PRaises THE CITY

Missouri Editor Visibly Impressed by Venice of America

INTERESTED IN FISHERIES

E. E. McJimsey, Editor of St. Joseph Gazette and Vice-President of Missouri Commission to Lewis and Clark Exposition Visits Astoria.

E. E. McJimsey, editor of the St. Joseph (Mo.) Gazette and vice-president of the Missouri state commission to the Lewis and Clark exposition, was a visitor in Astoria yesterday. Like those who have preceded him, Mr. McJimsey was well, astounded not only by the size of the city, but by the extent of its industries and especially by the atmosphere of "go-aheadiveness" and bustle manifest everywhere. Aboard the city, its industries and the regatta, said Mr. McJimsey:

"This visit has certainly been an agreeable surprise. The city is large—much larger than I had supposed, and it possesses a solidity of appearance that speaks volumes in behalf of its standing commercially. I am at once interested in the fisheries and regret that I cannot devote more time to this trip. If it is possible I shall assuredly come here during the regatta."

At present, Mr. McJimsey's official duties are demanding the greater part of his time. Missouri day at the exposition will be September 14, and in addition to arranging for the general festivities and exercises, Mr. McJimsey is preparing to receive Governor Joseph Folk.

The Missouri State building at the exposition has proved the most popular of any and this is due entirely to the personal efforts of the commission's vice-president. It was only a month ago that an annex was constructed and a representative art exhibit installed. Since, a dining-room has been erected and in this visitors to the state building are served with products from Missouri farms gratuitously.

So soon as he meets a person Mr. McJimsey makes a good friend. There is one thing about him that is particularly pleasing—he may travel far and wide and visit many and strange climes—yet, he always recalls, with pride which characterizes every true Missourian, the fact that he is from a state renowned for its "show-me" skepticism.

LAYING OFF SMALL FARMS.

Several Large Property-owners Will Cut Up Their Lands into Small Tracts.

There is a movement on foot among several owners of large tracts of land in Clatsop county, adjacent to Astoria, to cut up their farms into five, ten and twenty-acre tracts, as may suit intending purchasers. One large farm at Knappa has already been surveyed and will be cut up. This section of the county is peculiarly adapted to raising small fruits and vegetables. J. Q. A. Rowley and C. S. Brown, who own considerable dyked tide lands on the Lewis and Clark, are contemplating cutting up these lands into small tracts. There has been considerable demand during the past year, especially by fishermen, who fish in the summer and desire to farm in the winter and spring, for a small tract of land. There has been a number of Eastern people in Astoria the past month, looking for small farms. As long as this land is not adapted to raising wheat, they realize there is a good profit in raising small farm products, and with the Astoria market as a base of supplies, any person with energy can make a good living off a small tract of land. This action will result in the bringing of a large number of people to Astoria, and when the adjacent lands are peopled by small farmers the prosperity and growth of Astoria is assured.

HENRY FISHER INJURED.

H. F. Fisher, a brother of A. C. and F. A. Fisher of this city, was brought to Astoria yesterday suffering from injuries inflicted by a mad bull. He was driving the animal, when it suddenly turned and attacked him, knocking him down and tramping on him. Dr. Finch was called in and reports that Mr. Fisher sustained several bruises on the body, but nothing serious, and he will be able to return to his home, at Svenson, in a few days.

When you feel a sense of weight and oppression after meals, it means indigestion. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea positively cures indigestion, constipation and stomach troubles. 35 cents. Tea or Tablets at Frank Hart's drug store.

SMITH'S "FRENCH ROLL"

W. H. Smith is in the city with some Parisian ideas, as to gentleman's hair dressing. It is rumored that he carries a side line of crockery. Mr. Smith will call upon his clientele today and display a style of hair dressing called the "French roll."

PILOT COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED.

Yesterday, Governor Meade of Washington appointed L. D. Williams as state pilot commissioner to succeed Mr. Charles Payne of Chinook, whose term expired. He also appointed Charles E. Kerlee of Ilwaco to succeed himself.

BIDS TO BE OPENED.

