WANT NEW TREATY

Germany Begins Negotiations Through Ambassador.

ASK CHANGE IN RELATIONS

Formal Notification Given Secretary of State Root by Baron Von Steinberg, Who Shows Basis Which the Senate Would Undoubtedly Ratify.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—Baron Von Steinberg, the German ambassador, called on Secretary Root today and notified him that Germany was now ready to negotiate a new trade treaty with America. The baron told the secretary that a change must be had in the treaty relations between the two countries, and that realizing the dangers of the tariff war, Germany was anxious to effect some agreement with the United States that would insure a continuance of the good feeling, and aid the industrial development of the two countries. Baron Von Steinberg would not go into the details, but it developed he could show he had the basis for a treaty which the Senate would likely ratify. Secretary Root immediately referred it to tariff experts for report.

BAD MAN GATHERED IN.

Denver, Nov. 4.—Hugh Jackson, who has many aliases, is in prison here, having been arrested on the charge of drunkenness. John Leyder has identified Jackson as the man who, under the name of Jack Havlin, is wanted in St. Paul for the murder of Policeman Charles Mayer on the night of February 1, 1902.

Registration proceeds slowly yet surely. Thirty people appeared before Auditor Anderson in this behalf yesterday, making the sum of registrations to date 681. Let the good work go on.

YIELDS TO ASPIRATIONS OF FINLANDERS

EMPEROR NICHOLAS SIGNS THE MANIFESTO

Whole Structure of the Autocratic Regime of Russia Is Falling and the Czar No Longer Resists the Popular Will.

FINNS QUICK TO SEE AND SEIZE THE OPPORTUNITY OFFERED

Tied Up Railroads, Compelled Senate to Resign, Organized Military and Drove the Russian Gendarmerie Out—Then Sent Deputation to Peterhoff Demanding the Convocation of Diet and Obliteration of the Whole Russification Policy—Situation Threatening and Government Compelled to Yield.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—The manifesto of Emperor Nicholas, granting the demands of the Finns has been signed and the dispatched to Helsinki. It can vokes the Diet on December 20th, and abolishes dictatorship, rescinds Brodrikoff's illegal enactments and annuls the manifesto of 1899, which provides for common legislation for the empire, and all laws since enacted. This power will now be conferred on the Diet by an elaborate new system of the representation based on universal suffrage. The Ukase provides for the formulation of laws giving a practical autonomy. The emperor has accepted the resignation of the entire Senate and virtually promised to remove the Governor General, Prince John Obolensky.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—This whole structure of the autocratic regime of Russia is falling and Emperor Nicholas no longer resists. A memorable week with its abdication of despotism and the birth of a new and popular regime amid great scenes of disorder and bloodshed and worse, ends in the complete surrender to the aspirations of the Finlanders. When the national crisis was reached, the Finns were quick to see and seize the opportunities, while the attention of the government was engrossed in the empire proper. They tied up the railroads, and compelling the members of the senate to resign, organized a militia at Helsinki and practically drove the Russian gendarmerie out of the city.

They sent a deputation to the governor general and one to the Peterhof, demanding a convocation of the Diet and the obliteration of the whole Russification policy. The situation became so threatening that the government was compelled to send warships to Helsinki, where it will arrived tonight. The success of the Finnish program may inspire a similar spirit in Poland, but it will be more difficult to succeed there, as all vestige of control is merged into a central body, since the revolution of 1863.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—Count Witte is fast getting his hands on the helm and the Russian ship of state is beginning to right itself.

Gradually disorder that followed the proclamation of the constitution is being fast put down. The premier has met the immense difficulties confronting him and the demands of the different classes of society, with energy and sincerity, and more and more are daily giving him support, including the moderate liberals who were frightened by the carnival of disorders into which the country was plunged proletarian, under the leadership of the "Reds" and social democrats.

Witte today solved the railroad strike at a conference with the strikers at which time he did not hesitate to make a reasonable surrender of the government's demands. This basis of the settlement includes an increase of wages, and the creation of a commission on which employees will have representation, to consider questions of improving their condition; permission to organize abolition of the military regulations applying to railroads; freedom of employment to discuss questions of strike without notifying police; involability of persons of strikers and the re-employment of men dismissed for striking. Under this settlement all railroads are resuming work.

With the exception of the newspapers all express appreciation of Witte's enormous task, though some doubt his success, in view of the obstacles he will encounter both from above and below. Russian heads cry for Treppoff's removal, declaring him to be the incarnation of regime of bayonets, bullets and Cossack whips which everybody have failed, and the people would never be satisfied as long as the control of troops remains in his hands.

To a deputation which waited on him today, the Count said it was impossible to remove the troops and the large cities until complete order was restored, and asked the deputation to have confidence in the intentions of himself and his government.

Quite as important as the agreement with the railroad strikers, was his decision in connection with the situation in Finland. The Count proposed to the emperor the entire reversal of the policy of the Russification of Finland and the restoration of the old civil and military liberties. The Associated Press hears the Emperor was convicted, and the proclamation may be issued tonight. Meantime General Treppoff is fast restoring order.

In the interior martial law has been declared, and in many cities, in order quell disturbances, a sort of militia has been organized under the students.

Odessa, Nov. 5.—It is now believed that the worst is over. Owing to the mobs being satisfied with the two day's carnival of murder and destruction, the revolt against law and order is fast dying down, due practically, perhaps to lack of material upon which to prey. Almost the entire Jewish quarters, Moldavanka, Slobodova and Rugiovka are completely devastated, and the inhabitants are either killed or wounded or have sought refuge in other sections of the town. The whole fury of the mob has been directed against the Jews.

