Large Quantities of Produce Arrive from California.

Front Street Merchants Report That There is Very Little Butter on Hand But Large Shipments Are Expected in a Few Days.

Large quantities of produce arrived from the south to meet the demands and is being quickly disposed of to the retailerst California fruits and vegetables were among the receipts. There is no change in the butter market, although merchants say there is very little on hand at present, but large shipments are expected soon.

"I didn't go. The salary was not such as I could accept, so you changed the appointment to consul general at St. Petersburg. "That was better," replied Mr. Cleveland. "How did you like that capital?" Mr. Brooks laughed again. "I didn't go there either," said he. "I was compelled by family reasons to refuse that gift too."

"Shake hands again," exclaimed the statesman heartily. "I have met many notable men in my time, but never before a Democrat who had refused two offices."-Criterion.

An Ambassador's Wit.

The late Lord Pauncefote, while at tending the peace congress at The Hague, attracted the attention of the delegates by taking notes with a fountain pen the handle of which was formed by the shell of a dumdum bullet. One day, says a blographer, the representative of a foreign power, excited by the heat of the discussion in the interests of peace, said to him sharply

"My lord, it isn't right for you to use that murderous shell in this congress. The instruments used by persons are almost emblematic. They can become a part of themselves, an expression of their ideas and of their per- makes regular trips between San sonality."

nothing. The following day his critic, weeks. wanting to write something, turned to the English diplomat to borrow a pen. The ambassador pulled out of his pocket an old fashioned pen made of a gray goose quill and after the borrower TAYLOR YOUNG & CO., had finished said:

"Monsieur, it isn't right for you to use such an instrument in this congress. The instruments used by persons are almost emblematic. They can become part of themselves, an expres-
