

Snowflake

Solid Packed Tomatoes, 2 cans 25 cents.
Extra Sweet Corn per can, 15 cents.

A trial convinces and demonstrates the true value of these goods. Each product is packed directly into the cans when in prime condition, and when you purchase a can you can depend upon the contents being perfect. Sole Agents Chase & Sanborn's Coffees.

ROSS, HIGGINS & Co.

Local Brevities.

It's the water—Olympia Beer.

Owing to the inclement weather yesterday very few farmers were in the city.

The Standard Oil Company has completed the erection of the new oil tank at the foot of Fifth street.

Wise's May Sale
Draws the Crowds.
Cut Prices Does It!

Nick Clinton announces that he does not belong to the Astoria soda works and never takes soda in his.

A. W. Kinney of Astoria has been granted a dental certificate at the recent examinations in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Blount announce the engagement of their daughter Elith to A. C. Huse of Milwaukee, Wis.

Patronize home industry by buying Owl extracts, manufactured in Astoria. All first class grocers carry them.

The last steamer brought a shipment of Mission Brand Lemons. Experts claim they are the finest that ever came to this market.

You can get, at Frank Hart's anything in photographic supplies. We just received a full line of Eastman's Kodaks, etc.

The next grand lodge of the Odd Fellows will be held in Portland on June 8. The Rebekahs will convene at the same time.

The A. B. C. nine and the Commercial Club nine will cross bats today on the recreation grounds. A good game is anticipated.

R. M. Gaston carries a full line of farm implements, also wagons, buggies and farming tools of all kinds, 105 Fourteenth street.

Yesterday was a quiet day in the county clerk's office and aside from the recording of several conveyances, no other business was transacted.

Mrs. W. H. Gregg, sister of Mrs. C. A. Gearhart, her husband and son from Iowa are visiting Mrs. Gearhart and will spend the summer in Astoria.

The Owl flavoring extracts are considered the best and strongest by all who have used them. Ask for the Owl at your grocers and take no other.

Services at the First Lutheran today as usual. Sunday school at 9:30. Morning services in Swedish at 10:40. Evening services in English at 8. Preaching by the pastor.

F. L. Parker has the lumber on the street for replanking the east side of Fourteenth street between Commercial and Duane. The work will be commenced next week.

A large consignment of Oregon berries were received in Astoria yesterday and met with a ready sale at 15 cents a box. Cucumbers were received and sold at 10 cents each.

One lonesome looking man, who showed that he had been under the influence of liquor, appeared before Police Judge Anderson yesterday and a fine of $10 was imposed.

There is considerable unfavorable comment about the game of ball scheduled to take place on Memorial day. It is not considered an appropriate day for sports of this character.

Rev. G. M. Thorp will preach his farewell sermon at the Methodist church at Seaside today. He has accepted the pastorate of the Methodist church at Cosmopolis, Wash.

Lance Harris, who has been ill with an attack of pneumonia, died at noon yesterday in Upper Astoria. He was about 20 years of age and unmarried and has no relatives in this city.

Arrangements have been about completed for the smoker to be given by Astoria Labor Council at Logan's hall next Thursday evening. An appropriate program has been prepared.

Concomity Tribe of Red Men have had plans prepared for their new hall and expect to advertise for bids next week for building the new lodge hall. It will be a one-story building and cost about $2000.

There will be revival services this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Fishers' opera house for men only. A male choir, led by Mr. Dickson, will furnish music. It is to be hoped that there will be a large attendance.

Mrs. J. N. Jackson and daughter June of Olympia, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Munroe home last week, left for their home last night accompanied by Mrs. Jackson's niece, Miss Hazel Monroe, who will spend the summer months with her.

Reports from the fishermen, cannerymen and cold storage men yesterday was to the effect that increased catches were reported, the cold storage plants receiving the bulk of the fish caught, although several tons were received by the cannerymen.

Nekanakum lodge, Knights of Pythias of Seaside, will celebrate the third anniversary of the founding of the order in that town Monday evening. A large delegation from Astor lodge will go over. Dr. C. E. Linton has been invited to deliver an address.

Rev. Dr. Toy will preach at the Methodist church this morning at the usual hour. Mr. Dickson will sing and Miss Larsen will assist with violin to the large choir. In the evening union services of all the churches will be held to which the public is invited.

Joseph Schamberger and W. F. Schimpff returned yesterday from a duck hunting trip to Grays river. They brought home a large number of fine ducks, but claim they could have bought them cheaper in Astoria. Anyway, both will enjoy a fine duck dinner today.

A very pleasant evening was spent last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Larsen's wedding day, being the 15th anniversary. Many valuable presents were received from their many friends. A splendid program was rendered, after which refreshments were served.

A rare treat is in store for Astoria musical lovers next Friday evening at Fisher's opera house, when the grand concert given by Mrs. Walter Reed, the eminent contralto; Miss Kathleen Lawler, the well-known soprano; Mr. Dom Zan, the greatest baritone in Oregon, and our former Astorian, Wm. J. Belcher, the robust tenor, will take place. These well-known artists will be heard in solos, duets, trios and in quartets of high and artistic merit. Seat sale opens Thursday morning at Griffin's book store.

