WILL FIGHT TO THE END

Count Cassini, Russia's American Representative, so Declares and Believes.

SAYS RUSSIA IS SURE TO WIN

Calls Kuropatkin Greatest General—Port Arthur Greatest Defense—Russians Can Stand Winter Better.

New York, Oct. 13.—Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, who spent the summer months in Maine, has arrived here on his way to Washington, where he will on once reopen the legation. Discussing affairs in the far east the ambassador declared the war must go on to the end.

"There can be but one outcome," he continued. "When I say an end I do not mean an end of Japan as a nation but an end to the pretensions of Japan on the shores of the Asiatic continent. "She will be beaten and must in the end accept the terms of Russia."

"Do you think the situation is changing in favor of Russia?"
"The whole world must see that by this time. I said in May last that Kuropatkin was the greatest strategist in Europe. He has thus far demonstrated his ability. The trouble with us has been that we have not sufficient men. But that is changing."

"The Russian forces have increased in numbers, and Kuropatkin is taking the offensive. There will, of course, be reverses. We may often fall short of doing what we desire promptly, but in the end all that will change. Our armies will grow, our armaments will improve. The outcome will be in the end the outcome which my country desires."

"The defenses of Port Arthur has been one of the wonders of modern warfare. The Japanese outnumbering us and besieging the fortress by land and blockading it by sea and with a great advantage over us both by land and sea, have fallen many months short of their calculations."

"If there is to be a winter campaign, the Russians will have the advantage of Japan in being better able to stand the climate. I should, therefore, look for such a campaign to be greatly to the benefit of the army of Russia."

The arrival of the ambassador brought out reports that a guard of secret service agents had been provided for his protection because of threats, the exact nature of which is not known. Special protection, it is stated, has been afforded the legation for some months and the men who were at Oyster Bay during the summer are now said to be accompanying the ambassador back to Washington. They drove behind him to his hotel and were seen later at a theatrical performance which he attended.
