

PORTLAND MARKETS

Latest Quotations in the Portland Produce Markets.

Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

Portland, June 19.—The wheat market is at present shut out to the Pacific Coast because funds are low and where ever it is possible, rice is being substituted for flour. Prospects for prices on the new crop are now being discussed among the dealers of the Northwest, but as yet, nothing other than conjecture has been arrived at. Hops continue downward. A scarcity of fruits results in high prices in that market. Strawberries are about gone, cherries are coming slowly, and no prospects of a decline is noticeable in prices on apricots. Eggs are active, but butter continues weak.
