

PARKER COULD ILL AFFORD EXPENSE OF THE CAMPAIGN

Unsuccessful Race for Presidency Put Financial Kink in the Democratic Leader That Is Embarrassing.

Esopus.—It is the general report here that Judge Alton B. Parker, because of the large expenditures undertaken by him during the campaign, has been reduced financially to such an extent that he will have to engage in some business at once. It was learned today that he has been offered a prominent position with a large law firm in Albany, which, it is thought, he will accept without delay.

The report that he had been forced to spend several thousands of dollars during the campaign was substantiated today by Emory Freer, a close friend of the defeated candidate and the wealthiest merchant in the town of Esopus. Mr. Freer was one of the party of friends who were with Judge Parker at the latter's house when the returns were received.

When seen in his store today Mr. Freer was very much downcast over the defeat of his fellow townsman.

"It was awful, awful," said Mr. Freer, "but the judge took it all like the man he is. Never a sorrowful look or a shadow of disappointment crossed his face when the returns were being read to him.

"He was much more cheerful than any of us or his family. He kept uttering little side remarks of a cheerful nature all the time and tried to keep up our spirits, but it was a hard job. He felt more sorry for the democratic party than he did for himself.

"Now, supposing Judge Parker had been elected president, it would not have benefitted him to any extent. He would have had to spend his salary entertaining at the white house, and what would he have had left at the end of four years? The judge realizes that he is getting along in years, and he intends to begin at once to put a little aside.

"He will go into law practice at once, and he will doubtless make more money that way than he would in the presidential chair. Judge Parker is not a rich man, and this campaign cost him several thousand dollars. He has always been whole hearted and generous to a fault, which has kept him from accumulating as much as he might.

"He refused to take a cent from the democratic managers for his expenses during the campaign and the cost of his trips to the city, hotel bills, and the many receptions he has given at his home in Esopus, has been a good deal more than you would think.

"It has always been that way with him. If he goes with a friend to Kingston or Albany you have to be very quick to prevent him from paying every little thing. As for his being defeated in his own county, I was very sorry to hear it, but you must consider that formally Esopus has always gone republican by a big majority, while this year Judge Parker cut the other side's vote down very low."

ABOUT THE NEW ASTOR.

An Army of Employees Necessary to Operate the Great Hotel.

New York, Nov. 12.—The new Astor hotel, just opened in this city, is probably the most conspicuous of great modern hostelry. It is located in the city in itself. Among the facts which justify the statement are the following items:

To begin with, nearly a thousand salaried employees are essential, and assigned to his or her special duty, which is performed regardless of any one else. Then there is the purchasing of vast quantities of supplies, together with the work of constantly replenishing the stock and material which must

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is very difficult to get rid of dandruff and to prevent its return by feeding the germs which cause it. High Cantharides, Vasoline, Glycerine and similar substances are the principal ingredients of the product called Hair Vigor.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the germ which feeds on the hair roots. It is the original and only scalp germicide manufactured. Sold by leading druggists. Send for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

be always on hand. Fifteen elevators, controlled by improved hydraulic engines, are always in use, and perpetual day is maintained by the use of 18,000 electric lights.

The laundry is by no means an insignificant department, and a force of fifty employees are assigned to the work. With the aid of automatic arrangements for cleaning and ironing, the laundry of the guests is attended to, and in addition are 100,000 napkins, 20,000 towels and 6000 pieces of bed linen to keep clean.

There is never a moment during the 24 hours of the day that there is not a force working about some section of a typical hostelry. Even through the wee sma' hours of the morning, when the guests are wrapped in slumber, 120 housecleaners are passing through the corridors polishing the furniture and sweeping up the waste which has accumulated. In fact, their work never ceases and as soon as their rounds are finished the territory is immediately gone over by another set of housecleaners.

As in other large hotels, the purely industrial departments are down below the street level, in the basement and sub-basements. Of these the kitchen is probably the most interesting, occupying three-quarters of the space on the basement floor. Under the guiding hand of the chef 195 employees, assigned to various positions in this department, are kept on the go. The kitchen of the Hotel Astor is said to be the largest in the world, and a trip through it reveals much of interest. It somewhat resembles a huge lobby, and is sub-divided into many departments, such as the butcher shop, knife cleaning and dish washing room, cold meat room, the bakery, and serving room, in which all dishes ready to serve, such as jellies, jams, etc., are kept.

Each cook works individually and wholly independent of his neighbor. For instance, one devotes his attention to the broiler, another to roasts, and perhaps still another to fish.

