A LITTLE ANCIENT HISTORY.

It is reported that Wm, Reid's rail-Coast railroad went up in thin air. lamook has struck the snag of financial ruin. It is presumed that the editor of the Morning Deadbeat will offer his services to the creditors of the company as he had splendid success in colecting road from Hillsboro to Nehalem and Tilfrom Reid when his Astoria & South

In fact we understand Messrs. Habershaw and Leberman are willing to recommend him as a successful collector.

CHINESE OFFICALS.

A Chinese mandarin is not expected to have any friendship or intimacies outside of his office, and he cannot encourage visitors within its precincts without laying himself open to a charge 25c at Chas, Rogers' drug store; guarof favoritism or corruption. If the inhabitants of a district wish to show their appreciation of an official's administration and testify to his probity. the most effective way in which they can do so it to wait upon him at one of the city gates as he makes his farewell exit and beg the gift of the official boots, which are thenceforwards preserved in some temple as public prop-

WHY IS IT?

"It is a somewhat curious thing," observed a commercial traveler, "that even the most fastidious individual who will reject with indignation a tumbler that has been used by another diner at a hotel, will not hesitate to drink out of a cup or glass on a railway train, although it may have been used by thousands of persons, many of them of not over cleanly habits. The same thing applies to the persons who use the icewater coolers in public buildings or ho tels. Why then should so much fastidiousness be displayed by persons at a hotel or other table as to the use of a tumbler from which a single person had previously drank?"

HIGHWAYS.

The value of good wagon roads is not appreciated in this country says an eastern exchange. We are great railroad builders, but we sadly neglect that equally important item, good wagon roads. It frequently costs the farmer as much to get his grain to the station. a distance of a few miles, as to transport it half across the continnent to market. A county will issue bonds to help build a railway which it may not need, yet considers that it has done all that is necessary when it compels the able-bodied citizens to stand in the wagon ways and talk politics a couple of days each year.

The American method of "improving" a road is about as follows: A man is elected road overseer who could not tell a culvert from a Chinese pagoda-knows no more of road building than a dray horse does of trigonometry. He summons the citizens to come forth on a certain day and "work the roads." A few of them come with scrapers and shovels. They paw around in the dirt for a day or two, each man according to his own ideas, and the last state of that road is infinitely worse than the first. I had any business to attend to I had bet-The result is that it requires four horses to do the work of one when the farm pro duce is to be hauled to market. The old Romans did these things differently, They realized that good roads were of vastly more importance to a community than fine buildings. The highways they constructed are good after twenty centuries of wear and tear.

The poorest countries of Europe have beter highways than the richest state of the American union. Road building is a science with the Europeans. It is strange that in this country, where labor-saving machienry has been brought to the highest perfection-where it is the boast of the people that every edge is made to cut"-we have the worst roads, the greatest labor-waster to be found in the world.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember that after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown of Bennettsville, S. C., says: For years, my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Biters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." Chas. Rogers, druggist, sells and guarantees them, at
