SALMON FISHING IMPROVES.

Fish Smaller, But Good Run Is Reported, Including Steelheads.

There was a notable improvement in the run of salmon yesterday. The fish are much smaller, and include a large number of steelheads. Most of these fish were delivered to the canneries. Reports from up the river are to the effect that the seiners are making large hauls.

Few of the salmon can be used by the cold storage men and the result is all the canneries have started up on full time. While the pack this year is lighter than last, a continuation of the run will soon bring it up.

IS PRETTY WEDDING

Miss Lucille Cole and John Sanborn Married.

GRACE CHURCH A BOWER

Sweet Peas, La France Roses, Ferns and Evergreens Used in Decorative Scheme Nuptials the Most Attractive of Season. Many Friends Present.

Miss Lucille Cole and Frank Sanborn were married last evening at Grace church before hundreds of their friends. The Rev. Short performed the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white sweet peas, La France roses, ferns and evergreens. The altar was entirely in white, with the exception of a huge basket of La France roses, under which the bride party stood during the service. The center aisle, through which the bride passed, was gracefully arched with ivy and ferns.

Miss Cole made the prettiest of brides in an attractive creation of crepe de chine. She wore a tulle veil, held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas.

The maid of honor, Miss Bertha Hobson, was gowned in pink and carried pink carnations. The bridesmaids were in pink and white and carried white roses. They were the Misses Grace Stokes, Bess Reed, Gertrude Berry and Nell Peterson, of Portland. The ushers were Messrs. George Warren, Charles Gray, Jack Allen and Frederick Warren. Charles Halderman attended Mr. Sanborn as best man.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cole gave a small reception at their home, to which the relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom were asked. Here the decorations were in green and red. A delightful supper was served, and following the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Sanborn, the guests were shown the many beautiful and costly presents received by the young couple.

The entire family of the bride were present, two sisters with their husbands and children having come from the East to be present at the wedding. There were many handsome costumes in evidence. Mrs. Sanborn, the mother of the groom, was in lavender crepe de chine and lace. It is to be regretted that Mr. Sanborn could not be present at the marriage of his son. He has been confined to his home for the past week with a very severe illness.

Welch-Fleischauer, at Salem.

One of the prettiest June weddings took place at the home of A. Welch, corner of Cottage and Marion streets last evening, when Miss Clara Welch was united in marriage to Henry G. Fleischauer, Rev. Errett, pastor of the First Christian church performing the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The Welch home was beautifully decorated throughout. The hall was a mass of beautiful palms. The parlors were in white and green, roses and ferns being used in abundance. At 8 o'clock Miss Helen McCoy played Wagner's wedding march, "Lohengrin," and the bridal party entered the parlors and stood beneath a huge bell of cream roses where Rev. Errett performed the ring ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Jean McMurdo, of Baker City, and Guy Clark, of this city, acted as the groom's best man. Little Miss Gladys Welch, niece of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white crepe de chine over silk, and carried cream rose buds. The bridesmaid wore a pretty dress of soft white silk and carried pink carnations.

After the ceremony refreshments were served in the dining room, which was elaborately decorated, one being all in sweet peas, while the other was beautifully arranged with LaFrance roses. Four little girls dressed in white served. The punch room was presided over by Miss Etta Welch.—Capital Journal.
