WORD ON RAMPAGE

Closes Up the Notorious "Paris House"

JOB TOOK JUST 40 MINUTES

Doughty Sheriff of Multnomah Says He Will Also Put the Other Notorious Joints Out of Business as Soon as He Has Time.

Portland, Feb. 7.—Sheriff Word last night swooped down on the notorious Paris house in the north end district, arrested Manager Phillips and 33 women, left two armed guards in charge, hustled the prisoners off to the county jail, and what he terms the most disreputable establishment in Portland was closed to stay closed, according to the man who put it out of business in just 40 minutes.

From the place named, Under Sheriff Morden, at the command of his chief, went with a force of deputies to a resort at Second and Flanders street, known as the "Little Paris," and closed it. From there 13 women were taken and locked up in the county jail. "I wanted to do this before, but I had that gambling fight on and could not get around to it," said Sheriff Word, as his deputies were getting women from the Paris house into a closed vehicle, secured for the occasion. "The farce of the police in driving women from the 'combination' houses and leaving them in full operation at the large establishments hastened me in what I am doing. Why shouldn't I close this place, anyway? It is the worst place in Portland. It's closed to stay, too, while I'm in office. It'll run as a lodging house for men, nothing else. They can open for that, and that alone. I'm going to leave two officers in charge here, just as I've done in all of the other places I've closed up.

"Will I close up the rest? Well, wait and see; I may. One thing at a time is my policy, and maybe I'll get around to some other places before very long. Yes, I may find those big places the police are overlooking. But we'll see what will come next, if anything."

Theater Princes Pinched.

New York, Feb. 7.—On summons secured by James S. Metcalf, a dramatic critic; Daniel Frohman, Oscar Hammerstein, Marie Klaw, Abraham T. Erlanger, Al Hayman and Charles W. Burnham, theater managers, have appeared in police court for examination to determine whether they have entered into an unlawful conspiracy to exclude Metcalf from their theaters. Metcalf has been denied admission to several theaters. He contends that by excluding him from the theaters the managers are preventing him from earning a livelihood, and requests that warrants be issued for their arrest. The case was put over without decision until Thursday next.

A Grim Tragedy.

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes, as Death claims, in each one, another victim of Consumption or Pneumonia. But what Coughs and Colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. G. Huntley of Oaklandon, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. ## TAB ON POSTMASTER

Comptroller Makes an Important Decision.

AFFECTS A LARGE NUMBER

Postmaster General is Empowered to Arbitrarily Reduce Salaries of Officers Where There is Evidence of Padding Receipts.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The postmaster general is empowered not only to fix the salary of a postmaster on the basis of the gross receipts of his postoffice, as provided by law, but to go behind the receipts to determine whether they were obtained properly, according to a decision rendered by Comptroller of the Currency Tracewell.

The opinion affects many postmasters charged with padding receipts to raise their salaries, by soliciting or having their friends solicit business for their postoffices that belongs to the limits of neighboring offices.

The comptroller holds that even the postmaster himself is not party to the solicitation of business from outside his jurisdiction, and if that solicitation is done by friendly citizens of his town, the postmaster general has the right to investigate the method of obtaining the receipts in fixing the salary of the postoffice.