During the first demonstration over Emperor's manifesto, and the sudden acquisition of freedom, tens of thousands of men who have hated the Jews throughout many generations became drunk with a desire of joy for Jewish blood and killed for the very joy of killing.

In some cases the military have actually aided instead of preventing the work of revenge and fury. Every Jew, man, woman, and child was slaughtered and the methods employed in the frightful work of butchery are far too revolting to number. The number of persons killed will never be known, but 5657 are wounded in various hospitals in the city.

PUGS MAY FIGHT.

New York, Nov. 4.—It was said last night that the proposed contest between Bob Fitzsimmons and Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia might materialize. Jimmy Coffroth, who is one of the leading powers in the fistie game at San Francisco, is in town and yesterday offered Fitzsimmons $15,000 to meet O'Brien. Bob thought that the percentage basis would be the best thing and he told Coffroth that if O'Brien was satisfied these conditions would suit him. Coffroth wired the ex-champion's terms to O'Brien. If plans do not miscarry, it is said, Fitzsimmons and O'Brien will have it out no later than the latter part of next month.

Refused to Salute Red Flag.

Rommy, Nov. 4.—Following the refusal of a rich Jewish merchant to salute the red flag, a mob sacked and burned fifteen Jewish stores here tonight and killed many persons.

Soldiers Must Join Revolution.

Warsaw, Nov. 4.—At a Socialist gathering held here today, two infantry soldiers in full uniform, delivered addresses, assuring their hearers that the revolutionary propaganda is growing in the army and that the time is not far remote when the army must join in the revolution and overthrow the despotic throne.

BOTH ARE CONFIDENT

Fusionists Arrayed Against Union Labor in San Francisco.

ODDS IN FAVOR OF SCHMITZ

For First Time In Annals of San Francisco, Republicans and Democrats Unite in Municipal Campaign—Neither Side Admits Possibility of Defeat.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—The local municipal campaign which is fast drawing to a close has been one of the most notable in the annals of San Francisco. For the first time the Republican and Democratic parties have combined in the nomination of a ticket. The fusion nominee for mayor, is John N. P. Ridge, (Republican) at the present deputy district attorney. Opposed to him and other fusion nominees, who are about equally divided between the two great national parties is present mayor Schmitz and associates, on a Union Labor ticket.

Registration is the heaviest on record it is estimated that 75,000 votes will be polled. Neither side admits the possibility of defeat. Betting odds are 6-1 or 7-1 in favor of the re-election of Schmitz. Voting machines will be used throughout the city, and it is expected they will so expedite the counting that the result will be known early.

GOES TO CHINA.

Baron Komura Goes on Another Mission For Japan.

Tokio, Nov. 4.—3 P. M.—Count Katsura, the premier of Japan, will assume the duties of Baron Komura as minister of foreign affairs during the absence of the late at Pekin, where he will visit as a special envoy from Japan. Baron Komura will leave for China on November 6.

STREET IS FOR TAMMANY

Monied Interests Back of McClellan.

CONTEST NEARLY ENDED

Hearst, Ivens and Tammany Are All Confident of Their Success.

ODDS STILL ARE ON JEROME

New York's Municipal Campaign Fast Drawing to a Close—Final Campaign Speeches Are Made—Close Race for the Mayoralty.

New York, Nov. 4.—William M. Ivens, the Republican candidate for mayor of New York declares he is gaining votes by the thousands each day. Mayor McClellan, Democratic candidate states he was never so confident as now while Mr. Hearst's managers say their candidate will be surely elected.

Betting of Wall Street brokers today has favored McClellan for mayor of New York by odds of three to one, to two to one, and Jerome for district attorney by ten to seven to ten to eight. One firm of brokers is said to have placed $150,000 against McClellan since the open of the campaign, and stand to win a half million.

It is estimated that $50,000 was wagered in Wall street today. One bet was even that Hearst would not poll 175,000 votes. Estimates are very wild, but the situation tonight seems to warrant the prediction that the result would be close. The speechmaking of the campaign ended tonight in a whirlwind of meetings, all the candidates addressing big political gatherings.

Lincoln, Nov. 4.—Tonight is practically the close of a state campaign that has been listless and without interest. Aside from a few counties, in which local issues injected bitterness, there has been no canvas whatever. Republicans claim that they will carry the election with a majority between sixteen and thirty thousand. Democrats claim the Republican estimate excessive and state they have ground for confidence.

SAILS FOR HOME.

Governor General Wright Now on His Way to San Francisco.

Manila, Nov. 4.—Governor General Wright sailed at 11 o'clock today for San Francisco. All classes bade him bon voyage. Governor Wright was much affected at the outburst of loyalty to him and he declared that he would positively return.

Before his departure this morning there was a water parade in which over 100 launches, richly decorated and music laden, participated.

SENSATIONAL CAMPAIGN IN PHILADELPHIA CLOSED

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—With numerous orators asking for the support of their favorite candidates, Philadelphia tonight closed what has probably been the most sensational campaign in its history. Primarily the fight was against the men who control the local Republican organization. The present fight began last spring when a popular uprising occurred against the city extending the present lease of the gas works for another seventy-five years for a consideration of $25,000,000. Both sides claim the victory, the Republicans by fifty thousand and the city party leaders by 100,000.
