day at the Baptist church in the afternoon at 3 o'clock and at the Methodist in the evening at 7:30. Rev. Ralph Gilliam will speak at both meetings.
The public is cordially invited.

A. B. Beadle of Beadle Bros. of San Francisco, owners of the schooner C.
A. Klose, arrived in Astoria yesterday

There will be a new millinery store, The Elite, open up in the new Carruther's building on Duane street, next to Hedrick's theater. They have been

A new glass front and glass side is being put in the office of Elmore & Co., on the corner of Ninth and Commercial. The interior is also being fitted up and when completed will be the finest office building in the city.

Charles W. Halderman, private secretary to Senator Fulton, has returned home. After he left Washington he visited with his parents in Nebraska.
He will remain in Astoria until Senator Fulton returns to Washington.

No action has been taken by the committee on public property and the mayor about buying the necessary outfit for the street cleaning department.
The question of city finances will enter into the matter to a considerable extent.

Work is nearly completed for placing the government dredger W. S. Ladd in commission for a continuation of the work of deepening the channel on the lower Columbia. It is expected that she will resume work the fore part of next month.

No arrangements have been made for a revenue cutter to be stationed at As-toria to take the place of the Perry, but Senator Fulton is endeavoring to secure the McCullough, one of the finest in the service. If that cannot be secured, it is probable that the Manning will be assigned here.

Rev. Herbert H. Brown and wife have returned from a two months' absence to southern California. On their return they stopped at Grants Pass and Mr. Brown filled the pulpit of the church at that city. He has received a unanimous call to become the pastor of that church and will no doubt accept it. He will preach in Astoria Sunday morning.

A meeting of the ministers of Astoria was held yesterday afternoon at the office of J. A. Eakin to meet Rev.
Dr. Holt of Portland to discuss evangelical meetings in Astoria. A proposition was submitted to Mr. Holt which will be submitted to the committee in charge of the work in Portland, and if acceptable, it is probable that Rev. Dr. Daniel S. Toy and Mr.
Dixon will come to Astoria next week goes to Seattle.

Charles Turina, a well-known fisherlong illness from a complication of diseases. His funeral will be held this afternoon from the family residence, Upper Astoria, and the interment will be at Greenwood. The funeral will be held under the auspices of the For-resters, of which he was a member.

The deceased was a native of Austria, 48 years of age, and leaves a widow and six children.

The ministers held a revival in Portland and passed a resolution condemning an article in the Oregonian criticizing a subject advertised by one of the reformed ministers. The Oregonian has as much right to criticize a minister's sermon as a minister has to criticize the Oregonian. Churches have to depend upon the secular daily paper for publication of their meetings.
There are no daily Christian newspapers published in the United States.

Salaries of Teachers.

The school teachers of Astoria have filed a petition with the school board asking for an increase in salaries. The petition sets out the fact that the salaries as now paid are not commensurate with the increased cost of living, which has advanced 20 per cent. Salaries of city and county officials have been raised, and why not the school teachers? A committee consisting of Judge Taylor and J. A. Eakin was appointed to examine into the question and to report to the board at a meeting to be held in the near future. This was done, and after a careful investigation they reported, in effect, that while they regretted they could not comply with the request, it would be impossible to do so at this time on account of the financial condition of the district. The levy for the year's taxes had already been made and there was no other source to derive any revenue from to meet the increased expenses.
