

WILL CAMP AT THE FAIR.

Valley Sightseers To Establish Tent City At Portland.

Portland Telegram:—Camping out is conceded to be pleasant summer amusement, but in the past people who "camped" have gone "to the country." Now this order of things has been reversed by farmers of the Willamette valley, who will come to Portland next season and a colony will be formed to dwell in tents while visiting the Lewis and Clark fair. The plan has been under consideration for some time, and a large number have agreed to enter the scheme and spend an outing in the city or near its limits.

With wagons and teams these farmers will come, but that is not the only means to be employed, and camping during the fair will not be the only pastime, for one family near Peoria is about to build a large houseboat, to accommodate a score or more, who prefer drifting lazily down the Willamette to a rapid ride on the cars or steamboat. The houseboat will be taken in tow occasionally by a passing steamer, and after a week or so of camping along the river bank the party will reach Portland, where they will make the scow their headquarters while taking in the fair. When they get through they will sell their scow for what it will bring and go back home by rapid transit.

A party from Linn county, members of which desire to have their names concealed, is now in Portland

PIMPLES

"I tried all kinds of blood remedies which failed to do me any good but I have found the right thing at last. My face was full of pimples and blackheads. After taking Cascarets they all left. I am continuing the use of them and recommending them to my friends. I feel fine when I rise in the morning. Hope to have a chance to recommend Cascarets."

he had a knife in his hand and that he made a threat that he would hurt her and later told her that if she repeated the offense he would kill her. After she locked him out of the room, the testimony shows, he went to the pantry and got the shotgun with which he killed the girl by shooting through a window.

The boy said on the witness stand that he did not know the gun was loaded and only intended to frighten his sister.

The World's Fair Route.

Those anticipating an eastern trip, or a visit to the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis, cannot afford to overlook the advantages offered by the Missouri Pacific Railway, which, on account of its various routes and gateways, has been appropriately named "The World's Fair Route."

Passengers from the northwest take the Missouri Pacific train from Denver or Pueblo, with the choice of either going direct through Kansas City, or via Wichita, Fort Scott and Pleasant Hill.

Two trains daily from Denver and Pueblo to St. Louis without change, carrying all classes of modern equipment, including electric lighted observation parlor cafe dining cars. Ten daily trains between Kansas City and St. Louis.

Write or call on W. C. McBride, general agent, 124 Thirtieth street, Portland, for detailed information and illustrated literature.
