

FALLS FROM TRAPEZE

Twelve Hundred Feet to a Horrible Death.

RESULT OF FOOL HARDINESS

Grasps Hold of Parachute Bar as Aeronaut is Ready to Make an Ascension at Red House Park, Ill.—Becomes Exhausted and is Jerked from Bar.

St. Louis, Aug. 28.—Releasing his grasp on a trapeze attached to a parachute as the latter opened to the wind 1,200 feet above the ground, John Williams, 38 years old, has been dashed to his death at Red House park, near Cahokia, Ill. Every bone in his body was broken, as Williams struck the ground with a fearful force.

The tragedy is said to have been the result of the victim's determination to make a balloon ascension. As the aeronaut prepared to make the ascension, Williams is said to have rushed forward and seized the trapeze bar, calling to his friends, "Good-bye." As he clasped the bar the balloon rose into space, carrying both the aeronaut and Williams. As the parachute commenced to fill in the wind and the rapid descent of the canvas was suddenly checked Williams, whose strength was exhausted, was jarred loose from the bar and his body shot downward. The aeronaut was uninjured and alighted a few yards away from the scene where Williams met his death.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Astoria Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty. When they fail to do this, the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow:

Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.

J. Blake, whose place of residence is 325 Market street, Portland, says: "I bought several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and I scarcely think if the first had not proved satisfactory that I would have tried the second and third. I have used almost everything said to be a cure for weakened kidneys and bladder, but nothing ever gave me the satisfaction I received from Doan's Kidney Pills. They are easy to take, have no effect upon the stomach or bowels and act directly on the kidneys. I thoroughly believe from the results I received and also from observation that Doan's Kidney Pills are one preparation on the market which acts directly as represented."

SQUANDERS FORTUNE.

Man Who Helped Rob Jewelry Store Was Once Wealthy.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—William Ely, held by the police for the Johannson jewelry store holdup, has squandered $20,000 within three years, according to the confession he made last night to Inspector Shippy. This money, he said, was left him at the death of his father.

Most of his fortune went in betting on horse races, Ely said. He further hinted that, being unable to obtain employment he had been forced to become a holdup man. Two other men are suspected of being the accomplices of Ely have been arrested.

NO STRIKE, SAYS BAER.

Thinks Peaceful Agreement Will Be Reached With Miners.

Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—President Baer of the Reading Railroad company, who returned Saturday from a trip to the West, does not expect a strike in the anthracite region.

"While I have not been in close touch with events in the last few weeks," he said, "from what I have heard I believe the miners are better satisfied with present conditions and will make a peaceful adjustment of the wage scale for another term of years. The coal interests will certainly do their part to avert a strike."

California Bishop Goes to Pay Respects to Pope.

Los Angeles, Aug. 28.—The Right Rev. Thomas Conaty, bishop of the Catholic diocese of Los Angeles and Monterey, left for New York. From there he will sail for Rome, to pay his respects to the pope following the custom of all the bishops to make that journey once every year.