The high salaried men of the kitchen are the confectionery makers, who turn out many original ideas in dainty ices. Then there are men who make coffee alone, others whose duty it is to keep the necessary number of plates heated, which is done by plate-warming closets heated to a certain temperature. The grill room in the Hotel Astor is elaborately fitted out after the manner of a German rathskeller. The guests may go to any of the large showcases in which are arranged an inviting assortment of uncooked steaks, chops and other dainty morsels, leave an order and wait at one of the tables of quaintly carved woodwork until the order is cooked.

Adjoining the grill room is a barber shop and manicuring parlor. A score of barbers and a dozen manicurists are in attendance from early morning until midnight. The barber shop itself exquisitely decorated, and although the floor is not covered with a layer of silver dollars, as in one instance, it is, nevertheless, lavishly fitted out. Strictly sanitary conditions prevail, and facilities for proper sterilization are evident at every chair. The shaving soap used is squeezed from a tube, a precaution which in itself is a sanitary safeguard.

Eighty employes, engineers and firemen, are needed to look after the welfare of the big engines and keep them continually in action. Overlooking the plant is an observatory, comfortably furnished, and in which the guests may view the wonders of the intricate mechanism, if so disposed.

The marine dining room is perhaps the most interesting of the many rooms and suites of the immense building, and is a representation of a steam yacht's cabin. The entrance is through a companionway, and the interior resembles that of a cabin in every minute detail. Looking through the cabin windows one can see a panoramic view of Long Island sound, and scenes familiar to New York yachtsmen.

One of the most interesting features of a great hotel is the item of help. First there is a general manager, responsible for the proper working of the hotel. Then there is a room manager who looks after the female help, desk clerks and the matter of keeping the guest rooms in the proper condition.

The treasurer supervises the work of the auditors, bookkeepers and the office force, including clerks, cashiers and stenographers. In addition there are at the Hotel Astor:

- 195 kitchen men.
- 220 waiters.
- 35 bellboys.
- 25 elevator men.
- 10 carriage men.
- 80 engineers and firemen.
- 50 laundry employes.
- 180 housecleaners.
- 20 controllers.
- 20 musicians.
- 14 baggagemen.
- 30 pages.
- 20 window cleaners.
- 15 bartenders.
- 20 barbers.
- 12 manicurists.
- 6 telegraphers.
- 10 wine room clerks.

And many others who have probably escaped this particular census enumerator.

Several men alone are kept constantly on the go looking up references of applicants for positions, and the training and breaking in of "green hands" is a difficult task, undertaken by the heads of departments under which each new employe is assigned.

VALUE OF TUG SEA LION.

Robert Moran, Appointed Appraiser Says it is Worth $22,000.

Seattle, Nov. 16.—In the matter of the libels filed against the steam tug Sea Lion on account of the collision between that vessel and the Mainlander some time ago and which resulted in the sinking of the latter vessel, Robert Moran, who was appointed appraiser of the value of the tug by the federal court, yesterday turned in his estimate as to the value of the tug boat. In a written statement handed to Judge Hanford he states that, in his opinion, the little craft is worth $22,000.

Not only has the Pacific Coast company, owner of the Mainlander, filed a libel against the tug, but the British ship Celtic Monarch, the tow of the Sea Lion at the time of the disaster, has levied on the ship for demurrage. The value of the tug will not nearly compensate either of the libelants for losses even if the courts should decide against the owners of the tug.

Not A Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, at Chas. Rogers Druggist.

WORMS

"I write to let you know how I appreciate your Cascarets. I commenced taking them last November and took two ten cent boxes and passed a tapeworm 18 in. long. Then I commenced taking them again and Wednesday, April 4th, I passed another tape worm 24 in. long and over a thousand small worms. Previous to my taking Cascarets I didn't know I had a tapeworm. I always had a small appetite."

A BAD DISORDER

In the fall of 1895 I contracted that fearful disease, Blood Poison. It gained such headway that I was forced to resign my position and seek relief at Hot Springs. After spending all the means I had I went to Memphis. In less than three weeks I was in a hospital, and after nine weeks of suffering I was discharged as cured. In less than a month every bone in my body seemed to be affected and felt as if they would break at the least exertion. Again I was compelled to resign, and I returned to the hospital for a seven weeks stay. When I came out I was advised to try farming. When I first went on the farm I prevailed on the only firm who handled drugs to get me one dozen bottles of S. S. S. At that time both of my hands were broken out with blisters and I was covered with boils and sores. In the meantime my daughter had gotten two dozen bottles of S. S. S. for me and I began its use, and after taking the thirteenth bottle not a sore remained on my body. R. B. POWELL, East 9th St., Little Rock, Ark.
