The Week Across the River by Our Staff Correspondent

Long Beach, Sept. 8.—The most successful year in the history of western summer resorts practically closes with this week. The season has been perfectly satisfactory in every way.

The past week has been quiet socially, although more than a dozen bonfires were to be seen at irregular intervals down the beach, Sunday night, and around each was gathered its little group of faithful friends, with hearts filled with sorrow because of the coming separation.

Many plans have been made for next summer, as those who have been brought together by accident the present season have made detailed arrangements for meeting by design when another vacation rolls around.

A party from Seaview spent a delightful day at Oyster Bay Friday. Taking their lunch they drove up early in the morning, and the success of the day was proven by their return, which was delayed until late in the evening.

A pleasant evening was spent Saturday by the guests at Blackney cottage. A card party and candy-pulling furnished amusement for those present. Five hundred was played.

In the place of the regular Saturday night dance at the Breakers, an elaborate farewell program was rendered by the Philharmonic Orchestra. Their enthusiastic admirers were charmingly surprised at the brilliancy which marked the rendition of each number. The program was as follows: "Carmen" march, Bizet; "Solitude," Eilenberg, selection; "Mocking Bird," Rosenfel; sextet from "Lucia"; cornet solo, selected, Miss Bessie Datesman; Hungarian Fantasia, Tobain; melody in F, Rubenstein; "Poppies," Moret.

MILITARY BALL.

Projected Entertainment by the Uniform Rank K. of P.

The evening of September 27, 1905 is to witness a splendid reception and ball, to be given in Logan's Hall under the auspices of the local lodge of the Knights of Pythians, that body having charged C. H. Abercrombie, Fred J. Johnson, and Frank Woodfield, as a committee to foster, arrange, conduct and wind up this affair in such fashion that it shall stand monumentally the chief social attraction of the season in Astorian circles.

This, these gentlemen will do, if time, money and the adoption of all accepted standards in this relation can achieve it. On the 10th of October the uniform Rank will attend the Grand Lodge in Portland, thirty-eight strong, and while these will compete in the fancy drills and maneuvers for the several prizes always set up by the grand body, and aggregating in value several hundred dollars. May they win 'em all.

It is hoped the festivities here indicated will be co-incident with the presence in Astoria waters of the German cruiser Falke, for in such an event the officers of the ship will be made the honorary beneficiaries of the occasion, of the occasion, and with the assistance of the military staff at Fort Stevens, the officers will take exceptional eclat.

KILLS SLEEPING HARE.

While in Nehalem Valley last week the Rev. Mr. Rydquist had a number of exciting adventures among which was a bear hunt in the virgin forests of that section, the Reverend Gentleman did not succeed in slaying the bear but he has the satisfaction of knowing that one shot from his unerring rifle was the cause of the death of a sleeping hare that was so unfortunate as to be in his path.

Mr. Rydquist will no doubt have this specimen of his luck mounted it being the first game he had killed since crossing the Rockies.

SOME SOCIAL FLASHES.

A swimming party was indulged in on Wednesday afternoon by a party of young ladies under the chaperonage of Mrs. W. E. Tallant. Young's River was chosen for the outing and it was thoroughly enjoyed. A score of friends of the Misses Nellie and Katie Flavel enjoyed a lawn party last Tuesday afternoon on the pretty Flavel home grounds on Eighth street. Croquet was the game of the hour, and those who had the good fortune to be guests were charmed with the entertainment afforded.

A group of Portland friends consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Albee, Miss Stella Linnelan, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rober for the past week.

Mrs. Paul Badallet gave a delightful card party to the members of the Thursday Afternoon Club, this week. In the Euchre contest Mrs. R. Caruthers was the victor.

On the whole the social movement has been rather desultory for the week just past, due in a large measure to the reaction consequent upon the closing of the regatta and the many and lavish schemes of entertainment indulged in during that season.

"MOSBACK" INDUSTRY.

A Curious and Busy Scene on the O. R. & N. Dock.

In a quiet nook in the cavernous sheds of the O. R. & N. docks, Ole Erixon, of the Smith's Point nursery, with some helpers, is very busy these days, crating up tons of green moss, hailing from Seaside, for shipment to Los Angeles and the Southern country where they have no trees large enough to bear moss.

He has tons of the stuff on docks and puts it up in hundred pound crates. It is employed in potting and setting plants and is very valuable for these purposes. He picks the best, and gets it in the largest rolls possible, and some of his specimens are immense; one packed yesterday being 25 inches in thickness.

Mr. Erixon expects to put out 500 crates this season, and will send out a shipment of sixty crates in a few days. His business in this one line reaches the cozy little total of $2,000 per season.

He is an expert in evergreen plants and spontaneous natural growths, having successfully and skillfully set out 500 varieties for the Lewis and Clark Fair people and these are now one of the principal features in the horticultural building at Portland.

SEA PIGEON IN PORT.

One of These Rare Birds Presented to Dell B. Scully.

Captain Babbige of the Miler, on landing here yesterday evening had with him one of the rare sea pigeons one hears of far oftener than he sees or handles.

The bird was captured inside the bar, having butted into a steamer on its headlong flight, and Captain Babbige secured it. He passed it over to his friend Dell Scully, and it now constitutes a star attraction at the cigar store on Eleventh street. It is handsomely shaped, dead-black in color, with the lines of a pigeon, about the size of a good hen, has a black wicked looking beak, shaped like a gull's; it eats fish like a cormorant, fights like Nelson and is wilder than a man. Mr. Scully intends to tame it if he lives long enough but he is saturated with doubt about it. All the same it is a fine specimen of a very rare bird, and the people who called to see it last night were very many and all interested.

The Major Guy Howard, the port steamer reports having killed hundreds of wild sea fowl yesterday. The birds are densely thick in bar waters and will not get out of the way of vessels, so voracious is their pursuit of the sardines now entering the river in vast shoals.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years, my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." Chas. Rogers, druggist, sells and guarantees them, at

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Astoria Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty. When they fail to do this, the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow:

Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.

J. Blake, whose place of residence is 525 Market street, Portland, says: "I bought several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and I scarcely think if I ever had not proved satisfactory that I would have tried the second and third. I have used almost everything said to be a cure for weakened kidneys and bladder, but nothing ever gave me the satisfaction I received from Doan's Kidney Pills. They are easy to take, have no effect upon the stomach or bowels and act directly on the kidneys. I thoroughly believe from the results I received and also from observation that Doan's Kidney Pills are one preparation on the market which acts directly as represented."

Emphatic endorsement can be had right here in Astoria. Drop into Chas. Rogers' drug store and ask what customers report.
