OREGON BUILDING

Accepted by Governor Chamberlin on Behalf of State.

CEREMONIES ARE IMPRESSIVE

Eloquent Address by the Governor, President Goode and Jefferson Meyers Listened to by Thousands of People From Every Section of the State.

Portland, June 15.—Twelve buildings erected at the Lewis and Clark exposition under the supervision of the Oregon State Commission, were today formally turned over to the governor of the state amid most impressive ceremonies. The occasion was noteworthy and, in a measure, commemorative of the signing of the treaty with Great Britain, April 15, 1846, following the "50-40 or fight" controversy.

Promptly at 2 o'clock Governor Geo. E. Chamberlain, Exposition President Goode, Hon. Jefferson Myers, of the Oregon State Commission, and a number of prominent residents of Portland, assembled at the Oregon State Building to participate in the joint dedication. After an invocation delivered by a visiting clergyman, Governor Chamberlain in a few tersely worded sentences, accepted the structures for the State of Oregon. President Goode and Mr. Myers spoke briefly. The Administration band was present and rendered an appropriate program. Among the buildings constructed by the Stat Commission are the Palaces of Foreign exhibits, Oriental exhibits, Agricultural, Mines and Metallurgy, Machinery, Electricity and Transportation, Forestry, the Oregon State building, Festival Hall and the Administration group.

Portland, June 15.—Three thousand happy, rollicking residents of Corvallis and Independence and the cadets of the Oregon Agricultural college today made the occasion of their visit to the Fair a memorable event of the exposition period. From early morning until the gates closed at midnight the visitors made merry. At 10 o'clock this morning exercises were held in Festival hall. Exposition President Goode personally welcomed the people of Corvallis and Independence assuring them the largeness of their contingent was feelingly appreciated by the officials of the exposition. Upon the conclusion of the ceremonies the visitors sought the exposition palaces, the lake and last, but not least the Trail. A feature of the day was a huge parade which was carried probably the largest banner in the world. This great bunting was supported on poles carried by 200 cadets of the Oregon Agricultural College cadets and bore such slogans as "Every family in Benton has a telephone." Small in area, but large in importance. "Gold nuggets grow on hop vines in Benton." The cadets will camp at the exposition ten days.

NEW WHALING STATION.

Large Station Being Built on coast of Vancouver Island.

San Francisco, June 15.—Modern whaling is exemplified in a scheme in operation at Sechart, on the west coast of the Vancouver Island, where a whaling station costing $80,000 has just been established. One hundred men will be employed there in transforming the carcasses of whales into various profitable products, every part of the leviathan being utilized. The whales will be caught by the modern steam whaler Orion, recently arrived from Europe, which will cruise about off Sechart, where whales abound in numbers. Instead of using small boats in the chase the whales will be harpooned by modern devices from the deck of the Orion, and patent reels and special Winchesters will help to take care of the fish after he is conquered. A similar station may be established next season near Nanaimo.

Alexis Resigns.

St. Petersburg, June 15.—Grand duke Alexis, high admiral, who is an uncle to the emperor and Admiral Avellan, head of the Russian admiralty department, have resigned.

Today's Weather.

Portland, June 15.—Western Oregon and Washington, Friday, partly cloudy. Eastern Oregon and Washington, fair and slightly warmer.

DELINQUENT SALE

Property Sold in New York the First Time in Sixteen Years.

PROPERTY USUALLY LEASED

New York Tax Laws Provide Heavy Penalty and Interest Against Those Who Do not Pay Their Taxes and the City Derives Revenue By Way of Rents.

New York, June 15.—For the first time in 16 years a tax sale of delinquent properties has been held at the city hall. The proceeds were more than $300,000. Owing to the peculiar conditions surrounding such sales in this state some ludicrous incidents occurred. All the city does is to lease delinquent properties to bidders who will pay the back taxes. The bidder who offers to pay these taxes in return for the shortest lease is the winner. The original owner of the property can redeem it by paying the amount of the taxes paid by the bidder three and one half per cent and a penalty of 14 per cent a year to the bidder. After the expiration of two years, when the lease goes into effect, the property can be reclaimed only by paying an additional seven per cent to the bidder.

One parcel in Fulton street, near Broadway, was knocked down to Daniel Fiehnner. It being near the city hall the buyer strolled around to satisfy his curiosity and found part of the National Bank thereon. Instead of keeping his own counsel he hurried to the bank officials and informed them of the fact.

Scant attention was at first paid to Fiehnner's investigation by the bank's lawyers showed that he knew what he was talking about and his claim was bought up at a net profit of $61. Had he maintained his silence for two years until the lease became effective, Fiehnner's profits would have reached a respectable sum.

WITHDRAW SUPPORT

Several Large Chicago Unions Withdraw Aid From Teamsters.

INTERFERED WITH UNIONS

Chicago Teamsters' Union Performed Work out of Their Line and Which Rightfully Belonged to Other Unions Who Now Withdraw Support.

Chicago, June 15.—Thousands of circulars have been sent out to architects, builders, and labor union members generally, containing information that the Associated Building Trades of Chicago and Cook County have withdrawn their moral and financial support from the teamsters. The circulars, which are issued officially by the Building Trades charge that the members of the Safe and Machinery Movers and Riggers Union, which was organized about two years ago, and is made up of teamsters, has been performing work which rightfully belonged to the members of the various trades affiliated with the building trades. It is charged that the Safe and Machinery Movers and Riggers are working under the scale of wages adopted by their various unions and that the building trades can not, under the circumstances, recognize them as union men. The building workers number 40,000.
