Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

Portland, July 31.—This promises to be an exceedingly busy week, as the demand for fruits and vegetables seems to grow with the increase of receipts, and stiff prices do not deter buyers from laying in heavy supplies. The warm weather and the large transient population of this city and interior are given as causes for the heavy demand. Every thing is fairly plentiful except lemons. Southern Oregon watermelons have appeared in the market, a car load having arrived from Grant's Pass this morning.

The melons are large and arrived in fine condition. Prices keep up to $1.25 a 100 pounds. California watermelons are quite plentiful yet and sell at $1. Oregon ranch eggs are weak as a result of heavy receipts of Eastern which sell rapidly at 1c to 1 1/2c below the local product.
