PROTECTION OF CITIZENS.

No Discrimination in Treatment of Native-Born and Naturalized.

Dispatches from St. Petersburg represent the Russian press as commenting in a dazed manner upon the efforts of the United States government to protect its Jewish citizens in foreign countries. The Journal de St. Petersburg editorially characterizes as "stupefying" and article in a recent French paper which professed to explain President Roosevelt's desire to gain more liberal treatment for Russian Jews naturalized in the United States and revisiting Russia with passports as American citizens.

In his letter of acceptance President Roosevelt gave an authoritative account of the ground taken by his own administration and that of President McKinley as regards the protection of "American citizens of foreign birth, or of particular creed, who desire to travel abroad;" the phrase is quoted from the letter of acceptance. It is alone as an example of condensed and accurate meaning. Instructive. Continuing, President Roosevelt says:

"Russia, for instance, refuses to admit and protect Jews. Turkey refuses to admit and protect certain sects of Christians. This government has consistently demanded equal protection abroad for all American citizens, whether native of naturalized. On March 27, 1899, Secretary Hay sent a letter of instructions to all the diplomatic and consular officers of the United States, in which he said: 'This department does not discriminate between native born and naturalized citizens in according them protection while they are abroad, equality of treatment being required by the laws of the United States.'

"These orders to our agents abroad have been repeated again and again, and are treated as the fundamental rule of conduct laid down for them, proceeding upon the theory that all naturalized citizens of the United States while in foreign countries are entitled to and shall receive from the government the same protection of persons and property which is accorded to native born citizens."

He further declares that in issuing passports the state department never discriminates or alludes to any man's religion, and that "in granting to every American citizen, native of naturalized, Christian or Jew, the same passport, so far as it insists that all foreign governments shall accept the passport as prima facie proof that the person therein described is a citizen of the United States and entitled to protection as such. It is a standing order to every American diplomat and consular officer to protect every American citizen, of whatever faith, from unjust molestation; and our officers abroad have been stringently required to comply with this order."

This enunciation of a course of action is backed by the cause of justice. The reception recently given the American idea of religious liberty in certain quarters on the continent of Europe attaches additional pertinence to the criticism with which Mr. Roosevelt closed that section of his letter which he devoted to the discussion of the theme. "It is a striking evidence," he says, "of our opponents' insincerity in this matter that with their demand for radical action by the state department they couple a demand for a reduction

CAUSE OF CRIME.

Use of Cocaine Causes Much, Says Chief of Police.

Cincinnati, Sept. 27.—"I attribute the carnival of crime in which colored people of this city have taken part of late almost entirely to the growth of the use of cocaine among them. The use of cocaine has increased to an enormous degree of late. It seems epidemic among the colored population of the city. That it is directly at the bottom of the great number of criminal offenses of which negroes have been guilty of late there can be no doubt." Such was the deliberately expressed opinion given by Chief Millikin to a Commercial Tribune representative. Unfortunately there is a bloody record, for the past few days, to warrant the opinion of the chief—an opinion not given without consideration, but given under a thorough appreciation of responsibility to the public.

The World's Fair Route.

Those anticipating an eastern trip, or a visit to the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis, cannot afford to overlook the advantages offered by the Missouri Pacific Railway, which, on account of its various routes and gateways, has been appropriately named "The World's Fair Route."

Passengers from the northwest take the Missouri Pacific trains from Denver or Pueblo, with the choice of either going direct through Kansas City, or via Wichita, Fort Scott and Pleasant Hill.

Two trains daily from Denver and Pueblo to St. Louis without change, carrying all classes of modern equipment, including electric lighted observation parlor cafe dining cars. Ten daily trains between Kansas City and St. Louis.

Write or call on W. C. McBride, general agent, 124 Third street, Portland, for detailed information and illustrated literature.

The Northern Pacific Railway Company will place round trip tickets from Portland to St. Louis and return on account of the world's fair on sale as follows:

October 3rd, 4th and 5th.
The round trip rate to St. Louis and return from Portland will be $67.50. Tickets will be good for return via any direct line.

A round trip rate of $72.50 will also be made from Portland to Chicago and return.

If a passenger desires to take in both Chicago and St. Louis the round trip rate will be $75.00.

All tickets will be good for 90 days from date of sale. Tickets will be good going ten days from date of sale so that a limited stop-over can be had on the going trip and on the return trip passengers can stop at their pleasure west of the Missouri river or St. Paul. These rates apply via direct lines, but if passenger wishes to return through California tickets can be sold accordingly, but at an increased rate of $12.50 added to above.