Beautify your complexion with little cost. If you wish a smooth, clear, cream-like complexion, rosy cheeks, laughing eyes, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, greatest beautifier—own. 35 cents. Frank Hart's drug store.

Wise's May Sale
Draws the Crowds.
Cut Prices Does It!

FAMILY REUNION.

One of Astoria's Prominent Families Will Greet Their Grandmother.

The Coles will have a family reunion in June. Mr. and Mrs. Atwater and family of Waterbury, Ct., are expected here early in June. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick, another daughter and son-in-law, will probably arrive from Palouse City, Wash., on or about June 8, while W. L. Cole, a son, who recently became manager of the Portland office of the Illinois Pacific Glass Co., has asked for a vacation in time to meet them and also attend the wedding of his sister, Miss Lucille, which takes place at Grace church on June 27.

Mrs. Lucy Cole, mother of W. E. Cole, is expected to arrive here about July 1, with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rose Cole, although it is hoped that her plans may be changed to permit her to be present at the wedding. The children and grandchildren are all anxious to meet their grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Cole, who is now in her 87th year. She resides at Tulare, Southern California.

Railroad Completed.

The new logging railroad running south from Seaside about three miles has been completed and the new road given a trial this week. Commencing Monday the company will commence hauling logs to the mill. Sufficient logs have been cut to keep the mill running for a month and active work will be continued in the logging camps. New and improved machinery has been installed in the mill and sash and door factory. The company shipped two carloads of doors to Chicago this week and has many orders ahead. The doors are the finest ever manufactured and meet with a ready sale in the eastern markets.

The name of the winner in the prize essay contest of Herman Wise's store will be announced Tuesday. Owing to the fact that the gentleman who has the matter in charge is a very busy man it has been impossible for him to examine all the papers in time to make the announcement earlier.

Expansion seems to be the order of the day. The firm of Geo. Lindstrom & Co., grocers and dealers in household utensils on Upper Franklin avenue, expect shortly to add a new department, which will make theirs one of the best equipped grocery stores in the northwest. Their business, as it is, has been growing steadily. The firm does business in all parts of the city and in adjoining towns. Their advertisements which appear in this paper regularly offer many advantages to housekeepers. See their ad today.

CHICAGO SUGAR TOAST

Is a Delicious Toast
Baked by Special Process

Only to be had at our store.
Good in health or sickness.
Good for Babies and Adults.
A pound, 15 cents.

Prime Swedish Potato Flour. Imported and packed especially for American trade.

Better than corn starch. 15 cents a package; 2 pkg for 25 cents.

That good Java and Costa Rica Coffee, we sell at 25c A POUND, is a winner. Try it.

We have three wagons and cater to your trade. A large, up-to-date store with a full line of good groceries. Telephone if you cannot come. We will call for your order. Telephone Main 781.

GEO. LINDSTROM & CO.,
Franklin Avenue, Upper Astoria.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

We received yesterday a Carload of

Crown Brand Boat Oars

Especially manufactured for Fisher Bros. Co.

For Building Material

Lime, Brick, Wire and Cement Coated Nails

CALL ON US.

We Guarantee Our Prices Against Portland and San Francisco, thereby saving our customers the freight.

We may have local opposition but no competition when you consider prices and quality of our goods.

Just received a cargo of Portland cement which we bought right and will sell right. A call will convince anyone.

Sole agents for Roche Harbor Lime.

FISHER BROS. CO.

Astoria, Oregon.

We are now showing a number of elegant pieces of

Mission Furniture

IN WEATHERED OAK.

Which we have recently received direct from the east.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY

CHAS. HEILBORN & SON

Complete House Furnishers.

Morse Department Store.

The Place Where Everybody Likes to Trade.

508-510 Commercial Street.

Mail orders solicited. New Idea Patterns 10c.

WE ARE

Plumbers & Steamfitters.

Note but First Class Workmen Employed.

W. C. LAWS & CO.,

527-531 1/2 B. C. Street.

A Few of the Good Things

ALWAYS KEPT ON HAND AT

The FOARD & STOKES CO.

Martin's Full Cream Cheese.

Imported Swiss and Fresh Tillamook cheese.

Norwegian Primost just received.

Large Spanish Queen Olives.

Nice White Bloater Mackerel.

A full line of Lunch Goods.

Ahlberg's Swede Pork.

Creamery Butter.

Delicious Wild Blackberries in quarts and half gallons.

Home made Pork Sausage, fresh lot just received.

Old Fashioned Fruit Cake, put up in pound packages.

Heinz Pickling Vinegar.

Boiled Hams—fresh every day.

Pure Apple Blossom Honey, from Kamm's farm at Olney.

The Foard & Stokes Co.

Astoria's Greatest Store.