Mohicans" Tonight on the River.

To Concomly Tribe, No. 7, I. O. R. M., is due a great deal of credit for the thoroughness with which the eleventh annual regatta has been conceived. From the time the regatta was first planned Concomly tribe members, collectively, and as individuals, have been active.
From among the women of its auxiliary, Concomly tribe selected the vivacious young matron who is to rule offer many historical and allegorical fea-

WILL SOON MOVE.

The Library association plans to commence moving books to the new quarters in the city hall about the first of the month. As yet the steel bookracks have not arrived, but some of the books will be moved at any rate.

IMPROVISED FORECASTLE.

A number of bunks have been installed in the rear of the regatta headquarters on Commercial street for the use of the visiting members of the Oregon Yacht club. While the forecastle is at the main stick, the amateur tars will doubtless find their quarters comfortable.

WANTS BIG DAMAGES.

A damage suit for $20,000 was filed in the circuit yesterday by George Macaulley against the Seaside Spruce Lumber company.

The complaint alleges that the plaintiff, while working as an engineer on a stationary engine operated by the company, received damages through the breaking of a "butt chain" that has permanently disabled him.

He claims the company failed to provide safeguards to prevent just such an accident.

WILL WARN PEOPLE AGAINST EXPECTORATION.

Signs Purchased by Woman's Club Arrive at Chief of Police's Office.

A box of metal signs warning people against expectorating on the sidewalks, purchased by the Civic Improvement department of the Woman's club, arrived yesterday at Chief of Police Hallock's office. The signs are quite attractive in appearance, being of blue and aluminum enamel on galvanized iron. They were made at an Eastern manufactory and are rather expensive. It is the intention of the ladies of the club to have them placed at advantageous points about the city and it is hoped they will prove more substantial than the cloth signs which have been in use.

ZEPHYR TARS THROW CHAPLAIN OVERBOARD.

Self-appointed Spiritual Advisor of Yacht Crew Receives Ducking.

While the yacht Zephyr was sailing down the Columbia Sunday morning, the jolly amateur tars suddenly grasped W.
S. Beattie, chaplain of the crew and self-appointed, and threw him into the river, clothes and all. After becoming thoroughly soured, the boys hauled the unfortunate and erstwhile ecclesiast aboard by means of a boathook applied to the rear end of his trousers. Chaplain Beattie states that the river was just cool enough for bathing. The Zephyr arrived down yesterday morning, after a 48-hour trip from the Exposition city, in charge of Captain Todd, its proprietor. The boys report a pleasant voyage and say that the other craft are toggling along and will probably reach here this morning. The Zephyr will remain here through the regatta. Those aboard are: H. F. Todd, captain; Harry Dary, first officer and cook; Ernest Holmberg, boatswain, and W. S. Beattie, chaplain.

Fiendish Suffering.

if often caused by sores, ulcers and cancers, that eat away your skin. Wm. Beldell, of Flat Rock, Mich., says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, for ulcers, sores and cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." Soothes and heals cuts burns and scalds. 25 c at Charles Rogers' drug store.

BOYS' BRIGADE.

The Boys' brigade will meet promptly at 12:30 p. m. at the First Congregational church, dressed in full uniform, to take part in the parade. All of the boys are urged to be present to transact some business before the parade takes place.

ASTORIA FIRM SECURES CONTRACT.

The contract of erecting a cold-storage plant at Altoona, Wash., for F. Kievenhusen & Co., of Berlin, was yesterday awarded to Ferguson & Huston of this city.

The plant will be 75 by 231 feet and two stories in height, and when completed will cost about $30,000.

SPECIAL OFFICERS APPOINTED.

C. C. Utzinger, E. D. Brooks and Emsley Houghton yesterday were sworn in as special police officers by Auditor and Police Judge Olof Anderson. These men will report for duty during the regatta period and will be in the employ of the Regatta company.

POLICE COURT DOINGS.

Only One Case at Police Court—Man Will See Next Year's Regatta.

Victor Anderson, charged with being drunk, appeared before Police Judge Anderson yesterday and was given five days.

"We'll lock you up until after the regatta, Anderson," said his honor. "You will be released in time, however, to see next year's regatta and I hope you will enjoy it."

Edward Wilstadt, Nicholas Juola, Oley Anderson and M. Hill did not appear, thereby forfeiting their bail.

Your family will need a tonic. Why not give them Hollister's Rocky Moun-

Mrs. R. S. Foster Uses the Economy Jar With Success.
Salem, Ore., Jan. 31, 1904.
KERR GLASS MANUFACTURING COMPANY, Portland, Ore.

Dear Sirs—
I used six dozen of your fruit jars last season and am very much pleased with them. The Economy Jar is the nicest looking jar I have ever used.
I canned all kinds of fruit, vegetables, meat, fish, pickles and chicken, and had fine success with the Economy Jar.
I was awarded all the first prizes, consisting of eight blue ribbons, at the Oregon State Fair, 1903, for my exhibit of canned fruit and jelly.
The Oregon Commissioners bought all of my fruit to represent Oregon at the St. Louis Fair. I have been requested to put up fruit for the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, 1905, and I will use your Economy Jars. They are a sure seal, easy to open, and I prefer them to any jar I have ever used.
Yours Very Truly,
MRS. R. S. FOSTER.

Is it not worth while to know that YOUR preserved fruits and vegetables are free from poisonous compounds? You know this if you use the
