A dispatch was received from Augd Danielson yesterday from Chicago, stating that he would arrive home next Wednesday.

EVENING MEETINGS.

There will be a meeting of the Fraternal Order of Eagles this afternoon at which time the question of changing the time for holding the regular meetings will be discussed. Heretofore the lodge has met in the afternoons, and an effort will be made at the meeting today to change the time from the afternoon to the evening.

SLACKING OFF.

There was a decrease in the run of salmon yesterday, showing that the run that came into the river Monday was only temporary. The up-river seiners report no increase in their catches and the gillnet fishermen brought in small catches yesterday. Reports from the lower seining grounds are to the effect that only light catches were secured yesterday, but that there are a large number of salmon on the outside of the bar.

SERVICES RECOGNIZED.

There is probably no one in Astoria who knows better how to take care of dogs than Edward Lewelyn, driver of No. 1 engine company. Some time ago Frank Patton left his dogs in the care of Mr. Lewelyn, who took an interest in the canines and took care of them. Yesterday, Mr. Patton visited the engine house, having with him a fine new gun, and asked Mr. Lewelyn's opinion of the same. He replied that it was as fine a gun as was ever made, and was surprised when Mr. Patton made him a present of it for services rendered. Mr. Lewelyn is justly proud of his new gun and appreciates the motives that actuated the donor.

BALL GAMES TODAY

West Astoria and Fort Stevens to Play at A. F. C.

LIVELY PLAYING PROMISED

Teams Will Meet for Double-Header at 1:30 O'clock This Afternoon—Morton and Crowe the West Astoria Battery Cathlamet Team Will Play Seaside.

STANDING OF TEAMS.

Team—	Games Plyd.	Won.	Pct.
Fort Stevens	8	6	.750
Seaside	9	5	.555
West Astoria	8	4	.500
Cathlamet	9	2	.222

A double-header will be played this afternoon at the A. F. C. grounds between the Fort Stevens and West Astoria aggregations. The first game will be called at 1:30 sharp. Hoover will pitch for Fort Stevens and Morton and Crowe for West Astoria.

Both teams have been strengthened and are in good form. They have recently won from Seaside and are determined to increase their percentage. There is some conjecture as to which team will be the winner. Casey, who has proved a valuable member of the West Astoria team, will not play, and while the team will doubtless make a good showing it is thought the loss of Casey will be keenly felt. Cathlamet will play at Seaside.

CHANGE IN MANAGEMENT.

L. J. Simpson Leaves North Bend for San Francisco.

L. J. Simpson, manager of the Simpson Lumber company at North Bend, has been transferred to the San Francisco office and a Mr. Griswold, formerly of Portland, has been appointed manager of the Simpson interests at North Bend. Mr. Simpson will assume the duties now looked after by his father, Captain A. M. Simpson, who will retire from the active management of the Simpson Lumber company after a successful business career of many years. Their interests in this part of the Northwest are the mills at North Bend, on Coos bay; Columbia mills, at Knappton, Wash., across the river from Astoria, and the mill at South Bend, Wash.

NARROW ESCAPE.

James McClarney, who is employed at one of the up-river seining grounds, had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday morning. He was attempting to board the launch when his foot slipped and he fell into the river. Being a good swimmer he succeeded in grasping the rudder of the launch Pilot and cried for help. William Miller and one or two others who were in the vicinity went to his assistance and succeeded in getting him on the wharf. He sustained an injury to the knee and was taken to the hospital. He will probably be out again in a few days as his injuries are not serious.

VISITED SVENSEN.

Pursuant to an order of the County court Judge Trenchard went to Svensen yesterday to examine the crossing of the county road and the railroad. He found repairs were necessary and will make his recommendations to the next meeting of the court.

SHIPPING NEWS

Steamer Newport sailed yesterday for Coquille river and Coast ports.

Steamer F. S. Hilburn arrived yesterday from San Francisco via Eureka and Coos bay with a full list of passengers and cargo of freight. Eight of her passengers carried too long up town and were left here and went up to Portland on last night's train.

Steamship Columbia arrived in yesterday from San Francisco with a full cargo of freight and all the passengers she was allowed to carry.

Steamer Nahcotta made a special trip last evening to Ilwaco to accommodate the crowd of people bound for the north beach and which the Potter was unable to take as she had her full passenger list when she arrived from Portland.

The oil barge Monterey arrived in yesterday with a cargo of oil for the standard oil tanks.

Shipping men are now hopeful that the Norwegian steamer Tricolor, stranded on the Mendocino coast, can be successfully floated. That such is their view is indicated by advertisements sent out from San Francisco stating that bids will be received for the purpose of making the attempt.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss A. S. Soule of Portland is visiting at the Cole, on her way to Seaside. Mrs. Herman Wise, her daughter and son, Miss Louise and Master Sammy, returned to the city Friday after a week's pleasant visit at the farm home of Hon. Isaac Bergman at Grays river.

C. C. Utzinger, Mrs. Utzinger and their son Willie returned Thursday from Beaver Lodge farm, Grays river, where they spent a most delightful week. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bergman of this city, the owners of Beaver Lodge farm, are the most hospitable of entertainers and their guests never fail to enjoy themselves.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

At a late hour last night a terrific tornado struck Astoria. "Bill" Mattison was the only victim. He suffered the loss of the filaments which in the past have enhanced the attractiveness of his upper lip. His "side-kicker" Captain Bailey has cut his acquaintance, saying he does not care to travel with freaks.