The committee on streets and public ways of the Common council will open bids tomorrow for the improvement of the following streets:

Commercial, between Twentieth and Twenty-third; Fourteenth, between Grand and Jerome; Duane, between Tenth and Twelfth; and Columbia avenue in Uniontown. The bids will be submitted to the special meeting of the Common council to be held tomorrow night. The ordinances for the improvement provide that the streets shall be completed on or before October 1.

ELKS' DAY AT PORTLAND.

The committee in charge of the Elks' excursion to Portland next Wednesday are meeting with good success. A large number of tickets have been sold and the indications are that Astoria will be well represented at the exposition. One feature of the parade will be the carrying of a banner by the local lodge advertising the Astoria regatta. There is no doubt but the Elks will advertise the coming carnival better than in any other manner and everybody in Portland will know that the Astoria Elks have been in town.

DR. RAY PALMER HERE.

Young Evangelical Worker Pays Astoria a Brief Visit.

Dr. Ray Palmer, the well-known evangelist who conducted a series of successful meetings in Astoria last spring, is in the city for a brief visit, returning to his home in Portland after a short vacation at Oysterville. Dr. Palmer has been very successful in his evangelical work on the Coast. So much so, indeed, that he has been invited to join the eminent evangelist, Dr. Chapman, on a tour of the Central join Dr. Chapman's party during October, when the tour will begin at St. Paul and Minneapolis, and will continue on east to cities in New Jersey.

Dr. Palmer expects to be away from the Coast for a year, when he will return to his home and headquarters at Portland.

TURNER-ROELOFSZ.

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized yesterday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Turner, when their daughter, Florence L. Turner, was married to Ralph H. E. Roelofs. Rev. L. J. Trumbull performed the ceremony. The cozy parlors were tastefully decorated with sweet peas and La France roses and the bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. Miss Elizabeth Busey was bridesmaid, and the groom was attended by William Lindau. The bride was attractive in champagne silk and point lace. She carried carnations. The bridesmaid was gowned in green and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. Only members of the family and intimate friends were present. After a daintily served luncheon the happy couple left, amid a shower of rice and best wishes, on the evening train. Miss Clara Barker caught the bouquet as the train moved away.

WILSON BROTHERS LOW.

Get Contract for A. S. Reed's Building on Eleventh Street.
 Architect Emil Schacht of Portland yesterday opened bids for constructing the three-story new building to be erected by A. S. Reed at the corner of Duane and Eleventh streets. The contract was awarded to Wilson Bros., the lowest bidders. The bids were as follows:
 Ferguson & Houston, $13,398; Arthur & Hendrickson, $12,549; Wilson Bros., $12,089; E. Gustafson, $13,475; C. G. Palmberg, $13,000; H. Rease, $13,250; William Miller, $13,210. The bids were also opened for the heating and plumbing and were very close. The contracts will be awarded today.

A number of Portland contractors were in the city and bid on the work. The building completed will cost about $25,000, and will be one of the finest buildings in the city, with all modern improvements. There will be two store-rooms facing on Duane street, and two floors fitted up for offices or rooming purposes. The building is to be completed by November 1.

POLL TAX RECEIPTS.

Road Supervisor D. R. Blount yesterday filed his report in the office of the county clerk, showing that he had collected 385 poll taxes, amounting to $1,955. This is only about one third of the poll taxes due the county, and next week Mr. Blount will bring suit against all delinquents. There are over 1,000 voters in Astoria, two thirds of whom are liable to poll tax. The money is used by the county in improving county roads within the city limits.

CYCLONE EDITORS.

Over 100 editors from Kansas and Missouri passed through the city yesterday, bound for Seaside, where they remained during the day, returning to Astoria last evening, when they took the train for Portland. They were in charge of Mrs. Edith Tozier Weatherford, and the Oregon Editorial association. Yesterday afternoon the delegation visited the Tallant-Grant Packing company and other prominent places in the city. They all expressed themselves as very much pleased with their trip and were surprised to find so large a city as Astoria, of which they had heard very little about.

PAIGE HAS NEW SONG.

W. S. Paige, the sweet-voiced tenor, who has delighted Astoria audiences on more than one occasion, is here to sing his new illustrated song, "Santa Vivia." Incidentally he will talk about his "flow-down" oysters.
