Latest Quotations in the Portland Markets.

Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

Portland, Oct. 1.—Holiday conditions prevailed on Front street this morning, except with produce commission houses, which did more than the usual amount of business within a few hours.

Large numbers of chickens were received from up country by this morning's express.

Hop dealers report a continued quiet prevailing in this state, as growers are not inclined to sell at the low prices now offered for their product.

Root vegetables are getting cheaper as the season advances. Crops of turnips, parsnips, carrots and beets are said to be very good in the region tributary to Portland, and lower prices are looked for this fall than last.

Large numbers of eastern fresh eggs are in the market and more are coming. They sell at 25@26c. Oregon fresh bring 27c.

Butter continues plentiful with Front street commission houses, and uptown creameries and quotations are weak.

Turkeys are coming in freely and prices are weak. Fancy prices are not expected until Thanksgiving time.

Geese are in good demand and sell at top quotations. Duck demand and receipts are about equal.

Potato dealers still complain of weak market and crowded warehouses.

Today's receipts of fresh fish were put on cold storage until Monday.

Mount Tabor Concord grapes are coming in at 20c per basket.

Muscat grapes from Columbia, Wash., sett at $1 per crate.

Tomatoes are firmer and sell at 30@50c per box.

Head lettuce gets cheaper from day to day.
