Catch is Light.

The canneries report a slight falling in the run of salmon yesterday although a few of the boats brought in nearly a ton. The canneries are having no trouble in putting them up as fast as received. The seiners report good catches, averaging from one and a half to two tons for each seining ground. All the gasoline launches were busy delivering fish all day.

Rain Harms Hay.

Reports from the country districts are to the effect that the recent rains knocked the hay down, it being quite heavy. While no great damage was done, farmers anticipate considerable difficulty in cutting it.

TILLAMOOK ENJOINED FROM BUILDING WATER SYSTEM

Private Company Claims to have Thirty Year Franchise.

A suit has been filed in the United States district court against the town of Tillamook, enjoining it from proceeding with the construction of its proposed water system. The suit is brought by a private company which claims to have a thirty-year franchise from the town. The town contends that the company have not fulfilled the terms of the franchise and the water supply has been wholly inadequate.

FARMERS PLANTING LARGER ACREAGE OF PRODUCTS

Increased Demand From Astoria Merchants Will Be Met.

Farmers from Tucker creek and Lewis and Clark were in the city yesterday and state that they are planting larger acreage of farm products this year than usual. The increased demand by the Astoria merchants has made a good market. The completion of the county road around Smith's point will give them a good road to Astoria enabling them to haul in produce with profit. All the farmers in these sections are prosperous.

Par Value.

Mr. Davenport is all that is claimed for him. His lecture last night was a rare treat. Perhaps his greatest charm is the fact that the rural mannerisms, and rural colloquialisms of speech which he acquired in what he delights to call "the happiest part of his life," have never left him and that he still shows through the veneer given by experience and fame as the "Silverton farmer boy" grown up.—The Statesman, Walla Walla Wash.

Swan Discharged.

John Swan, the man arrested Thursday by Sheriff Linville for insanity, was given an examination yesterday. The board did not think he was sufficiently insane to commit him to the insane asylum and he was discharged.
