LOOK FOR MURDERER

Police Are After Accomplice of H. H. Holmes.

HOCH HELPED WOMAN KILLER

Police Think the Man of Many Aliases Is in Hiding Somewhere in the Dominion—New Evidence Has Been Discovered.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Belief that Johann Hoch, the man of many wives, may prove to be the elusive and mysterious Edward Hatch, accomplice of H. H. Holmes, the notorious woman murderer, whose crimes created excitement all over the United States and Canada in 1895, has led the police to begin an investigation along that line. "At the time Holmes made his confessions when in prison at Philadelphia before his execution Hatch was generally regarded by the police as a mythical character invented by Holmes but since that time there have been revelations which are almost convincing that there was a man named Hatch who did operate with Holmes in his swindles and who aided him in making way with the lives of the women and children whom he murdered.

Because of the similarity of his operations with the criminal record of H. H. Holmes, the cleverness with which Hoch apparently disposed of many of his wives and other singular circumstances which the police refuse to divulge, they are working to establish the fact that there was an Edward Hatch—name sometimes said to have been spelled Hoth—and that he is Johann Hoch, the man now being hunted.

That Hoch used the name Hatch or Hoth as one of his aliases about 11 or 12 years ago, at the time of the Holmes outrage is declared to have been known to detectives working on the case and this line of evidence may lead to a search in Toronto and Montreal where Holmes declared in one of his confessions that Hatch killed the Puetzel children of Philadelphia.

Conditions That Unfit For Marriage.

The low paid employee today can succeed as well alone as with a wife, which his ancestors could not do. At the same time his selfish enjoyments are greater without her, for he may live irresponsibly, without a motive to save and with all his surplus available for wayside pleasures of an antisocial sort. The disintegrating forces of a great city upon homeless youth are too obvious to need emphasis. The wage earning girl, on her part, is likely to acquire the taste of fragmentary, pointless and unproductive spending. Both form habits harmful to the altruistic motives of group living—of the home idea. A man who goes from the saloon, street corner or cheap pleasure club, a girl who leaves the dance hall and pavement glitter to make a home for him, the bare necessities of which are hardly met by his wages, are not qualified by their experiences to bring to a successful issue the supreme test of character that makes stable a high standard.—Professor Simon N. Patten in Independent.

A Soft Answer.

It was in 1872 that George Chesmore Bromley, author of "Long Ago and Later On," became a member of the Bohemia club of San Francisco and soon found himself "Sire of the Low Jinks," which occasion he vividly recalls, and especially his arrival at home afterward. He writes: "My dear little wife awoke at my entrance and inquired the time. I looked at my watch and replied, 'Ten minutes past 10,' and then laid the watch on the mantelpiece. Having some doubts as to the correctness of my reply, the little woman arose and looked for herself. 'What time did you say it was?' she asked again. 'Ten minutes past 10,' said I. 'Ten minutes past 10! Why, it only lacks ten minutes of 2,' said she. 'Is that so?' said I. 'Why, bless my soul, how time flies! I had no idea that I had been home so long.' This was another occasion when I realized that 'a soft answer turneth away wrath.'"

Wrestling With the Spaniard.

When Walter Williams, from Columbus, Miss., was in Spain in the summer of 1903 he called upon a provincial editor in the interest of the St. Louis exposition. The next day the paper had the following: "Walter Williams of the United States purchased the state of Louisiana and next year will give a celebration, to which he invites his fellow journalists of Europe." Mr. Williams again called upon the editor and thoroughly explained matters. The editor apologized and printed this correction: "Governor Francis of Missouri has purchased a large tract of land in the Great American desert, and Walter Williams is here to invite the journalists of Spain to a show which the governor will give next year." Mr. Williams fled the place, fearful the editor might explain some more.

Rossetti's Awful Breakfast.

It was at one time arranged that Dante Gabriel Rossetti, his brother William and Swinburne and George Meredith should live together in a certain house. Meredith happened to see Dante Gabriel Rossetti at breakfast and changed his plans. Meredith himself tells the story. "It was past noon," says he, "Rossetti had not yet risen, though it was an exquisite day. On the breakfast table on a huge dish rested five thick slabs of bacon, upon which five rigid eggs had slowly bled to death. Presently Rossetti appeared in his dressing gown, with slippers down at heel, and devoured the dainty repast like an ogre." That meal was too much for Meredith, and he sacrificed three months' rent rather than see it repeated.

WHY WE CAN

So Fearlessly Guarantee Vinol.

"It is true," said Mr. Rogers, "we stand ready to refund money paid us for Vinol every time it fails to do what we claim for it, and when we tell you that Vinol actually has a record of succeeding in 98 cases out of every 100 you can see why it is we are so ready to do this.

"There is absolutely nothing that will act as a general re-builder, strength restorer and flesh creator for old people, children, weak people and during convalescence equal to Vinol.

"The reason for this is that Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form those important medicinal elements that have always made cod liver oil famous, but it is far superior to cod liver oil and emulsions inasmuch as it contains none of the grease or oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and it is delicious to the taste."

Mrs. W. C. Parker of Jackson, Mich., writes: "I have been sick and all run down for over a year, have taken all kinds of medicines and treated with our best physicians but received no benefit. I was so weak and nervous that I could not sleep or bear the slightest noise. Friends recommended Vinol. I took two bottles of it and cannot recommend it too highly after what it has done for me. My nervousness is gone, I have gained in flesh and strength and sleep well. I wish every woman suffering as I did would try Vinol."

"What Vinol did for Mrs. Parker it will do for every person in Astoria who is in her condition. We cheerfully refund your money every time it fails." Chas. Rogers, druggist.
