense. In reply he asserted that he was not being fed. Further investigation brought out the fact that Hays had been provided with his regular meals at the same time as the second mate. He refused, however, to sit down with that gentleman and insisted that he dine at the captain's table, or failing that, that he have his meals sent to his cabin. The captain told him he could eat with the second mate or in the galley and Hays refused to eat at all, and also to work.

The bench found him guilty and committed him to jail for six weeks or pending the departure of the ship. Hays says that he will travel in irons before he will sit down with the second mate.

Want Closed Shop.

New York, Sept. 9.—Blacksmiths in the shipyards hereabouts who have been working on the open shop plan, have made a demand on the New York Metal Trades Association for the closed shop and recognition of the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths. Conferences are now being held, but there is no talk of striking on the part of the men. About 1000 are involved.

HEALTHFUL FOODS.

Fruits and Vegetables Better Than Medicine For Many Diseases.

Celery is invaluable as a food for those suffering from any form of rheumatism, for diseases of nerves and nervous dyspepsia.

Lettuce relieves those suffering from insomnia.

Water cress is a remedy for scurvy. Peanuts alleviate indigestion. They are especially recommended for corpulent diabetics. Peanuts are made into a wholesome and nutritious soup, are browned and used as coffee, are eaten as a relish simply baked or are prepared and served as salted almonds.

Onions are almost the best nerve known. No medicine is so useful in cases of nervous prostration, and there is nothing else that will so quickly relieve and tone up a wornout system. Onions are useful in all cases of coughs, colds and influenza. In consumption, insomnia, hydrophobia, scurvy, gravel and kindred liver complaints. Eaten every other day they soon have a clearing and whitening effect on the complexion.

Asparagus is used to induce perspiration.

Carrots are good for nervous disorders and for scurvy.

Honey is wholesome, strengthening, cleansing, healing and nourishing. Fresh ripe fruits are excellent for purifying the blood and toning up the system. As specific remedies, oranges are aperient. Sour oranges are highly recommended for rheumatism.

Cranberries for erysipelas are used externally as well as internally. Lemons are excellent for feverish thirst in sickness, for biliousness, low fevers, rheumatism, coughs, colds, liver complaint, etc.

Blackberries as a tonic. Useful in all forms of diarrhea.

Tomatoes are a powerful aperient for the liver, a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion. Tomatoes are invaluable in all conditions of the system in which the use of calomel is indicated.

Figs are aperient and wholesome. They are said to be valuable as food for those suffering from cancer, they are used externally as well as internally.

Apples are useful in nervous dyspepsia; they are nutritious, medicinal and vitalizing; they add acidity of the stomach and are valuable in rheumatism, insomnia and liver troubles. An apple contains as much nutriment as a potato in a pleasanter and more wholesome form.

COLLIDED WITH BRIDGE.

Harlem River Motor Boat Went Pace That Killed.

New York, Sept. 9.—During a drive at top speed on the Harlem river a new 70-foot motor boat has been wrecked at an abutment of a New York Central bridge.

Charles L. Seabury, who was at the wheel, was thrown overboard by the force of the shock and was nearly drowned. Two tugs saved the motor boat from foundering, and a policeman in a row boat rescued Seabury. The accident was caused by the steering gear getting out of order.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Mansell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '90, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
