A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newley's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

TO BREAK STRIKE

Chicago Typothetae to Organize Strike Breakers' Union.

MANY ARE EAGER TO JOIN

Persuade Special Deputies and Policemen to Form Union at High Wages to Take Place of Union Strikers in the Large Printing Establishments.

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Believing that services will soon be in demand owing to the printer's strike the special deputy sheriffs and policemen held a secret meeting yesterday and organized a strike breakers union. A scale of wages of not less than $5 a day and $6 if it can be secured, was fixed.

Charles E. Turk, a discharged policeman was elected president, then each of the 110 charter members paid 25 cents for expenses.

Turk produced a book and said that every one present must sign it, the idea being that the first man that signed was to get the first position. A large number fell over each other in their haste to reach the book.

MAKES GREAT WINNING.

Now Famous Filly Leads Field and Cleans Betting Ring.

New York, Sept. 1.—There was joy unconfined in the "Lobster Palaces," of the Broadway last night, especially in the theater district over the victory of Killkare at Sheephead bay race track. The chorus girls of the company, whose season just opened on 42nd street, have more money than they know what to do with, and some of the principals a big increase in their capital. From all accounts the coupe on the horse was the greatest in many years about New York. The filly was backed in many books at 200 to one and was hammered down to sixty. Between $90,000 and $100,000 was taken from the betting ring by far the greater part of which went to a clique of Boston horsemen.

The filly once belonged to the Late Fred Hamlin, the Chicago theatrical manager. That is how the "killing happened to be so generally celebrated on the rialto last night. Surviving partners of Mr. Hamlin's firm were notified in good season that Killkare was ready to make her maiden effort and the word was passed around. There was a good sized pool made up by members of the chorus, and placed in the hands of a commissioner. The principals hurried around the betting ring for themselves and one succeeded in getting down $200 to win almost the top price. Meantime betting commissioners, representing stable and a few friends were busy at beavers. Owing to a tremendous plunge on another horse in the race they were able to spread a goodly amount of money around the ring before much thought was given to their co-operations. Then the bookmakers woke up to the fact that their sheets were becoming very much one-sided and they marked down the price against Killkare, many refusing to accept any bets against her. Although the filly had never before faced the barrier, and was ridden by a comparatively unknown jockey, she jumped away in the lead and stayed there to the end, winning by a close margin from August Belmont's Bivouac. There was a wild demonstration by the lucky ones, but in the betting ring gloom reigned for the remainder of the

A REMARKABLE CASE

Mother Hears of Daughter Kidnaped Nine Years Ago.

PARTIES MAY WANT RANSOM

Man Calls Mother to Door, and Thrusts Photograph of Child in Her Hand and Warns Her That All attempts to Find Her Will Be Useless.

New York, September 1.—There has been a strange sequel to the mysterious kidnaping, nine years ago, of pretty Rosie Cohen, an East Side girl. The girl's mother lives in Orchard Street, and was surprised yesterday by the visit of an unknown man who called the mother to the door and after telling her he knew the present whereabouts of the daughter, thrust a recent photograph of the girl into her hands and, with the remark "she has changed her name it is no use for you to try to find her," disappeared.

In the winter of 1896 the girl, nearly five years old, was playing on the street in front of her home when a man was seen to creep up placed his hand over the child's mouth caught her up in his arms and fled. The police worked on the case for a long time without success. The mother was heart broken and gave up hope of ever knowing her child's fate.

When the man visited her yesterday she pleaded with him for knowledge of the girl's whereabouts but he refused. "She would not be happy here," he said. "She is doing all right and has forgotten you. She has changed her name. Now, just forget her and don't try to find her. It won't do you any good."

The police were at once notified and are inclined to believe that the man, having found the mother, intends demanding a ransom.

BOY'S AWFUL DEED

Roasts Young Companion Alive in Burning Gasoline.

HIS INJURIES PROVE FATAL

Boy After Threatening to Roast Companion Alive Empties Contents of Gasoline Can on Him and Touches It with Lighted Match.

Chicago, Sept. 1.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Hannibal, Mo., says Charles Christian, 11-years old, son of Lee Christian, was roasted alive in Union street last night by another boy named McLain, who dashed a can of gasoline over the clothes of young Christian and then applied a lighted match. Christian was playing on the street with several other boys when McLain after twice threatening to roast the Christian boy alive, finally made his word good. He unscrewed the cap of the can, rushed upon Christian and drenched him from head to foot with gasoline. Before the unfortunate lad could get away he touched a lighted match to his trousers which were soaked with the gasoline. Instantly the boy was enveloped in flames. He fell to the ground screaming in agony and fighting the fire. Many persons ran to his rescue and succeeded in extinguishing the flames. Every stitch of clothing was burned from young Christian's back. The boy will die.
