

THEY ARE FOR ROOSEVELT.

His Magnetism Proves Attractive To Men Of All Conditions.

There is a magnetism in open, fearless manhood which attracts the souls of men. The workmen of the country recognize in President Roosevelt an active worker, a sincere, democratic, straightout brother man.

Puff Theodore Roosevelt in a group of railway engineers and firemen, or on a ranch in Idaho; let him sit down to dinner with a dozen farmers at a country tavern or ride in a car with a mining outfit, or a college football team, or a delegation of stonemasons, and instantly he would be sized up, estimated and acknowledged by any and all of these representatives of American life as a hearty, genial companion, and as a strong man and as a strong leader of men.

Evidences multiply, day by day, showing in what high esteem President Roosevelt is held by the men who are doing the work of the country; the work which keeps life going, and makes "the wheels go round." And these intelligent, keen workers, looking with clear eyes upon the great fabric of society that they are daily building, know how to pick a leader for themselves and their country.

Nothing can make the verile young manhood of America turn its eyes away from Theodore Roosevelt. Nothing can destroy the confidence in him of the steady, hopeful toilers of middle age. And to the old and experienced the vain appeals of ancient party prejudices are but as rattlings to the deaf. Young, middle-aged and old alike in the great world of industry and traffic, have made up their minds about the coming election; and when it comes they are going to show the faith that is in them.

The American workmen have no doubts about Theodore Roosevelt. They know just what to expect of him when he is President, and they mean to have it by electing him.

Look to Your Walk.

Look to your walk. It has more to do with your success or failure than you, perhaps, dream of. Don't slouch.

Don't wobble. Don't shuffle. Don't strut. Walk like a man who is determined to play a man's part in life, with head erect and feet firmly planted on the ground.

One may see, on the streets of a city, every day, many people who are walking failures. There is not the slightest energy in their movements. Their whole bearing gives testimony of their weakness. How do we know that they are failures? Nothing is simpler. There is a subtle connection between the mind and the body. The mental attitude is reflected in the spontaneous movements of the body, and you can very quickly tell by a man's walk and general bearing whether his mind is alert, his spirit progressive and earnest, and his whole being full of life and vigor and determination, or he is a slouch, lazy, lifeless creature.—Success.

Restrict Use of Opium.

The opium question in the Philippines is to be settled on the following basis: The opium traffic is to be made a government monopoly at once; at the end of three years the importation of opium is to be absolutely prohibited, with the exception of what is needed as medicine; only confirmed users of the drug who are over 21 years of age shall receive a smoker's license; an educational campaign against the use of opium is to be started in the public schools; the habitual users of the drug are to be treated free of charge in government hospitals; Chinese found guilty of importing opium are to be deported from the islands. It will be remembered that when the proposition came up, some months ago, to dispose of the opium monopoly in the Philippines to the highest bidder, Dr. Homer C. Stuntz, the chief representative of the Methodist Episcopal church at Manila, vigorously opposed the scheme. He aroused the church at home, which in turn appealed to the government at Washington; and before the commission at Manila he made such a representation of the situation, based upon his observations in India and elsewhere, that it was decided to place the whole matter in the hands of a commission. This body of three men visited Japan, China, the Malay states, and other countries, and studied the question at close range. Its report, in substance is given above, and must be construed as a decided victory for morality and advanced civilization.

NEED SPECIAL TEXT BOOKS.

Our Books Are Not Suited to Their Use.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Commander Lubick, in charge of the Chicago naval recruiting office, received a letter from Governor Dyer, of Guam, announcing that public schools soon will be opened in the island for the education of 2300 native children. The writer says he is experiencing much trouble in finding school books suitable to the needs of the work. The governor asks for publishers' catalogues, and adds:

"Unless the books have more or less local color they are practically useless. As a concrete example, experience shows that it is quite impossible to teach the natives of the Pacific tropics the meanings of the seasons, as we understand them in the United States."
