

EXPOSITION AT AN END

Only Three More Days Remain of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

WILL DISMANTLE AT ONCE

Exhibits Intact to the End—Superintendent Phemeger of Seattle Says All Will Be Out By March 1.

St. Louis, Nov. 26.—Promptly at midnight Dec. 1st, a force of 75 men employed by the general service company of the Louisiana Purchase exposition, will shunt 200 freight cars loaded with empty packing cases into the several exhibit palaces and the work of dismantling the world's fair will begin.

Piled at different parts of the exposition grounds are 1500 carloads of empty packing cases while outside the grounds are others, aggregating 100 carloads more. These will be distributed as rapidly as possible and the packing of exhibits will be rushed.

At daylight Dec. 2nd, another large force of men will begin to tear up the walks that conceal the tracks about the exposition grounds. They will also tear up the switches in the rear of the stadium and lay tracks connecting the line with each of the exhibit buildings.

A bond has been filed with the United States government, through the treasury department by the world's fair terminal railroad company, making it a common carrier, which will facilitate the removal of the exhibits, as freight cars can be despatched direct from the exposition grounds to their destinations.

With the exception of Germany, in which case special permission was secured, not a single exhibit has been withdrawn nor will be allowed to be withdrawn until Dec. 1.

Only a few of the German exhibits have been taken away from the world's fair grounds and they were shipped directly to the imperial palace at Potsdam.

P. E. Phemeger of Seattle has been appointed general superintendent of the general service company and declares that all exhibits will be out of the exposition grounds by March 1.

Modern Prescribing.

Doctors' Methods Better Than They Were Years Ago.

THE PATIENT'S LOT ALSO MUCH IMPROVED.

Large Doses of Nauseating Medicine No Longer Necessary.

Our forefathers did not have such a delightful time, after all. Just think of the round-about way they were obliged to accomplish the many things that are done by us every day, almost without thought, by means of modern inventions. Then think of what happened to them when they were sick. Lucky was the man who was not pounced upon by a doctor and often literally bled to death.

That was only a starter of what was soon to follow. Long, deep draughts brewed from horrible-tasting herbs were continually administered. Remedies without number, each worse than the other, followed quickly. No wonder so many of our ancestors died young. No wonder life insurance statistics show that we come from a short-lived race.

It is medicine like everything else. The day of barbarism in treatment is nearly over. No longer does the doctor deprive the patient of his very life's blood right at a time when he needs every particle of strength. No longer does he compel the poor sufferer to absorb untold amounts of barks, herbs and mineral solutions right at a time when nature should be left to herself to straighten out what might only be a slight trouble.

The modern physician knows that he can administer the vital principles of his remedies in a concentrated form. You do not find your doctor brewing a tea or asking you to chew huge quantities of Cinchona bark where Quinine is necessary. No longer does he administer a bolus of opium to deaden pain. Not much. A hypodermic syringe charged with the active principles of opium; morphine does the work better and does not do as much damage for nature to repair.

Right on this line comes news of a recent discovery that will undoubtedly prove to be the most valuable one yet made. It is that of Vinol, nothing more or less than a concentrated extract of the active medicinal principles found in the liver of the live cod.

The above explanation is about all that is necessary to give one, in order that he may understand the full value of this discovery. Every one knows the uses for which cod liver oil has been prescribed. Every one realizes that there are many cases of wasting diseases that could have been cured by the use of cod liver oil, had it been possible to administer the obnoxious remedy; but every one does not know that when they were taking cod liver oil in its old form, they were absorbing into the system a vast amount of vile smelling, obnoxious tasting grease that was absolutely powerless of doing them any good, but were simply taking it because it was a vehicle that conveyed the peculiar medicinal principles that it was the intention of the doctor to give to them.

Here is where this new discovery will benefit the world. These principles, separated from the fat and all other unnecessary features, dissolved in a delicious table wine, can now be administered even to the most delicate patient without its being apparent that cod liver oil or anything connected with it is being taken. The greater strength of the new preparation will also enable the patient to receive a greater amount of necessary medicine than was possible to administer before. The consequence will be that the good for which the medicine is desired will be accomplished in a much quicker time. The harm that was formerly caused to stomachs already weakened by disease will be entirely averted, and the result will be that Vinol in but a few years will entirely supersede, as a medicine, cod liver oil in any other known form.

Commission at St. Louis Choose Exhibits for Portland.

St. Louis, Nov. 26.—The government exhibit commissioners of the Lewis and Clark exposition have held a meeting in the offices of the United States government building and considered the display to be made at that exposition. All the members of the government board were in attendance with the exception of Dr. F. W. True, representing the Smithsonian institute. They designated the displays at the Louisiana Purchase exposition which they desired especially to procure for the western exposition.

Invited Cotton Association.

New York, Nov. 26.—It is probable that the Lancaster cotton association will accept an invitation extended by the municipality cotton exchanges and chamber of commerce to visit the southern states of America, according to a Times dispatch from London.

COME TO THE STAR

C. O. COWLES.

There were five vaudeville acts in Portland last week that were tremendous hits. Each one has been booked for the Star and will appear here this week, starting tomorrow afternoon. The two Rustics are funny; Cowles and Alden have the finest kind of refined comedy sketch. Hickman and Morton are charming soubrettes, who sing and dance and look good
