"SPENCER" HIS BET

Capt. E. W. Spencer Will Wage his Fast Boat,

WANTS TO RACE TELEGRAPH

Seems Determined to Repudiate Statement of Captain Scott That His Sternwheeler Can "Beat Chas. R. Spencer Twice, and Again."

Portland, Aug. 28.—(Special).—Captain E. W. Spencer today addressed a letter to the Telegram, in which he offers to place a bill of sale for his fast Columbia river boat, the Charles R. Spencer, in any bank, as a wager that he can beat Captain U. B. Scott's steamer, the Telegraph, in a race to Astoria and return from the steel bridge here, the winner to take either boat. This is Mr. Spencer's reply to Captain Scott's statement that he owned the fastest sternwheeler in the world and could "beat the Spencer twice, and beat her again."

Captain Scott was interviewed, but does not seem inclined to accept the challenge, feeling apparently, that the Spencer would rattle to pieces in an attempt to keep up with the Telegraph and then would not be acceptable as a gift. The crews of both boats are much concerned over the possibility of a race and will wager everything they possess on the outcome.

Heather Leaves Out.

Lighthouse tender Heather, Captain Gregory, left out yesterday at 4 P. M., for Southeastern Alaska, via Puget Sound. The tender carries supplies for the various stations in Southeastern Alaska and took two keepers for Lincoln rock. She will coal at Seattle and then proceed north.

Much regret over the precipitous departure which denied them the opportunity of participating in the regatta, was expressed by members of the crew, and tears streamed down more than one weatherbeaten cheek as the Heather left the Flavel wharf. The departure of this boat is keenly felt here because the appearance of such a smart looking craft would have added greatly to the attractiveness of the marine parade.

Steamer Cascade is due this morning from the Bay city. She will load lumber at Westport for a return voyage.

Steamer Redondo is due today from San Francisco. The Redondo will load lumber and grain at Portland for a return voyage.

ATTENTION REDMEN.

All members of Concomly tribe, I. O. R. M., and visiting members are requested to assemble at Fisher's opera house this (Tuesday) morning at 9 o'clock to prepare for the reception to Lewis and Clark, and also to meet at the same place at 1 o'clock sharp to prepare for the parade. T. DEALEY, Sachem.

WILL ARRIVE TODAY.

Brown's band of 25 pieces, which has been engaged for the regatta, will arrive today on the noon train. The bandsmen will be quartered in various places about the city.

500 boys wanted. Apply at S. Danziger & Co.'s store at 1 P. M. today.

Enjoy Columbia River Scenes

On the decks of the fast steamer Telegraph, leaving Callender dock, Astoria, for Portland, daily, except Friday, at 2 P. M. Sundays, at 2:30 P. M. You reach Portland in ample time for a stroll or for an evening's visit at your friend's home.

If you want the family to be healthy, strong and active, give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea this month. Makes rich, red blood, bone and muscle. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.

THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL.

Mrs. Mary E. Griffiths, sister of Mr. John Fox, and three daughters, are at the Cole.

"CAPTAIN RACKET."

"Captain Racket" is the name of the funny comedy which will mark the opening of the McCowell Pyle Co., at Fisher's opera house for four nights, commencing Wednesday, August 30. This excellent organization carries their own scenery for their productions, and give to the long waiting public what they seek, a recreation in the way of a play. After the strain of business has tired you and you feel as if nothing could rest you, try a night at one of the McCowell Pyle Co.'s performances. You forget your tired and your fatigued and low spirit seems to have been invigorated and you return to your home feeling as if you had enjoyed a summer outing. That is the object they have strived to reach in the productions. You forget your worry, your feeling, and live through the play as if it was a reality. Then you wonder why you have never experienced such contentedness before while watching a play. Try it once, and see if it will not entertain you. Prices: Reserved seats, 25 cents; gallery, 10 cents. Seat sale opens this morning at Griffin's bookstore.

CONCOMLY TRIBE INCORPORATES.

Local Lodge of Redmen Files Articles of Incorporation.

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday with the county clerk by Olof Anderson, Andrew Birch and William C. A. Phil, trustees of Concomly tribe, No. 7, I. O. R. M. The objects of the new corporation are the mutual relief of members and the administration of the privileges, honors and benefits of Redmanship, according to the rules, customs and usages of the Improved Order of Redmen, and the purchase, sale and hypothecation of real estate. The estimated value of the property of the lodge at the present time is $3,000.

REGATTA BALL TONIGHT.

The regatta ball will take place in Astor hall tonight. The auditorium has been attractively decorated by the members of the Regatta Clerks' union, who volunteered to assume the management of the function. It is expected that the ball will be well attended by representative people.

COLUMBINE THE FLAGSHIP.

Lighthouse tender Columbine has been designated flagship for the use of the grand marshal of the marine parade, Dr. Baylis H. Earle. His assistants, Messrs. Rabbidge and Goodell aboard the steamer Electro will manage the mobilization of the fleet. The parade will start from the Union Fishermen's Co-operative cannery promptly at 8 o'clock tonight.

Public Is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary L. Walters, of 546 St. Clair ave., Columbia, O., writes: "For several months, I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at Chas. Rogers' drug store. Price 50c.

25 YEARS OF AGONY ENDED

Boston Business Man Cured By Cuticura of Awful Humor Covering Head, Neck, and Shoulders After Hospital and Doctors Failed.

Under date of September 9, 1904, Mr. S. P. Keyes, a well-known business man of No. 149 Congress Street, Boston, Mass., says: "Cuticura did wonders for me. For twenty-five years I suffered agony from a terrible humor, completely covering my head, neck and shoulders, discharging matter of such offensiveness to sight and smell, that to my friends, and even to my wife, I became an object of dread. At large expense I consulted the most able doctors far and near. Their treatment was of no avail, nor was that of the hospital, during six months' efforts. I suffered on and concluded there was no help for me this side of the grave. Then I heard of some one who had been cured by Cuticura, and thought that a trial would do no harm. In a surprisingly short time I was completely cured."

CUTICURA—THE SET, $1.

Complete Treatment for Every Humour from Pimples to Scrofula

Bathe the affected parts with hot water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle; dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe the skin; and, lastly, take Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cleanse the blood. A single set is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring skin, scalp, and blood humors, with loss of hair, when all else fails.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Cuticura Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Proprietors, Boston. Send for "How to Cure Every Humour."
