Portland, July 22.—Front street was unusually quiet today, a little more so than is usual on Saturday, although Saturday is invariably quiet. It was expected yesterday that things would take a lively aspect today, but nothing out of the ordinary materialized. Watermelons sold rapidly and brought good prices. The demand which was considerably greater than any recorded in the week past is traced to the vast number of people in the city as visitors to the exposition and the warm weather.

BUYING MOVEMENT STARTS.

Was long Delayed in Pig Iron Market Not Long as Yet. New York, July 22.—The long delayed movement in pig iron has come rather unexpectedly and while it has not developed in any large proportions, yet it has, says the Iron Age, greatly encouraged sellers. Some of the leading consuming interests and notably the cast iron pipe consolidation started the buying. This interest took about 20,000 tons of southern iron at various prices at and below $11 Birmingham. Other smelters followed and in the aggregate considerable tonnage was placed in all the principal distributing points.

In the East some round lots of basic pig were taken by steel works aggregating about 15,000 tons. Rolling mills placed orders in moderate individual amounts for a good deal of tonnage for the next quarter. In the Pittsburgh district the mills also bought a quantity of large grades. Orders from the general foundry trade have been in fair volume and have been well distributed and much of the business was done at low prices, $11 and under, Birmingham, but now $11.25 for early delivery, has become scarce. Leading makers ask $11.50 and upwards for delivery during the balance of the year. From Cleveland comes the report that a buying pool has been formed in that important foundry center among buyers of pig iron. Business in the heavy lines, steel rails, plates and shapes, continues very satisfactory. There is little prospect of any advance in official prices, but it seems likely that premiums on shapes may become more general. The largest contract placed during the week was that for 15,000 tons of Poughkeepsie bridge.

In the lighter lines there is a notable movement in the bar trade and a better feeling prevails in sheets. In these branches, as in the wire trade, the stock in the hands of distributors has been pretty well worked off. Leading tin plate interests have a large accumulation collected in anticipation of a possible strike. The export trade goes on in a very satisfactory manner.
