THOU SHALT NOT.

A Few Don'ts That Astoria People Should Observe.

Positives can be helped by negatives by the observation of the following Don'ts," based on the Old Testament dea, "Thou shalt not":

"Don't throw waste paper on the streets.

Don't put chalk marks on fences o buildings.

Don't fall to repair or renew you pavements.

Don't fall to clean up your yards and gardens, Don't have circulars printed to be thrown around town and blown around Don't let loose bricks in the side-

Don't throw stones and break peo-

Don't expectorate upon the side walks.

The citizen interested in promoting the public welfare can help materially by observing these rules. We must all remember that public policy depends upon the action of many. If each individual does his or her duty and observes the laws and ordinances order and progress result: if he omits to do his share, chaos and disorder for-

Each American citizen can bring the realization of a 'more beautiful America' the ideas of the American Civic Association, one day closer by observing these simple little don'ts in his or her every day life.
