foundation for a new store on Commercial street.

The county court will convene this morning in regular session. Considerable business is to be transacted and it is possible that the term will occupy the full week.

The common council is now busily engaged in studying frenzied finance.
A few suggestions from Thos. Lawson might be opportune now that the city is in a hole.

The Lynn Packing Company recently incorporated, have leased the plant of the Alaska Fisheries Union of Chilcat, Alaska, and will operate it during the coming season.

C. G. Palmberg, who has the contract for the new addition to St Mary's hospital, has commenced the construction of the basement. The first carload of stone for the structure will arrive today.

The Cathlamet baseball nine will give a dance at Cathlamet Saturday night. A large number will attend from Astoria. The Jordan will leave early in the evening, returning the next morning.

W. Whyte of Boise, Idaho, has taken charge of the McCrea-Ford studio for a time, and for the next 30 days will make the best $5.00 photographs for $3.50. See our work. Best in the city.

The usual revival services will be held this afternoon at the Baptist church at 3 o'clock and at the Methodist church this evening at 7:30. Rev.
Ralph Gilliam will preach. The public is cordially invited.

An American citizen was born at the residence of Go Fun yesterday morning. Go Fun was literally exemplified when the advent of the son and heir was announced by the attending physician.

Bernhard Lindenberger and bride have arrived from Germany and yesterday received the congratulations of their many friends. After a brief stay in Astoria, Mr. Lindenberger and wife will go to California to spend the summer.

Axel Carlson, the thief who broke into the store of L. Larsen and stole a quantity of clothing, was given a preliminary hearing yesterday before Judge Goodman and bound over to the circuit court in $500 bonds, and the sheriff has another boarder.

There is a restaurant in town which makes a specialty of serving fine meals, where prompt and good service can always be relied upon. This is the California Restaurant, which has just opened under new management, and is well worth visiting.

The funeral of the late William Hamlin was held yesterday morning from Pohl's undertaking parlors, under the auspices of Cushing Post, G. A.
R. Rev. L. D. Mahone preached the funeral sermon. The interment was in Ocean View, in the Grand Army plot.

It has been suggested that Councilman Hansen call the attention of the common council to the necessity of providing a resident police commissioner. The city attorney has evidently overlooked his previous intentions.
They ought to be made to either fish or cut bait.

Supplemental articles of incorporation of the J. Lindenberger company were filed in the county clerk's office yesterday whereby the capital stock was increased from $50,000 to $125,000.
The company contemplates making extensive additions to its cold storage and pickled salmon plant.

L. Lebak yesterday commenced the driving of spiles for the construction of the extension of the O. R. & N. wharf. The work is commenced at the west end and will connect with the east end of Bond street, opening that thoroughfare through to the wharf.
The improvement will cost $15,000.

There is a wide difference between the Portland markets and the Salem markets. Portland quotes eggs at 15 cents, butter at 65, apples 90c@1.25, potatoes at $1.35. In Salem eggs are 15 cents, butter 40, apples 40@70 and potatoes 50c. It is possible that owing to the long time required for a train to run from Salem to Portland, the stuff spoils, hence the difference in prices.

Hon. J. Bruce Polworth has resigned as prosecuting attorney of Wahkla-kum county and will be associated with Smith Bros. in the practice of law. Mr.
Polworth was in the city yesterday making arrangements for moving here.
He will not bring his private secretary, M. Gorman, with him. C. H. Fuqua was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Pol-worth.

At a meeting of the Columbia River Fishermen's Union the price of fish was placed at 5 cents under 25 pounds and 6 cents over 25 pounds. James Johnson was elected minister plenipotentiary and envoy extraordinary to Sand Island with the rank of mayor. A committee was appointed to see that no licenses are granted to the Sacramento net thieves and river pirates.
The price adopted will do doubt be paid by the canneries.

Revival Meetings.

The revival services continue with much interest. Dr. Gilliam spoke last evening from the text, "It is nothing to you?" The meeting was one of the most serious and attentive held as yet.
But a few days remain and Dr. Gilliam will leave for other parts. This afternoon the subject for the meeting will be "How a Christian should walk," beginning at 3 o'clock in the Baptist church. Tonight the subject will be "The voice of God to Astoria." The Adams sisters will be present and sing.
They are about 50 years old, but weigh about 30 pounds each. Their songs and child-like voices always attract.
