Mrs. Wise, wife of Marcus Wise of Ilwaco, formerly a resident of Astoria, died at her home in Ilwaco yesterday. The remains were brought to Astoria yesterday and taken to Portland for interment. Mrs. Wise resided in Astoria a number of years and leaves many friends to mourn her loss.

Astoria wants a charter in the interests of economy and the people and not in the interests of a political trust dominated by one man. Astoria is not a one man town.

For sale—At Gaston's feed stable, No. 165 Fourteenth street; one Landie's harness machine; one Smith-Premier typewriter; one 20 hp motor and belt; 1000 good sacks.

The Imperial oyster house is prepared to furnish Shoalwater bay oysters in quantities of pints and quarts to supply the family trade. Colonial oysters always on hand.

Among some of the most foolish measures introduced in the legislature is a bill by Representative Carter of Benton, providing for school libraries. It is not a bill, simply a hobby.

Our large stock of fine dry goods, clothing, furnishing goods and all will be placed on reduced sale prices during the next 30 days. C. H. Cooper, the leading house of Astoria.

The story about someone seeing Mrs. Saylor and a man leaving Skamokawa in a boat is not due until next Monday. Evidently the lunacy commission has been lax in its duties during the past two weeks.

There is no complaint about business at the Star saloon. Good goods and courteous treatment will draw trade to any first-class saloon. That's what makes business good at the Star. The best is none too good for our customers.

Considering the personality of the joint fisheries committee appointed by the Oregon legislature to confer with a like committee, to be appointed by the legislature of Washington, it is doubtful if the Washington legislature will appoint a conference committee, it being contended that people knowing more about fishing than farming ought to have been appointed.

Callendar Company is making some extensive repairs to its fleet, and with the fitting of some new boats going into commission the merchants are getting considerable unexpected business during the dull season.

A Portland hypnotist has been at Skamokawa the past few days. He claimed that he had the power to locate the body of Mrs. Saylor, the woman who was drowned. Like all other fakes he lost the combination. Mrs. Saylor's body has not yet been recovered.

Secretary Metcalf has recommended that $40,000 be expended in repairing the lighthouse tender Manzanita, and the recommendation will be embodied in a bill to be passed by congress. This amount will be sufficient to entirely rebuild the vessel.

At the meeting of the common council next Monday night, the bill for building a public thoroughfare will come up for approval or rejection. It is expected that friends of the measure will attend the meeting in the interests of the bill. If it is approved it will be forwarded at once to the representatives in Salem.

A party of Astorians will leave the city this morning for Knappton where they will be entertained by Mrs. Chas. Callender. The party will consist of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Prael, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpf, Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Pilkington and Mr. and Mrs. Callender. The party will return to Astoria Monday.

It is evident from reports from Salem that the citizens are not to have all the say about making amendments to the charter at Salem. What the people of Astoria want is a charter which will cut out some of the elections, and not to make a life tenure of some political offices held by men who believe a public office is a private snap.

Rev. L. D. Mahone returned from Salem yesterday, where he went in the interest of the local option measure. He is of the impression that the amendments will not pass. He contends that the amendments will render the law inoperative. The amendments will simply make it a local option measure instead of absolute prohibition, as at present.

REWARD—We shall give $10 in gold as a first prize, and $5 as a second prize to the boy or girl under 18 years of age, writing the best poem of two or more verses, using the MONARCH RANGE as the subject of the poem. James G. Doyle, who was once booked at the city jail as a vag, has turned up in Minneapolis, where he has been arrested for murder. About the only murder in Astoria was accused of committing in Astoria was attempting to kill "booze."

Bids were opened yesterday by the committee on streets and public ways for building a sidewalk on Duane street. Three bids were submitted as follows: J. A. Fasteband $320, Birch & Jacobson $327, L. Haggman $330. The contract was awarded to J. A. Fasteband. The lowest bid was $20 above the estimate of the city surveyor, but the amount was so small that it would not justify the council in readvertising for bids.

Lem On, a prominent Chinaman of Astoria, employed by the combine as foreman in the Eureka cannery, is expected to return from San Francisco on the 24th, bringing with him a blushing bride of the Flowery Kingdom named Lee Wo Ky, whom he married in San Francisco. He paid $3000 for his wife, who is 18 years of age. He is a member of the Lem company and Dark Wo company. A great reception is being prepared for him on his return and a number of white people have been extended invitations to the reception.

The indications are that work will not be resumed on the court house for some time to come. There is a legal question involved in levying a tax and creating a court house fund, that will have to be adjusted by the supreme court, and a friendly suit will probably be instituted to determine the rights of the county. If it is held that the warrants drawn on the court house fund is a part of the indebtedness of the county, it will settle the building of the court house. The supreme court has already held that any indebtedness created in excess of $5000 is unconstitutional. The opponents of building the court house and who oppose any improvements in Astoria are back of the measure to kill the court house project.

Our large stock of Reliable Footwear will be sold this month at a great reduction. Don't miss it. Wherity, Ralston & Co.

ASTORIA, SWEET HOME

Written by an Astorian to the popular Tune of

"MY OWN UNITED STATES"

The Papers boast of many towns,
Chicago and New York,
Parisian styles, its marble Piles,
Old Ireland's town of Cork;
Of Portland and its coming Fair,
And 'Frisco, Victoria.
Let me acclaim the town I name,
My own ASTORIA!

Chorus.

I love every inch of her wooden streets,
Each tree on the mountain side;
I love every drop of the water clear,
That flows in her river wide.
I love every spot, every drop of rain;
Through her streets I love to roam—
The town of them all is the place that
I call
ASTORIA, SWEET HOME.

II.

Wise offers now a clearance sale
On Overcoats and Suits—
Of latest styles, Wise has big Piles;
His Garments they are Beauts.
And then he sells things very cheap.
You ask the reason why?
So I will say, it is "Wise's way"—
A fact that none deny.

Chorus.

He sells everything within his store
So low that you'll be glad.
So do not delay, but buy right away.
If not you'll wish you had.
If you need a SUIT, OVERCOAT or Hat,
Underwear, or Sox, or Ties—
The Boss of them all is the man that they call
The Reliable HERMAN WISE.
