

The Effective Remedy

WASHINGTON, IOWA, April 4, 1905.

I was troubled for over a year with so scanty a flow that it was virtually suppression. A heavy cold superinduced this condition and nothing I could do seemed to help me. The only effective remedy I ever found was Wine of Cardui. Within two weeks I felt the good effects of the medicine and after I had used 12 bottles in all I was as healthy and regular as any woman could wish to be.

My sister used it while expecting to become a mother and found that it made childbirth comparatively easy and after the child was born she found that it helped her to regain her strength.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui cures nine out of every ten cases of the disorders of menstruation. These cures are permanent, whether the trouble is complicated or not.

Wine of Cardui cures the sickness of young girls, relieves the weakness of adults, banishes leucorrhoea, headaches, backaches and nervousness and eases the oris attendant on the change of life.

Thousands of mothers besides Miss Root's sister have found grateful relief from the pains of childbirth and have had a quick and happy recovery from its use. You cannot afford to suffer when $1.00 bottles are sold by all druggists.

FURNISHING AN APARTMENT

Some Hints For Those Who Have Limited Space.

The first thing in choosing an apartment is to have the landlord resaper such of the walls as are not light and cheerful in tone. As a rule, the rooms in apartment houses are small and none too well lighted, so that pale tinted walls are by far the best.

If you buy new furniture remember that the smaller it is the better. Anything heavy or so clumsy that it will not fit well into corners is decidedly out of place in an apartment. Put as little furniture as possible into each room and cover the floors with rugs so that they can easily be cleaned. Heavy pictures are entirely out of place. Gilt or light wood frames are best, and the more cheerful the tones of the pictures the better.

A round dining room table takes up less room than a square one and is far prettier.

In the sketch is shown a simple drawing room the tone of which is old rose. The furniture is on the Chipendale order and does not take up much room.

FEMININE BLUESTOCKINGS.

How Knowledge Exudes From Her Busy Brain At All Seasons.

"Deliver me from the brainy girl!" sighed the young man. "She feels so happy at having cornered a few books that she has to let every one in on the joke."

"The other evening I called on a very nice girl with very nice parents. Father and mother were peacefully playing cards in the library, and at father's right hand stood a box of fine cigars, into which I already saw in imagination my hand descending. But, oh, that relentless girl! She dragged me off into the drawing room, where I could not smoke, and entertained me for three mortal hours with the physiology of the brain, which, it appears, she was interested in at that particular stage of the game. I believe she was trying for a degree or something, but she needn't have practiced on me."

"I remember once at a dinner during the fish course that a certain clever young person discoursed about the respective organisms of anguloworms and lobsters in a way which in no way increased my appetite for the lobster on my plate, although I determined to admire her learning in future—at a distance."

"Ah, this American girl!" sighed the Frenchman. "She of ze stocking blue—how you call it—blue? I call on a young lady, and she talk to me English all ze time. Zat is good, for in zat way I learn. But she talk of vat? I ask you of vat? Of love of ze sentiments of ze heart, of poetry, of gracefulness nothings? No—sacre! She is possessed, zat one. She talk ze entire evening on ze wild and ze tame animals of North America. Mon Dieu, think of zat! She haf learn it in school, she repeat it to me, and zat-zat she call conversation!"

For over fifteen years I have suffered more or less from Impure Blood. About a year ago I had a boil appear on my leg below the knee, which was followed by three more on my neck. I saw S. S. S. advertised and decided to try it. After taking three bottles all Boils disappeared and I have not been troubled any since. GEO. G. FRATIG.

114 W. Jefferson St., Louisville, Ky.

Newark, Ohio, May 23, 1903.

From childhood I had been bothered with bad blood, skin eruptions and boils. I had boils ranging from five to twenty in number each season. The burning accompanying the eruption was terrible. S. S. S. seemed to be just the medicine needed in my case. It drove out all impurities and bad blood, giving me permanent relief from the skin eruption and boils. This has been ten years ago, and I have never had a return of the disease.
