SEASON ENDS TODAY

Salmon Fishing to Be Prohibited After Twelve O'clock.

LAW WILL BE ENFORCED

Salmon Fishing Season Will Close at Noon Today—Pack Will Be About Same as Last Year—Run Has Been Steady.

With the end of the fishing season at noon today everything points to a pack about the same as that of last year. Throughout, the season has been characterized by a steady run of fish and has practically been free from the sensational runs experienced in past years. At times this year spurts were discovered which bid fair to tax the canneries to their utmost, but they were short-lived and at no time were the canneries blocked.

There has been a decrease in the canned product and an increase in the cold-storage output, which about even up the aggregate. From day to day, reports from the gillnetters and the seiners have not been very gratifying, some of them becoming discouraged by the small runs and quitting before the close of the season was near at hand.

Promptly at noon today the deputy fish warden of this state and the deputy fish commissioner of Washington will commence the patrol of the river to enforce the closed season law. No fishing with any kind of gear will be permitted after 12 o'clock and following tonight all ranning will be prohibited.

ARE GREATLY SURPRISED.

Only Ray of Sunshine Flashes Over Committee.

A. Dunbar, treasurer of the regatta committee, while in Portland the other day was eating dinner at The Tavern when he was approached by Mr. Gus Kratz, who, after the usual salutations, asked him how things were coming. Dunbar said that since he had been exalted in the high degree of treasurer of the regatta committee he was up against more real trouble than he had butted up against since he served on the manufacturers committee of the Push club.

"Well," said Kratz, "I am going to throw one ray of sunshine over your troubled pathway," and he presented Mr. Dunbar with a check for the committee for $25, saying he was sorry he could not make it larger. As this donation came unsolicited the committee feels very grateful to Mr. Kratz.

DONATES TWINE.

Linen Thread Co. and Fisher Bros. Swell Regatta Fund.

The regatta committee are in receipt of the following letter:
 Astoria, Ore., Aug. 24, 1905.
 Mr. Albert Dunbar, Treasurer Regatta Committee.

Dear Sir—We are pleased to enclose herewith an order on our twine department for four papers No. 30 Finlayson or Dunbarton's salmon twine, three papers of which are donated by the Linen Thread company, and we would request that this be competed for as first prize, and the balance, one paper, donated by ourselves, to be contested for as second prize. Very truly yours,
 FFISHER BROS.' CO.
 By F. J. Carney, Manager.

On receipt of this letter the committee decided to comply with their request, and have made a special fishboat race, three papers of twine for first prize and one paper for second prize. The twine donated is valued at $100, and the committee greatly appreciate the efforts of Mr. Carney, who secured them this valuable donation.

ACCEPTS STREET WORK.

After examining the improvements on Twenty-sixth street the officials of the street department will accept them at the meeting of the council, to be held next Saturday.

A Touching Story

Is the saving from death of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyer, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious throat trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief. After taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At Chas. Rogers' drug store. 50c and $1 guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

CHARLES BENSON TURNS UP ALIVE AND UNHURT.

Man Who Fell from A. & C. R. R. Train Found All Unscathed.

Charles Benson, the fisherman who fell from the A. & C. R. train Monday night and was given up for dead, has been found alive and unhurt and is now in Portland, nursing a few scratches, the sole marks of his remarkable experience. His escape from death was miraculous. In spite of the fact that the train was running at a high rate of speed and Benson must have been pitched down a steep embankment he is none the worse for the mishap. On hearing of the accident Superintendent McGuire ordered section hands to search for the body of the supposed dead man and he was found alive. Benson was taken to Portland and after a medical examination, which showed no bones were broken, he was allowed to go and walked unassisted to the sailors' home. His good luck appears to be due to a large quantity of liquor which he had been imbibing.

MANY EQUINES HERE.

A bunch of about 50 horses was run into the city last night from the seining grounds, where they have been at work during the fishing season. The local livery stables were only able to accommodate a few of them, the remainder being staked out for the night.

ROANOKE AGROUND

Steamer Hung Up For 45 Minutes on Taylor Sands.

ASSISTED BY STR. NORTHLAND

Frisco Liner Goes Aground While Proceeding Up River—Tender Heather Leaves for Alaska Saturday or Monday—Notes of Waterfront.

While proceeding up the river yesterday the steamer Roanoke went aground on the Taylor sands and remained hung up from 1:15 p. m. until 2 p. m. She struck head-on and in maneuvering to get her free of the sands it was necessary to turn her until her stern pointed up river. The steamer Northland assisted the Roanoke in reaching deep water. The Roanoke arrived in yesterday from San Francisco with 186 cabin passengers and a large cargo of freight.

Will Go to Alaska.

Upon the completion of the loading of a cargo of supplies the lighthouse tender Heather will leave for Alaska either Saturday night or Monday morning. Yesterday the Heather went to Tillamook rock with a load of supplies, returning to the harbor early in the afternoon.

Gentlemen:—
 In answer to your letter can only say that I tried the jar and was exceedingly pleased with them. I canned peas, beans, tomatoes, carrots, besides a number of fruits and not one jar spoiled. The whole tomatoes I used for my thanksgiving dinner as a salad, and they were solid and plumb as possible. Very truly yours,
