ROSS, HIGGINS & Co.

An automobile accident occurred in Portland yesterday in which John B. Yoen, formerly of Clatsop county, was a participant. It is claimed that he was going at an unusual rate of speed and ran down a man named C. E. Obrist. The differences were amicably adjusted and no arrests were made.

Her old mission and her famous lemons have made Santa Barbara famous. Tourists from all over the world have gone to see her missions, and her lemons have gone all over the world to satisfy the tourist, as well as those living the "simple life." You can get her mission lemons from your grocer.

A number of the members of the local lodge of Odd Fellows left for Portland on last night's train to participate in Odd Fellows' day at the Lewis and Clark fair. There will be representatives from all parts of the state there, in addition to the members of the grand lodge which has been in session for the past two days.

City Surveyor Tee is working making a trial assessment for the improvement of Irving avenue from Eighteenth street to Fortieth street. If the property will stand the assessment for the improvement, the common council will order it improved. The report will be ready to file at the next regular meeting of the common council.

S. S. Gordon, who was seriously injured Wednesday night by being thrown from his horse, is resting easy at the hospital. Dr. McKenzie, the celebrated Portland surgeon, was sent for and arrived yesterday noon and held a consultation with Dr. Fulton. He stated that all was being done that could be for the present, and it is difficult at present to determine the result of the injury to his elbow.

Lawrence Ellison of the Cape Disappointment Life Saving Station, was in the city yesterday making arrangements to send Alfred E. Anderson to his home in Norway. Mr. Anderson suffered a paralytic stroke about three years ago from which he has never recovered and he is incapacitated from work and is desirous of returning to his home. Arrangements were made and he will leave for Norway tomorrow.

Ed. Lewellyn received a telephone message from Ilwaco last evening from Charley Seaborg, stating that the body found on Long Beach was that of Robert Broom. Mr. Seaborg went over yesterday afternoon to identify the body, but when he arrived it had been buried. The watch and other things in his pockets were shown to Seaborg and he identified all of them as belonging to Broom. The body will be dug up and brought to Astoria today and be buried in Greenwood.

There was a continuation of the increased run of salmon in the river yesterday, nearly all of the gillnet fishermen reporting increased catches. The muddy water, together with a slight freshet, probably produced from the Eastern Oregon cloudbursts, have brought the salmon in and a continuation of the present run is expected to last the remainder of the week. The canneries were running for a longer time yesterday and the cold storage plants received all the fish they could handle.

Coroner Pohl received word yesterday that the body of a young man had washed ashore upon the beach at Long Beach yesterday. The body was taken to Ilwaco to await identification. The description sent over is that he was a young man 5 feet 9 inches high, wore a light shirt, dark trousers, No. 8 lace shoes, and he had two pocket knives, a leather purse and a watch in his pockets. The description tallies with that of Robert Broom, who was drowned with Anna Seaborg on May 30th near the railroad draw bridge.

In Effect Monday.
 Manager Gervurtz returned yesterday from a business trip to Seattle where he completed arrangements for adding to the attractions of the Star theater. An entire change will be made in this popular play house commencing with next Monday's matinee. Instead of being four different acts, and a program of one hour, there will be eight acts and the program will require an hour and a half. The first performance will commence at 7:30 and the second at 9 o'clock. By this change, Mr. Gervurtz has been able to secure the best and highest-class vaudeville attractions that usually only go to the larger cities, but Astoria is growing and he intends to give it a metropolitan entertainment. The price of admission will be 10 cents, and a few seats in front will be reserved for which 20 cents will be charged. The admission to matinee will be 10 cents to all parts of the theater. The efforts of Mr. Gervurtz to

FIRST PIPE ORGAN

First Lutheran Church Crowded to Doors Last Night.

ORGAN RECITAL A SUCCESS

Professor Frederick W. Goodrich and Sunset Male Chorus Render Attractive Program—Audience Well Pleased Over Recital and Prospect of Others.

At the First Lutheran church in Upper Astoria there assembled last evening at 8 o'clock a large audience, consisting of members of the church and many outsiders. Among those present, prominent merchants and clergy from the churches were to be recognized. The occasion for this gathering was an unprecedented one in Astoria. The Dorcas Society of the church saw accomplished what it had been patiently working for ever since its re-organization a year ago. The object attained, it was no more than right that the public should be permitted to participate in the joy of the Dorcas Society, the congregation and its beloved pastor, Rev. Gustave E. Rydquist. The pipe-organ, for which they had all faithfully labored, had been erected in the church and last night's assemblage was present to judge of its tone and action. It is not surprising that the gathering was large for it was the first pipe organ which many of Astoria's residents were destined to hear last night.

The pastor briefly introduced the participants in the program shortly after eight. He was followed by Professor Frederick W. Goodrich, organist and choir director of St. David's church, Portland, and also conductor of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Festival. Mr. Goodrich said that having tried the organ earlier in the day he could, without hesitation, congratulate the congregation upon possessing an organ of beautiful tone and perfect action. The organist promised at the beginning an unusual feature, that of a conversational rendering of the program, in other words, explaining the numbers before he played each one. Thus the "March of the Magi Kings" and other important numbers were heard with due appreciation of their merits.

For the Barcarole, by Tchaikovsky, Mr. Goodrich substituted that of Hoffman, as he had erroneously brought the music for the latter. The audience was not disappointed, as Hoffman's Barcarolle was beautifully rendered.

L. Wely's Offertory in G. Major was the opening number of the evening and was of such scope as to permit the organist to show that he was master of his art.

The second number, spoken of before, was the March of Magi Kings which elicited much applause, bring forth an encore. An unusual feature of the evening was that all applause was given in the form of the chautauqua salute at the request of the pastor.

The Sunce Male Chorus deserves much credit for their excellent work. The mixed choir had also been augmented and carefully trained for the occasion. Just before the last number the Rev. C. J. Renhard, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran church of Portland, made a short address. At the conclusion of the program the pastor of the local church thanked the Dorcas Society for their splendid work which made this occasion a possibility, as well as an accomplished fact. He also expressed his and the congregation's appreciation of the kindness of the Sunset Male Chorus and Professor Goodrich who rendered such an excellent program.

Before closing we will call attention to another number which brought forth much applause. It was the third number, entitled "Jesus Shall Reign," which was sung by the chorus and choir, accompanied upon the organ by Professor Goodrich. The feature of the number was its music which was set to the tune of "America."

Washington's Advantage.

The newspapers of Washington have decided advantage over the Oregon newspapers in the pronunciation of the Russian names of admirals and war ships. Some of the names of rivers and towns in Washington appear as though they had been enjoying a Russian bath. Here are some of them: Puyallup, Duwamish, Snohomish, Snoqualmie, Skykomish, Stillaguamish, Skagit, Noosack, Nisqually, Ozette, Quillayute, Soleduck, Kechehelt, Hob, Quinault, Humpulup, Hoquiam, Whiskaw, Cowlitz, Chehalis, Wynoochee.
